This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Q. VII. What Ministers have DIED since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, thirty-three, viz,—

(1.) THOMAS R. JONES; who was born at Caernarvon, August the 4th, 1810. He was the son of the late Rev. John Jones. When eighteen years of age he was converted during a service conducted by the late 'Squire Brook.' In 1835 he entered the Ministry, and for forty-five years toiled hard for the Master. His ministry was eminently evangelical; and in some of his Circuits was crowned with remarkable success. At Portland one of the greatest revivals known in the south of England occurred, commencing under a sermon which Mr. Jones addressed one Sunday morning to backsliders. As a Superintendent he gave diligent and faithful attention to the varied interests of his Circuits, financial as well as spiritual. A self-sacrificing loyalty to Christ and His Church was one of his chief characteristics throughout the course of his protracted ministry. On becoming a Supernumerary he retired to Bridlington-Quay, where the last three years of his life were spent in weakness and in much suffering; but the power of the Gospel was strikingly illustrated in his continuous resignation. At 'even-time' there was 'light.' Expressions of exultation were often on his lips. On one occasion he exclaimed: 'The new song I shall sing.' He fell asleep on his seventy-third birthday, August the 4th, 1883, in the forty-eighth year of his ministry.

(2.) THOMAS JEFFERIES; who was born at Stourbridge, July the 4th, 1811. He was converted to God when fourteen years old. He entered the Ministry in 1833, and took Circuit-work until 1875, when failing health obliged him to retire. As a Superintendent he was a wise administrator, ever securing respect and love by his eminently kind disposition. His attention to all the details of business was constant. His love of Methodism was deep and unchanging.

His sermons were plain, instructive, and evangelical; the doctrines of the Atonement and justification by faith were his favourite themes, which he enforced with much earnestness of appeal

His last illness was severe and prolonged, but was borne with great patience and resignation. His confidence in the Divine wisdom and love was unfailing. When the end came he was undismayed. The faith he had long preached sustained him when flesh was failing. Beloved by all who knew him, he fell asleep, September the 7th, 1883, in the seventy-third year of his age, and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(3.) THOMAS WHITE SMITH; who was born at Bradford, Wilts, June 21st, 1797. Trained in a godly home, he became familiar with the ordinances of Methodism from childhood. In London, whither he early removed, he was convinced of sin, and found peace through believing.

At the age of twenty-one, he began to preach in the neighbourhood of the Mint, in the prisons and lowest lodging-houses, and often in the open air. In his twenty-fifth year he entered the Methodist Ministry, and was appointed to South-Petherton. In his earlier Circuits he had to endure severe toils and difficulties, which he met with a fine spirit of devotion and Christian heroism. His ministry extended over forty-four years. He was careful in his preparation for the pulpit. His style was pleasing, and his delivery fervent and pathetic, and sometimes eloquent; but, above all, eminently useful. He faithfully cared for all the interests entrusted to his charge. A beautiful simplicity marked his character, blended with cheerfulness, sound judgment, and zeal for the salvation of sinners. His administration was prudent, prompt, and thorough. His fidelity and tact were proved in troublous times, when he was a wise pilot and faithful counsellor. In 1866 he felt it to be his duty to retire; but during his retirement he preached often, and with much of his old power; and took the warmest interest in all Circuit movements. On September 22nd, 1883, in the eighty-seventh year of his age, 'he fell on sleep.' He was able to say; 'All is well; all is well.'

(4.) THOMAS HARDY; who was born at Birmingham, August the 24th, 1803, and was brought to God when about fourteen years of age. He entered the Wesleyan-Methodist Ministry in 1826. He continued for fifty years to labour with unabated zeal, and in 1877 settled at Falmouth as a Supernumerary. He was of sound judgment, unflinching integrity, and ceaseless activity in ministerial duties, which were the joy of his life. The Word of God was his constant study, and his expositions of Divine truth were comprehensive and eminently practical. He was an enthusiastic lover of Methodism, and an able administrator: wise, faithful, and attentive to every detail of Circuit work. In 1882 he removed to Newark, where his health began to decline, and after lingering in distressing weakness until October the 3rd, 1883, he fell asleep in Jesus. Some of his last words were: 'I have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.'

(5.) CHARLES LESTER; who was born at Ivinghoe, near Dunstable, in 1848. The training of godly parents and the influences of a Christian home resulted in his early conversion to God. At seventeen years of age he began to call sinners to repentance, and three years later was accepted as a candidate for our Ministry. He enjoyed the advantages of training at Didsbury; and in the Circuits where he afterwards laboured he gave full proof of his ministry. He had just entered upon his work in the Northampton Circuit, full of faith and zeal, when his course was suddenly terminated after a short illness, the result of exposure to cold.

In fellowship with Christ he had learned what that Scripture meaneth: 'Henceforth I call you not servants, but friends;' and this was the distinction of his spiritual life. Consistent, frank, and faithful, he was an epistle 'known and read of all men.' His preaching was plain, earnest, and practical. Cheerful, orderly, and persistent in his pastoral work, he honoured his Master by a life of consecrated service.

His decease was unexpected, and almost to the last he entertained hopes of recovery. He said: 'I hope I shall pull through; but if I do not, I am safe through the merits of Christ.' Just before he passed away he attempted to sing:

'His merit is my only plea,
For Christ is All in all to me.'

He died on October 3rd, 1883, in the thirty-sixth year of his age, and the thirteenth of his ministry.

(6.) JABEZ OVERTON, (son of the late Rev. John Overton); who was born at Tiverton, January 12th, 1822. He was converted while a scholar at Kingswood-School, and soon afterwards commenced to work for God. He entered the Ministry in 1848. He was a diligent student of the Word. His preaching gave evidence of careful preparation, and was intensely earnest and spiritual. His care for young men was most marked. He lived, pre-eminently, not for himself but others. Strict conscientiousness characterized the discharge of all his duties. For thirty-one years he rendered good service in the cause of Christ, and had the joy of seeing much fruit. In Cornwall, he laboured for twenty-four years, among a people who set a high value upon his labour. He became a Supernumerary in 1880. His last illness was of a very distressing nature. In his last hours he affirmed Christ to be his hope, and His grace to be sufficient to sustain to the end. He peacefully entered into rest, October 10th, 1883, at St. Agnes, Cornwall, in the sixty-second year of his age, and the thirty-fourth of his ministry.

(7.) PHILIP GUITON; who was born in Jersey, in 1820. He was converted to God when twelve years old, and became a member of the Wesleyan-Methodist Society. Whilst pursuing his studies at Caen he was in danger of losing his faith, but the prayers of his mother and a severe illness brought him back to the Saviour. He was received as a probationer in 1840, and was stationed in Guernsey. God acknowledged by a glorious revival the labours of the young Minister. He was one of the young men of the Channel Islands who went to France to help Dr. Charles Cook and his valiant co-operators. His first station in France, was the arduous field of the Hautes Alpes. The rigour of the climate impaired his health to such a degree that he was obliged to return for a time to his native land. He went back to France; and for more than twenty years did the work of an Evangelist in the north, the south, the east and in the west of that country. He was one of the most eminent Ministers of the French Conference. Eight times he was called to be Chairman of a district. His cheerful disposition, his fervent and attractive piety, his sympathetic manner of preaching, and his gifts as an administrator were highly appreciated. Wherever he was stationed many souls were brought to Christ through his instrumentality. The state of his health forced him to return to Jersey as a Supernumerary in 1868. During the last fifteen years of his life he was unable to speak from the pulpit; but his ministry to the many sick and afflicted whom he visited was greatly blessed. The Lord took him, October 16th, 1883. 'Lord,' he was heard saying, 'wilt Thou not soon let Thy servant go in peace?' And his prayer was answered.

(8.) JOHN CAREY PENGELLY; who was born at Devonport, January 1st, 1803. When a young man he went up to London, and entered the office of a solicitor. He purposed qualifying for the Law but the Master called him to preach the Gospel; and he was not disobedient to the Heavenly calling. He entered on his first Circuit in 1829, and continued in the full work of the Ministry until 1873, when he settled at Worthing, where he spent the remaining years of his life, rendering efficient help to the Circuit both as a Preacher and as a wise and valued counsellor. He took an active and prominent part in the early stages of the Educational Movement in Methodism, more especially the establishing of the Normal Institute, Westminster. He was a cultivated and earnest Preacher, gentlemanly and genial in his manners; he attracted the young by his sympathy and uniform cheerfulness; and manifested throughout a long period of peculiar trial an unfailing trust in God, and patient submission to the Divine will. The end came suddenly. He needed not the refining of a prolonged affliction, for he stood ready for the Master's call. He died on Sunday, October 21st, 1883, aged eighty years.

(9.) TIMOTHY ROBERT MOXON; who was born at Burnham, Norfolk. He became a member of the Society in 1834, and soon began to call sinners to repentance. In 1838 he was accepted by the Conference as a probationer for our Ministry. He applied himself to his life-work with ever-increasing diligence, until forced by failing health to become a Supernumerary, in 1882.

He was a man of varied intelligence, and took a special interest in natural science; but the study of the sacred Scriptures was his supreme delight. His preaching was chiefly expository and practical, evincing a sound judgment, and much careful and independent thought. In the conducting of Bible-classes he was eminently successful; and his later years were frequently cheered by tidings of the good which had resulted from his labours in former Circuits. As a Superintendent he was straightforward, judicious, firm and conciliatory; and to his colleagues affectionate and true. In the social circle he was cheerful, frank and genial; whilst his kindness to the poor was bounded only by his resources. During his retirement he rendered to the Stockport (Hillgate) Circuit what services he could. He died in peace, November the 25th, 1883, in the sixty-sixth year of his age, and the forty-fifth of his ministry.

(10.) GEORGE BUTCHER; who was born at St. James', Norfolk, whence he removed in childhood with his parents to Prince Edward's Island. Having become the subject of saving grace in early life, on returning to his native land, he united himself with our Church, and cherished an earnest desire to enter the Methodist Ministry. Its gates being closed through the tribulations which then afflicted the Connexion, he went back to Prince Edward's Island, and soon received an appointment as a Minister in Nova-Scotia. Among the hardy fishermen and enterprising colonists of his adopted country, with great energy and success, he made known the truths of the Gospel, and in some of the chief cities in the British Dominion of North America fulfilled his ministry with much joy and acceptance. When the Sackville Academy was destroyed by fire, his knowledge of architecture was turned to good account by the valuable assistance which he rendered in its reconstruction.

Throughout his career he manifested a deep interest in the erection and renovation of Chapels, School-rooms, and Ministers' houses. In his English Circuits he won universal esteem by his manly uprightness, his cheerful intelligence, and his solid, spotless piety. By his gentleness and urbanity he secured the affection and confidence of his ministerial brethren, of our own and other Churches; and in all places in which he laboured it was his joy to witness that 'the Lord added to the Church,' and increased the spiritual vigour of those already gathered in. He manifested a deep interest in the poor. An earnest adherent of the total abstinence movement, his last public effort was in advocacy of its principles. His mortal illness found him waiting in perfect peace; and amid much pain and weakness, in 'full assurance of hope unto the end,' he triumphantly committed his soul into his Redeemer's hands. He died at Deal, the 30th of November, 1883, in the twenty-eighth year of his ministry, and the fifty-sixth of his age.

(11.) GEORGE RANYELL; who was born at Tattershall, Lincolnshire, August 12th, 1809. In very early life he was the subject of deep religious impressions, but did not begin to serve the Lord in earnest till his eighteenth year. About that time he joined the Wesleyan-Methodist Society. After a season of deep penitential sorrow he found peace with God, whilst listening to a sermon preached by the late Rev. Leonard Posnett. He offered himself for work in our Foreign Missions, was accepted by the Conference of 1833, and was sent to the West Indies, where, for nearly sixteen years, he laboured with great earnestness, fidelity, and success. In 1849 enfeebled health compelled him to return home, when he laboured in several Circuits with much acceptance and profit. His preaching was earnest, practical, and useful; his constant aim being to save those who heard him. In 1863 he became a Supernumerary, and in 1876 received an appointment to the Chaplaincy of the Netley Hospital, where many were benefited by his kindly visits, wise counsels, and fervent prayers. He was mighty in prayer. In 1881 he removed to Weymouth, where, being too feeble for active service, he found all-sufficient grace to suffer all his Father's righteous will. His last days were full of brightness, peace, and hope. Some of his last utterances were: 'Precious blood! precious blood!' He fell asleep, resting on the Atonement, December 6th, 1883, in the seventy-fifth year of his age, and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(12.) SAMUEL HICKMANS; who was born at Gornal-Wood, in the Dudley Circuit, May the 28th, 1848. His parents, being Wesleyan-Methodists, brought him up 'in the nurture and admonition of the Lord,' and in his twelfth year he gave his heart to God. He at once became a member of his father's Class, and gave satisfactory evidence of a true conversion. He soon afterwards became a teacher in the Sunday-school, where his labours were much blessed. In 1871 he was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry, and for twelve years sought to approve himself unto God, 'a workman that needed not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.' His preaching was marked by many features of excellence, and his spirit was eminently serious and devout. In the Circuits in which he laboured he was much esteemed, and is affectionately remembered. His health for some months before his death had shown signs of failure, and for some weeks he was entirely laid aside. He clung to the hope of recovery; but when it became evident there was no ground for it, he was enabled to say: 'Thy will be done.' He died in great peace, at Whaley-Bridge, December the 7th, 1883, in the thirty-sixth year of his age, and the thirteenth of his ministry.

(13.) SAMUEL HIGGINBOTHAM TINDALL, (son of the late Rev. Samuel Tindall); who died December 10th, 1883, in the forty-eighth year of his life, and the twenty-sixth of his Ministry. In very early life his sensitive, impressible nature was affected by sacred truth. His early religious impressions were deepened during his school-life at Kingswood, and he was led to consecrate himself wholly to God in his seventeenth year. By careful training a firm foundation was laid for thorough, diligent and continuous study, for which his superior abilities fitted him. His reading at first inclined him to High-Church notions, from which he was freed only by much patient enquiry, by severe mental struggle, and by a gracious revival of religion in his Circuit. His preaching, always of a high order, now partook of a new power, and was carefully directed, as was the toil of his life, to the promotion of revivals of religion; and in every Circuit his labour was rewarded. He was a painstaking student of Theology, especially delighting in the best writers of the English Church. He also gave close attention to the exposition of Holy Scripture, in which he greatly excelled, and the benefit of which was proved by the Churches under his care. In the latter years of his ministry he became fervently devoted to the saving of souls. His preaching, plans, conversation, all aimed at this. In it he was eminently honoured of God. In the fervour of his work in Revival Missions he overtaxed his strength, and helped to bring upon himself five years of very painful affliction and enforced retirement. His sufferings, borne with meekness and heroic patience, promoted and revealed a very lofty spiritual experience. He was a saintly man, faithful in duty, firm in friendship, unswerving in honour, devoted and reverent in demeanour, and prudent in speech and action. In gifts, in goodness, and in usefulness, he was surpassed by few if any his equals in years. With words of faith and hope upon his lips this good man passed away to the heaven for which he had been made meet.

(14.) PASCHO HOSKINS; who was born at Devonport, September 16th, 1820. He was favoured with pious parents, and was early in life converted to God. In 1844 he was received by the Conference as a candidate for the Ministry, and entered on his work in Bristol. During thirty-five years of devoted toil he faithfully served the Connexion, and sustained a blameless reputation. He was, by sympathy, and by deep-rooted principle, a thorough Methodist preacher, and was fully consecrated to his work. A clear sense of the responsibilities of his high calling led to careful preparation for his various duties, especially for the pulpit. His sermons were sound, instructive, lively, and earnest. In the Superintendency of the various Circuits of which he was put in charge, he was painstaking and accurate, and showed superior administrative ability. As Chairman of a district, he was judicious and faithful. He retired from Circuit-work at the Conference of 1879.

He had a remarkable gift for inducing wealthy persons to contribute liberally to the cause of God. He was particularly fitted for the work amongst sailors and soldiers. His exhausting labours in connection with the Seaman's Mission sowed the seeds of his fatal disease. After a lengthened and most painful affliction, which beclouded his mind, this faithful servant entered into the joy of his Lord, on January 6th, 1884, in the sixty-fourth year of his age, and the fortieth of his ministry.

(15.) HENRY RICHARDSON; who was born at Market-Weighton, June the 22nd, 1809. His parents were members of the Wesleyan-Methodist Society. His mind gradually opened to the truth. In his native place the Wesleyan-Methodist services at that time were held under his father's roof. He was converted to God when about seventeen years of age. He entered the Ministry in 1833. As a Preacher he was thoroughly evangelical, earnest, and practical; and his sermons were highly appreciated by the congregations to whom he ministered. His visits to the homes of his flock were frequent and regular; and his attention to the sick and dying was exemplary and unremitting. As a Superintendent he was judicious, and discharged the several duties of his office with fidelity and conscientiousness. By his colleagues he was greatly beloved,

In all social relations he displayed that which is 'pure, lovely, and of good report.' His urbanity, his intelligent and edifying conversation, his cheerfulness and geniality, and the beautiful consistency of his character and conduct endeared him to a wide circle of friends. Of the domestic circle he was the brightness and joy; the tenderness and gentleness of his nature found there the fullest expression. His whole spirit and bearing showed him to be a man of God. After forty-four years in the itinerant work he became a Supernumerary, settling at Greengates, in the Woodhouse-Grove Circuit. The years of his retirement were frequently marked by much mental depression, arising from physical causes. He peacefully passed away to his eternal rest, on the 28th of January, 1884, in the seventy-fifth year of his age, and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(16.) THOMAS HUGHES (A); who was born at Llangynnog, Montgomeryshire, in 1815. His parents were Wesleyan-Methodists, and their godly influence was honoured in his conversion. In early life he became a Local-preacher of much promise; and in the year 1842 he entered the Wesleyan Ministry. After labouring in Welsh Circuits for four years, he was ordained and appointed to the English work in which he sustained a vigorous ministerial course until 1870. Notwithstanding some marked peculiarities, he was much esteemed and beloved by a wide circle of friends. He had, however, taken a position respecting the Class-meeting at variance with its recognised importance in the economy of Methodism, and endeavoured to propagate his opinions through the press; on account of which the Conference deemed it necessary that he should retire from Circuit work. For the last eight and a half years he resided at Morton, near Oswestry, occasionally preaching for his own and other denominations.

Mr. Hughes was an original and self-reliant thinker. He was the author of various metaphysical treatises of considerable merit. He was of a speculative cast of mind. He was not, however, a mere student or preacher, but endeared himself to the villagers around by many acts of kindness, particularly in visiting the sick and ministering the Word of Life amongst them, and in his removal they have lost a great friend. His illness was protracted; and during the last few weeks of his life he sometimes seemed to lose consciousness. But he gave clear indications of unshaken confidence in God through the merits of the Redeemer. He entered into rest, January 31st, 1884, in the sixty-ninth year of his age.

(17.) JOHN BARTLEY (A); who was born at Trefriw in Carnarvonshire, in the year 1805. When about fifteen years of age he was brought to a saving knowledge of the truth. He was received at the Conference of 1830 as a candidate for the Ministry, and was sent to the Ruthin and Llangollen Circuit. As a Christian he was sincere, uniform, upright, cheerful and devoted. He had a sound understanding, discriminating judgment and retentive memory; and, in more than common measure, some of the most important qualifications for usefulness in the great work to which his life was devoted. He was a sound Methodist theologian, and his sermons were sometimes delivered with great power and unction. He had many seals to his ministry. He was a careful and judicious Superintendent, and a faithful Pastor. By his diligence and usefulness he secured the respect and love of those among whom he laboured. In 1870 he became a Supernumerary, and spent five years in the Ruthin Circuit, where he was very useful. In 1875 he removed to the Holyhead Circuit, where he spent the remainder of his years. He was always doing good, labouring to the utmost of his strength in and out of the pulpit. In December, 1883, his health began to fail, and with much patience he endured a most painful illness for two months, until at length 'the weary wheels of life stood still.' Some of his last words were: 'Christ is my refuge;' 'All right;' 'Farewell.' He died, February 19th, 1884, in the seventy-ninth year of his age, and the fifty-fourth of his ministry.

(18.) JOHN HUGHES (A); who was born of godly parents,

December 3rd, 1807, at Brynyffordd, Holywell. He was converted to God at fourteen years of age, and began to preach when he was twenty-one. He entered the Ministry in 1831, and travelled in several Circuits in Wales until the year 1870, when he became a Supernumerary, and resided at Liverpool, labouring, according to his ability, faithfully in his Master's work. At the commencement of his ministry especially, his preaching was very powerful, and the people crowded to hear him; and though trials and family afflictions depressed his mind and weakened his strength, he continued faithful to the end. His illness was short and severe. He several times expressed a 'desire to depart, and to be with Christ;' bade farewell to his wife and children, repeating: 'I am going to be with Christ, which is far better;' and again: 'I am so happy; O, so happy! Accepted in Christ—no pain there—all peace there—no fear there.' On Sunday, March 16th, he became very much weaker, and it was evident that the end was near. He said: 'I am trusting in Christ—no doubt—no fear—so happy; O, so happy!' which he repeated several times, while his face beamed with almost supernatural brightness. His last words were: 'The Lord is my Shepherd.' On the 17th, although unable to speak, he was quite conscious, and when asked if he was happy, he lifted his hand and smiled, and quietly fell asleep, in the seventy-seventh year of his age, and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(19.) WILLIAM SOLOMON DEWSTOE; who entered the Ministry in 1858, and died at Falmouth, 3rd of April, 1884, aged forty-eight years. He was a diligent student of the Scriptures, an effective expository Preacher, a good Pastor, zealous in spirit, and truly alive to God. His ministry was successful, and his praise is in the Churches. His preaching was greatly appreciated in the Falmouth Circuit, where he had been brought up, and by members of other Churches.

For several years he was a great sufferer. He had to retire from active service at a comparatively early age. His health quite failed in 1874; but as it was thought an appointment to South Africa might be beneficial to him, he went thither for three years, and found congenial work. He returned to England enfeebled, and in much pain, and became a Supernumerary in 1878. For a few years in his home, near Penryn, he wrote the Notes on the Lessons for the Wesleyan Sunday-School Magazine. He took great delight in this work; and his services were highly esteemed by the Committee of the Connexional Sunday-School Union.

He hoped to return to Circuit-work at this Conference, but the Master called him suddenly during sleep in the night.

(20.) JOHN PEAVIOUR JOHNSON; who was born in Salford, March 27th, 1814, of Methodist parents. He joined the Society in 1837, and entered the Ministry in 1839. For twenty-eight years he toiled in the full work with much acceptance and success. He was an able Preacher, a well-read theologian, a generous colleague, a strict disciplinarian. In 1867 he became a Supernumerary, and the last sixteen years of his life were spent at Wood-Green. While resident there, having been trained as an architect, he rendered long and useful services by examining and reporting on all plans submitted to the Metropolitan Chapel Building Committee, of which he was a valued member. Throughout his ministry, as an accomplished musician, he bestowed much pains upon the improvement of the musical service of the sanctuary. He also possessed considerable artistic genius and skill, which, by leading him into the society of men distinguished in art and letters, considerably extended his sphere of usefulness. The last two years of his life were spent in much feebleness and suffering; but as his end drew near, his spiritual vision became stronger, and he had peculiar interest and satisfaction in contemplating the grandeur of the Atonement. Calmly trusting in the merit and mercy of Jesus, his spirit passed away, April 7th, 1884, in the seventy-first year of his age, and the forty-fifth of his ministry.

(21.) WILLIAM COWELL BROWN; who was born at Ramsay, Isle of Man, June the 4th, 1845. He was a Methodist of the fifth generation, and always referred with peculiar reverence to the influence of his 'sainted father.' Converted in early life, he began to preach when he was barely sixteen, and having been accepted as a candidate by the Conference of 1865, he was sent to Penzance. For seventeen years he did the full work of the Ministry in some of our most important Circuits. His manly form, his simple, natural manner, his strong individuality, his lucid expositions of the truth, his happy, ardent temperament, and the compass and sweetness of his voice, combined to make him an acceptable Preacher. His early training had been that of an engineer, and to the close of life his love for science amounted to a passion; but all his knowledge of men and things was made subservient to the work of preaching the Gospel. With the felicity of genius, he often brightened his discourses by illustrations drawn from practical science; while he was not less happy in many an incidental reference to the current forms of scientific unbelief. In 1882 he was forbidden to preach, and became a Supernumerary; but was ever wont to say: 'I am a Methodist Preacher!' and was hopeful of a speedy return to the regular work.

After resting for some months, he took a few services in the Circuit to which he had retired, and his sermons were marked by a rare tenderness and unction. He was afflicted with heart-disease and great cerebral pressure, accompanied by much mental suffering; but the moment he was free from the terrible agony, his bright and hopeful patience, and his simple faith in God, almost veiled from the eyes of friends the seriousness of his complaint. On Good Friday, April 11th, 1884, he had a sharp paroxysm of pain; exclaimed, 'Health! Death! Jesus!' and soon afterwards fell quietly asleep. Unconsciously he passed through the gates of death to the land of everlasting life. He died at Poplar, in the thirty-ninth year of his age, and the nineteenth of his ministry.

(22.) CHARLES CHURCHILL, M.A.; who was born in Nottingham in 1810. He was converted to God in the sixteenth year of his age, when he at once joined the Methodist Society, and began to devote himself to various branches of spiritual service. For a few years he conducted a prosperous business, which had come to him by inheritance, on behalf of his widowed mother, at the same time labouring with earnestness and remarkable success as a Local-preacher. In 1837 he felt constrained to offer himself to the Conference for the work of a Missionary, and was sent to Nova-Scotia, where, as also in Eastern Canada, he laboured with distinguished efficiency for nineteen years as a Circuit Minister, and afterwards for six years as Book-Steward and Editor of Connexional publications. He returned to England in 1862, and in 1874, after twelve years of acceptable ministry at home, became a Supernumerary at Clapton, where he continued to render willing and welcome service as a Preacher, a Leader of Society-classes, and a visitor of our people at their homes, until within a few weeks of his death. Mr. Churchill was of superior mental ability, of genial temper, and of considerable literary attainments and power. As a student of Scripture he was painstaking and devout; as a Preacher, fluent, earnest, practical, and direct; as a Pastor, diligent, discreet and sympathizing; as a friend, affectionate, unselfish, and faithful. He always manifested a firm attachment to his own Church; but was free from bigotry; and the greatest joy of his life was to promote, or to witness, or to hear of the prosperity of the work of God. Throughout his last illness he was not only patient, but cheerful, and even joyous; most grateful for the kind attention of his friends, and full of praise to his Saviour. A day or two before his death, when unable to speak intelligibly, he wrote: 'Jesus is mine, and I am His for ever.' He calmly passed away, on the 23rd of April, 1884.

(23.) JOHN HENRY HEARLE; who died at Welshpool, on April 28th, 1884, in the twenty-ninth year of his age, and the fourth of his ministry. During his residence at Didsbury his excellent character won for him the esteem both of the tutors and of his fellow-students. He supplied in various Circuits with much acceptance, and gave promise of a ministry of considerable usefulness. His early and painful death disappointed the hopes of those who knew him, and caused them deep sorrow. His last words were: 'The gates are open; the gates are open! Heaven.'

(24.) ALFRED J. DUPUY; who was born in Guernsey in 1835, where he entered into rest on the 7th of May, 1884, in the twenty-sixth year of his ministry, and the forty-ninth of his age. Converted to God in early youth, he soon afterwards became a Local-preacher. Subsequently he removed to France, where, after a course of training, he was received as a probationer in 1858 in connection with the French Conference. He laboured acceptably and successfully in several Circuits in France and Switzerland, and in 1870 returned to the Channel Islands, where he was stationed in the French Circuits in Guernsey and Jersey, in which he did good service. He was equally fluent in French and English. His discourses were thoroughly evangelical, well-prepared, and delivered with earnestness and feeling. As a Pastor his visits were always welcome, especially to the aged and sick, with whom he thoroughly sympathised. His health, which had never been robust, gradually failed, until at the last Conference he was compelled to retire from Circuit-work. It soon became apparent that recovery was impossible. He bore his sufferings with resignation, and in feebleness extreme was enabled to testify to his full repose on Christ, and his firm hope of heaven.

(25.) GEORGE OYSTON; who was born at Whitby, in 1811. He belonged to a family that had for three generations been connected with the Methodist Society. In very early life he gave his heart to God. He was a candidate for the Ministry in 1831. In 1832 he received his first Conference appointment; and for forty years did the full work of a Methodist Preacher with fidelity and zeal. He was early appointed Superintendent, and proved a wise and successful administrator: exact in his knowledge of our rules, and loyal in their observance and enforcement. He was most careful in the preparation of his sermons, which were rich in experimental and evangelical truth, lucidly set forth, and earnestly applied. His acquaintance with the Holy Scriptures was that of one whose delight was in the Law of the Lord, and the aptness of his quotations was one chief characteristic of his preaching. By his blameless life and reverent demeanour he ever sustained the dignity of his office; and especially was his conduct of the public worship of God marked by much solemnity and devout fervour. His Pastoral duties were never slighted, and the sick and the poor found in him a constant friend. He was ready at all times to bear witness for Christ, sowing beside all waters, and scattering the seed of the kingdom even by the way side; and there are many, of all classes, who will never forget the words thus fitly spoken. But the most powerful charm of all was his own saintly character. His light could not be hidden, and the fragrance of his witness was 'as ointment poured forth.' Like Moses, his face shone with the radiance of one who had been in communion with heaven.

In 1872 he retired from the active work and settled at St. Albans, where he rendered invaluable service by occasionally meeting Classes, preaching frequently, and moving about quietly among the people as a kind and loving Minister of consolation. His last illness came suddenly. Only two days after he had been preaching, with even more than usual vigour, he was seized with apoplexy. During the month that he lingered, no word of murmuring was heard, but frequent ascriptions of praise to God. In answer to a question he said, when speech had already become difficult: 'All my trust is in the blessed Saviour! He lived for me; He suffered for me; He died for me.

> "Other refuge have I none, > Hangs my helpless soul on Him."'

Thus calmly resting on the Atonement, he entered into his reward, on the morning of the 7th of May, 1884.

(26.) JAMES TAYLOR (A); who was born at Pointon, Lincolnshire, in 1806. At an early age he began to preach; and having laboured for some time as a Local-preacher, he was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry by the Conference of 1832. He was affectionate, unselfish, energetic, and persevering; and always set himself to improve in every possible way the Circuit to which he was appointed. His sermons, prepared with very great care, were thoughtful and impressive expositions of Holy Scripture and of Christian doctrine; and were delivered with a quiet earnestness which found its way to the hearts of his hearers. In 1873 he became a Supernumerary. The last thirteen years of his life were spent at Lewes, where he died May 21st, 1884, in the seventy-eighth year of his age, and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(27.) WILLIAM WALLACE DUKE; who was born at Ashton-under-Lyne, June 11th, 1825. He experienced the converting grace of the Holy Spirit when sixteen years of age, and at once entered on the task of self-culture, which led to his being received into the Wesleyan-Methodist Ministry in the year 1851. He was an enthusiastic believer in the form of doctrine, and in the polity of the Church of his choice. His preaching was noticeable for a broad, firm grasp of evangelical truth, and an unsparing denunciation of popular vices. He derived his illustrations from every-day life, and his matter was intensely practical. He was master of a clear, pithy, Saxon style, which made him acceptable to the common people, who 'heard him gladly.'

He was of a kind and sympathetic nature, and attracted many friends wherever he sojourned. Perhaps the most conspicuous feature of his character was its beautiful transparency: 'Godly sincerity' was stamped upon all he said and did. During his Superintendency of the Wednesbury Circuit he was seized with paralysis, which deprived him of the power of speech. One great source of enjoyment, when his lips were sealed, was to listen to the reading of his favourite hymns. Though unable to give utterance to his joy and faith, his beaming countenance spoke eloquently of the peace that possessed his soul. He fell asleep in Jesus, May 23rd, 1884, in the fifty-ninth year of his age.

(28.) GEORGE FOLLOWS; who was born at Stafford in the year 1824. He was left at seven years of age to the care of his widowed mother. He was converted to God in early life, and in his nineteenth year began to preach. He was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry in 1848, and spent three years at Didsbury. His Circuit-work was characterized by diligence, earnestness, and spiritual power; and he laboured in some of the more important Circuits of the Connexion. In administration he was firm. His brethren showed their esteem for him by twice placing him in the Chair of a district. The law of God was his rule, the love of God his motive, the service of God his pursuit, the glory of God his absorbing object. A painful mental affliction laid him aside from his loved work for months; and he died, June 2nd, 1884, in the sixty-first year of his age, and the thirty-fourth of his ministry.

(29.) JOHN MANN; who was born at Manchester, 1806. In his thirteenth year he was brought to God, and began to meet in Class. While still young he became a Class-leader and Local-preacher. He was accepted for the Ministry as a probationer in 1833. After a year of home-service he was sent to the West Indies, where he laboured acceptably and successfully four years, and then resumed home-work. After a long, laborious, and faithful ministry, sometimes in wide Circuits, he became a Supernumerary, residing at Warwick. As health and opportunity served he was diligent in good works. Those who knew him best bear high testimony to the devoutness of his spirit, and the thoroughly practical character of his godliness. He loved the work of his Master, in which he allowed himself no relaxation. His last illness was very brief. The death of his wife, within four weeks of his own, much affected him. Administering the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on Sunday evening, June 15th, he spoke with glowing anticipation of his nearness to heaven. On his way home after the service he was seized with pain at the heart, which proved fatal on the next Tuesday. His age was seventy-eight years, and he was completing the fifty-first of his ministry.

(30.) JAMES COOK; who was born at Basingstoke on the 24th of January, 1818. His parents were Methodists, who were the first to provide a preaching-place in his native town, as well as a home for the Methodist Preachers. At the age of seven he felt the strivings of God's Spirit, but not till the year 1836 did consciousness of sin deepen into genuine conviction. After many sleepless nights, and much crying to God, he found peace in a cottage-meeting at Waltham, six miles from his home. He began at once to seek in every way to win souls for Christ. He entered upon his first Circuit, Okehampton, in 1844, and completed his ministry at Leighton-Buzzard in 1882. His ability in the pulpit was conspicuous. The sermons he preached glowed with feeling, brightly exhibited the truth as it is in Jesus, and were adapted to personal application by each hearer.

He read widely, particularly of Puritan theology; and spent much time in preparation for the pulpit. His personal life convinced those who knew him that the Atonement was to him a living truth. Retiring to Aylesbury, he gradually declined. Almost his last words were: 'I am nearly home.' Without a struggle, on the 25th of June, 1884, his spirit passed to rest.

(31.) SAMUEL YOUNG; who was born at Pristolee, near Bolton, Lancashire, in 1797. He joined the Methodist Society in 1816. Saved by God's grace, he became employed in many spheres of usefulness. He was accepted by the Conference in 1821. After one year's employment in England he was sent to South Africa to succeed the Rev. William Shaw, in Albany, and afterwards laboured with great success in Kaffraria. Throughout life he maintained his interest in Foreign Missions. He returned to England in 1835. He travelled with great acceptance in Home Circuits. He then became the Superintendent of Irish Missions and Schools; and for five years discharged his responsible duties with efficiency and success, and then returned to Circuit-work in England. His piety was deep and fervent, his preaching thoroughly evangelical, his style simple, and his delivery animated. As a Superintendent he was diligent and painstaking; as a colleague kind and considerate. His interest in the people of his charge, and his cheerful disposition and ready sympathy, made him much beloved. He became a Supernumerary in 1865, and rendered help to the Circuit whilst his strength permitted. For several years he was paralysed, and he became helpless; but his trust in Christ was entire, and to the end Jesus was very precious. He fell asleep, June 28th, 1884, at Bognor, in the eighty-eighth year of his age, and the sixty-second of his ministry.

(32.) WILLIAM ROGERS WILLIAMS; who was born at Clifton, June 14th, 1814. His mother was the eldest daughter of Mr. James Bundy, 'the prisoner's friend.' To the end of life he cherished a glowing gratitude for her example and the home-training of his youth. He was converted to God in the eighteenth year of his age. He met in band with Samuel Romilly Hall, and was thus led into closer fellowship with Christ. He became a Local-preacher about six months after his conversion, and entered our Ministry in 1836. For thirty-nine years (broken by two years of retirement) he did the work of a Methodist Preacher honestly and well. His sermons were prepared with scrupulous care, were to a great extent expository, full of Christ, and unusually fresh. He was a diligent student, profoundly reverent in dealing with holy things; somewhat punctilious as disciplinarian; but unvaryingly conscientious, and unswerving in his loyalty to Methodism. To those who did not know him, his deportment often seemed brusque and stern; but this was only the unconscious effort of a morbid sensitiveness to mask his self-mistrust. His heart was warm and generous. For the last nine years of his life he was a Supernumerary in the Bristol (King Street) Circuit; but according to his strength, he still delighted to take his part in Christian work. Severe family affliction cast a dark shadow over his last years, and developed the disease of which he died; but he was mellowed by suffering; and abiding trust in His heavenly Father's wisdom and love kept him in peace. His heart went out towards his brethren whom he deeply loved, and towards his Saviour Whom he longed to see. On Sunday, June 29th, 1884, he entered into eternal rest, aged seventy years.

(33.) GEORGE T. KEEBLE; who was born in London, on November 23rd, 1846. He was brought up in the Church of England. When about nineteen years of age he was attracted to the Liverpool-Road Chapel to hear the Rev. Dr. Punshon, under whose ministrations he obtained a clear sense of his acceptance with God. All the members of his family, through his instrumentality, became united to Christ and to Methodism. In 1870 he was accepted by the Conference as a candidate for the Ministry, and after spending three years at Didsbury College, he was appointed to Aldershot, and subsequently to several important Circuits, where his labours were abundant, and where his memory is tenderly cherished. His life was brief; but it was exalted in its character, and hallowed in its influence, especially upon the young. He was a conscientious student of God's word. His sermons were full of vigorous thought, expressed in felicitous language, and showed him to be possessed of fine theological insight and expository tact. The charm of an earnest piety and a gentle, loving spirit won the confidence of all who knew him well. Almost immediately after entering the Bristol (Clifton) Circuit his health, never robust, utterly broke down. Under medical advice he took a voyage to New South Wales in the autumn of 1883, but received no benefit from the change. Sorrows and afflictions accumulated upon him during succeeding months, but his trust never failed. In one of the last letters which he ever wrote he says: 'Only those know what a rock God is who lean hard.' During the session of Conference a telegram was received from Sydney, New South Wales, announcing that he had passed away, on Tuesday, July 22nd, 1884. He died in the thirty-eighth year of his age.

2. In Ireland, three, viz.,—

(1.) ROBINSON SCOTT, D.D., D.LIT. He was born in Banbridge on the 17th of September, 1814. His early years were spent in connection with the Presbyterian Church in that town, of which his parents were members. When he was yet young, sharp doctrinal controversies arose in that community, and he became the subject of much anxious thought, which, under the blessing of God, led to his personal faith in Christ, and to his casting in his lot with the Methodist Church. In the year 1835 he was accepted as a candidate for the Methodist Ministry. From the very beginning of his probation he took high rank as a Preacher and as a fervent Evangelist. The great verities of the Gospel bearing upon the sinner's guilt and danger, and exhibiting the only and all-sufficient Saviour, were the constant topics of his preaching; but he 'shunned' not to declare 'all the counsel of God,' and delighted to dwell on the love of God in Christ, the beauty of holiness, and the high and blessed privileges of the believer in Jesus.

After ten years of ardent labour, his career as a Preacher was unexpectedly interrupted by an affection of the throat which made public speaking painful, and from which—though the severity of the original attack became much mitigated—he never fully recovered. Just then a new course opened for him. The Wesleyan Connexional School in Dublin was formally opened, in October, 1845. Mr. Scott was appointed Governor and Chaplain, and for thirty-five years thenceforth his name was prominent in connection with Irish Methodism in its noble efforts to promote the cause of higher education. In the year 1855 a movement was commenced for the extension of Wesleyan agency in Ireland, which involved the raising of £20,000. Mr. Scott was appointed one of a Deputation to proceed to the United States and Canada, to lay before our friends there the particulars of the enterprise, and solicit their aid. In this special labour he spent six years, and was eminently successful. One of the results is seen in the establishment of the Methodist College, Belfast—a result for which to no one man is Irish Methodism more indebted than to Robinson Scott. In this College he subsequently held, from time to time, the offices of Principal, Theological Tutor, and Treasurer. He was held in high esteem by the bishops, ministers, and people of the Methodist Episcopal Church in America. The Iowa University conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity, and in after years he obtained that of Doctor of Literature from the Queen's University in Ireland, of the Senate of which he was a member until its dissolution, as he was afterwards of the Senate of the Royal University until the time of his death.

The complication of diseases which undermined his constitution was aggravated of late years by severe domestic bereavements, so as to make it a wonder to many how he was able to accomplish so much under such trying circumstances.

To those who had but a slight acquaintance with Dr. Scott, he may have seemed cold and unemotional, whereas he had a really sensitive nature, with a vein of true tenderness and pathos. Those who knew him best could testify to his genuine and warm-hearted friendship.

The closing scene was brief and peaceful. He was confined to his bed for nine days, but his death was not expected till a few hours before he passed away. In the night he was very restless, and appeared to spend most of the night in prayer. The next morning it was evident the change was near: his weakness became extreme. Shortly after noon he closed his eyes, as if falling into sleep, and in a few moments exchanged mortality for life, on the 22nd of December, 1883. He died in the seventieth year of his age, and the forty-ninth of his ministry.

(2.) EDWARD GUARD; who was born at Letterkenny in the year 1833. He was a man of unusually genial and gentle disposition, artless as a child; yet possessing a strong, vigorous, and well-cultivated intellect. He was one of three brothers who as Ministers in the Methodist Church were highly esteemed; and his father, the late Rev. William Guard, faithfully discharged the duties of an itinerant in connection with the Conference for a period of twenty-nine years. Immediately after his conversion, which took place in 1853, he began to work for God. In the positions of Leader and Local-preacher he gave great satisfaction. He entered the Ministry in 1856, when he was appointed to Kilkenny. Subsequently he laboured with much acceptance and success on several of our leading Circuits. As a Preacher he was quaint and original; as a Pastor, tender, thoughtful, and painstaking, being especially attentive to the sick. As a friend he was ardent and constant; and as a Christian, like his honoured father, he was 'uniformly distinguished for piety, simplicity, and strict integrity.' For several years in succession he was chosen Chairman of a district: a position which he held with advantage to the Church and honour to himself, although he did not possess great administrative ability.

He succeeded in promoting the varied interests of Methodism in every Circuit to which he was appointed. He was instrumental in leading many sinners to Christ; and, by example and precept, incited believers to 'a closer walk with God.' He had an intimate acquaintance with our best literature, and was specially familiar with the writings of the Puritan and Anglican Divines.

In little more than the noon of life he was summoned from his earthly toil to his heavenly rest. His wife's death, in December last, inflicted a stroke from which he never fully recovered. With characteristic fidelity, however, he continued to discharge all the duties of his sacred office to the last. On the Sabbath before he was prostrated with his final illness, he preached three times with his accustomed earnestness and power. His sufferings at times were great, yet not a murmur escaped his lips. Towards the close more than once he expressed 'a desire to depart, and to be with Christ.' But then immediately, as if in gentle self-rebuke, said: 'He knows what is best; He will choose the right time.' He died on the 22nd of April, after eight weeks' illness, in the fifty-first year of his age, and twenty-eighth of his ministry. The text he repeated most frequently during his illness was: 'The blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanseth us from all sin'; once adding with surprising energy: 'cleanseth me.' The text he chose to be inscribed on his tomb-stone was: 'To die is gain.'

(3.) JEREMIAH WILSON, who was born July 24th, 1809, in Bellisses, near Ballyjamesduff, County Cavan. His parents were godly Methodists, and dedicated him to the Lord from infancy, with the hope that he would be called to the Christian ministry. When ten years old, he was so filled with peace and joy in believing, that he was constrained to testify in the Class-meeting in his father's house what God had done for his soul. Soon after, by yielding to shame, and resolving not to speak his experience again, he lost his peace, and was not restored until the year 1826, when, through the faithful labours of the late Rev. John Nesbit, he was led again to trust in Christ. As a Class-leader and Local-preacher he was very successful in the conversion of sinners. In 1832 he was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry, and soon after he was sent to supply a vacancy on the Galway Mission. In 1836 he was ordained to the full work of the Ministry, and travelled some of the most laborious Circuits until 1876, when he became a Supernumerary. He was a clear expositor of the Word of God, and an impressive Preacher. He was a faithful Pastor, and took an intense interest in the people of his charge. His last years were full of painful suffering. When visited occasionally by some of his brethren, who had known him in former years, and also by the Ministers on the Circuit he expressed his confidence in God, his resignation to the Divine will, and his hope of heaven. He fell asleep in Jesus, April the 25th, 1884, in the seventy-fifth year of his age, and the fifty-second of his ministry.

3. In our Foreign Missions, twelve, viz.,—

(1.) R. ARUMEINAYAGAM; who was born in the year 1841, in a village near Tanjore. During his early life he was connected with the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, and served that Mission as a teacher for three years. Being anxious to become a Preacher of the Gospel he joined the Wesleyan Methodist Society in 1864, and was sent to labour as a Catechist in Needamangalum, Negapatam, Manargudi, and other stations. He was accepted as a probationer for the Wesleyan Ministry in the year 1873, and was ordained in 1877. As a student he was diligent and extremely methodical in his habits, and as a Preacher he bestowed great pains on his preparation for the pulpit, striving earnestly to interest and instruct those who heard him. His pastoral duties he fulfilled with affection and conscientiousness. While labouring in the Madras North Circuit in the year 1882, he was visited by an illness which proved to be but the development of a malady from which he had long suffered. Afterwards he removed to Trichinopoly, where, after a short time of great suffering, he died on March 12th, 1883, with an unfaltering faith in Christ, in the forty-third year of his age, and the tenth of his ministry.

(2.) WILLIAM JEFFORD DAVIS; who was born at Salisbury in 1810, and died at Grahamstown, June 10th, 1883, in the seventy-third year of his age, and the fifty-second of his ministry. The son of Methodist parents, he received a wise and holy training, and early in life experienced the renewing grace of God. He offered himself for Mission-work, and was appointed by the Conference of 1831 to Kafirland. He at once proved his fitness as a pioneer by a ready acquisition of the language, and a thorough knowledge of the native character. Amidst frequent wars and tribal changes he laboured with faithful diligence, enduring 'hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.' His skill, courage, and faith never failed. His ability and success gave him a leading place amongst the heroic men whose labours have resulted in the establishment of the prosperous Mission Churches of South Africa. His service in connection with the formation of a Kafir literature was of special value. His publication of a grammar and the first dictionary in that language—the results of many years of patient toil—have greatly facilitated the labours of his successors. He was an earnest, brave man, of resolute will; occasionally somewhat stern in manner and warm in debate, but exquisitely tender in feeling for others; steadfast in friendship, and loving and thoughtful as a father. He was much esteemed and beloved in all the relations of life.

After forty-five years' service in the mission-field, his hitherto robust health failing, he returned to England as a Supernumerary in 1876. The later years of his life were shadowed by the death of his devoted wife, who for thirty-eight years had cheered and sustained him amidst the perils and trials of his eventful life. Having returned to South Africa, he had resided but a few weeks in a former scene of labour (Grahamstown) when, after a brief but severe illness, he peacefully entered into rest, in all the confidence of Christian faith and hope.

(3.) JOHN A. BAILIE; who was converted to God through the reading of a Methodist Magazine, which had been sent to his father's family by one of the early Albany settlers. He became after his conversion, one of the band of noble workers which the late William Shaw gathered around him, and threw himself with peculiar ardour into his allotted toil. For several years he laboured as a Local-preacher in the Bathurst Circuit, supplying the place of an absent Minister. In 1846 he was accepted as a candidate for our Ministry, and transferred to the Western Province of the Cape Colony, where, with unwearying constancy and considerable success, he continued his labours in various Circuits amongst the Namaquas and coloured people. He was remarkably careful in the administration of our economy, and succeeded in winning the practical sympathy of the Native Church in favour of the maintenance of all local agencies. His blameless life, his humble spirit, and his love for souls secured for him the confidence and esteem of his brethren, and the grateful attachment of the people. Shortly after the meeting of the South African Conference, in April, 1883, he was seized with what proved to be fatal illness; and, after several weeks of severe suffering, which was borne with exemplary patience and submission, he entered into rest, June 20th, 1883, in the thirty-eighth year of his ministry, much beloved both by his brethren and the whole Church of South Africa.

(4.) HILTON CHEESBROUGH; who was born at Barnard-Castle on the 18th of August, 1810. He was brought up in connection with the Established Church; but when about eighteen years of age was induced to attend the Wesleyan chapel, and under the Word there preached was brought to conviction of sin. After a season of deep distress he found peace with God. He commenced at once to use his gifts in the service of Him who had done such great things for him; and in due time was led to offer himself for our Ministry. By the Conference of 1833 he was appointed to the West Indies, where for a number of years he rendered good and acceptable service.

In 1848 he was compelled by domestic bereavement and failing health to return to England. After a year's rest at home and three years work at Gibraltar, with health completely restored, he sailed for the Bahamas to take charge of that District as General Superintendent. For sixteen years he discharged the duties of that office with marked ability, unwearied diligence, and commensurate success; at the same time winning universal respect in Nassau, where he resided, and throughout the colony.

He was an able and eloquent Preacher, a wise administrator, and a kind and sympathetic Pastor. In his general intercourse with men he was manly and straightforward, giving the impression of great strength and self-reliance. Among his brethren and intimate friends he was always genial, at times even to playfulness; but he never forgot the Source of all joy and goodness.

His reading extended over a wide area. He became a Supernumerary in 1872, fixing his residence in Canada. In the summer of 1881 he crossed the Atlantic to attend the Conference in Liverpool, intending to return to his transatlantic home before the winter; but the death of a beloved son, speedily followed by the death of an equally beloved daughter, at Blackburn, detained him in this country till the following spring. He journeyed from Blackburn to Liverpool on his way to Canada in April, 1883; but while waiting for the vessel to sail he was seized with illness, gradually became worse, until on May 17th, feeling very weak, he said: 'I will try and go to sleep;' repeating, before he composed himself, the hymn:

'Just as I am, without one plea,' etc.

He then slept, but woke no more. He fell asleep in Jesus, in the seventy-second year of his age, and the forty-ninth of his ministry.

(5.) GEORGE ARTHUR ROSE; who was born in Nottingham, England, October 17th, 1832. He joined the Society when quite a boy, and became a Local-preacher at the early age of seventeen. A few years later he entered Westminster Training College, and was subsequently sent to South Africa to take charge of the Educational work at Healdtown; he was shortly afterwards removed to Grahamstown, and placed in charge of the Native School there. Evidencing superior gifts he was received into the Ministry in 1870. At Keiskama-Hoek, Port-Alfred, Seymour, and Bathurst he laboured diligently and successfully; and was both happy in his work, and beloved by the people to whom he ministered. At Bathurst his health became so impaired that it was imperative that he should have both change and rest. The Conference of 1883 appointed him to Winburg, Orange Free State, hoping its dry and bracing air would recruit his wasting energies; but his constitution, already enfeebled by disease, succumbed under the journey, and he died at Bloemfontein after a painful illness, which he bore with true Christian patience and fortitude, and joyfully and triumphantly entered into rest, July 23rd, 1883.

Some of his last sayings were: 'Roll up the blind, and let the glory in;' 'There's a heaven for the children.' When his wife asked him: 'Do you know where you are going?' 'Know where I am going,' he replied; 'I am going to be with Jesus for ever, and ever, and ever!' He was a diligent student, a faithful Pastor, an able and acceptable Preacher.

(6.) GRIFFITH HAMPDEN JONES; who was born in Wales, in February, 1856, and died at New Amsterdam, Berbice, September 14th, 1883, in the twenty-eighth year of his age, and the seventh of his ministry. The exact date of his conversion is not known; but the death of a dear and good mother, while he was but a boy, seems to have influenced his whole life, and doubtless led to his decision for Christ. He began to work for Christ very early, and soon received from the Great Head of the Church the call to his life-work as a Preacher of the Gospel. He was accepted by the Conference of 1877, and appointed to labour in the West Indies. In 1882 Mr. Jones was appointed to the charge of the Berbice Circuit, where he wrought to the day of his sickness with a self-sacrificing zeal truly apostolic. He was absorbed in his work, seemed almost overwhelmed with a sense of its importance, and was untiring in his efforts to 'turn many to righteousness,' and to 'feed the flock of God,' until he fell a victim to the terrible fever, which carried him to his reward 'in the full assurance of faith.' As a Preacher he was clear, concise, scriptural, and practical; and did the work of a Pastor with conscientious zeal; living near to God, and enjoying much of the Master's favour.

(7.) GIUSEPPE CARILE; who was born in the province of Campobasso, in the year 1832. He was destined from early youth to the priesthood of the Romish Church; and, after passing through the requisite training, entered for a time upon that career. But the honest religious zeal with which he had espoused the Ministry of Rome soon revolted against the doctrines and spirit of that Apostate Church. He gave himself for a time to scholastic pursuits, and succeeded in obtaining an honourable degree in philosophy and Italian literature. When the wave of revolution swept over Italy he entered the army as a volunteer; and his intelligence and valour were recognised by high official promotion. It was after the liberation of his country that he first came into contact with a purer form of Christianity. The presentation of Jesus as the Truth and the Life responded to the long-felt wants and yearnings of his inmost soul, and he joyfully accepted and found the great salvation. After rendering for a time efficient service in connection with the Naples schools, he consecrated his gifts to the higher work of the Christian Ministry. For fourteen years he laboured with great acceptance and success in some of the most important stations in the south of Italy. He was an eloquent Preacher, master of a fluent and polished style; a laborious Evangelist; a faithful and diligent Pastor. In the year 1880, while stationed at Naples, it pleased the Lord to visit him with a disease of the eyes of a most distressing character. Shut up for months in a darkened room, he was so sustained by the grace of God that patience had in him its perfect work. On his recovery, he was transferred to Parma in the North Italian District, and had already made a powerful impression on the town and neighbourhood, when he was suddenly called to his eternal reward. Paralysed from the first he was unable to render any verbal testimony. But a pressure of the hand more than once repeated, in response to the enquiry if Jesus was near, gave satisfactory evidence that His faithful Lord was with him to the end. He passed away on the 26th of October, 1883.

(8.) ARTHUR WINFIELD NIGHTINGALE, son of the Rev. Charles Nightingale, was born at Newcastle-under-Lyme, December 28th, 1850. Soon after giving his heart to God, he began to preach in the Guernsey Circuit. In 1872 he became a candidate for the Ministry, and was accepted for Foreign Mission-work. After spending two years at Richmond, he was, in 1874, appointed to the Wuchang District, China. He worked diligently at the language, and soon began the exercise of his ministry among the Chinese. After some three or four years' work his health became seriously affected, and in 1880 he returned to England for a much-needed change. He derived great benefit from this visit home; and on his return to China, in 1881, appeared so strong and robust that prolonged service was looked for from him in the work to which he rededicated himself heartily, and in which he lived happily. But God's thoughts were not as our thoughts. In the month of April last he was unexpectedly laid low by a serious attack of malarial fever. After ten days' illness he breathed his last, on the 25th of April, in the thirty-fourth year of his age, and the tenth of his ministry. Unconscious for some days before his death, he left no dying testimony of triumph; but the simplicity, earnestness, and consistency of his Christian faith and character rendered this unnecessary.

Kind and courteous as a friend, affectionate and faithful as a colleague, punctual and methodical in the discharge of duty, diligent and earnest in the exercise of his ministry, he won the respect of all associated with him.

As an English Preacher he was clear, earnest, and forcible, and was made a blessing to many. The same characteristics and similar success marked his preaching to the Chinese; and the impressions of his life and work on the hearts of many will not soon pass away.

(9.) WILLIAM ALLAKURA SHARPE; an African of the Nguru Kanuri tribe, born (about 1851) at Bundi, in Bornu, Central Soudan, was, when a child, kidnapped by native slave-dealers, and eventually brought to the Western coast. He providentially became a servant in the Mission-House at Lagos, where he obtained his freedom when about eleven years of age. An intelligent and bigoted Mohammedan, he retained his distinctive dress, and firmly resolved not to become a Christian. The Christian influences around him, however, and especially the daily family prayer, proved strong enough to subdue his prejudices. The Missionary, observing that deep impressions were being made on the bright boy, one day asked him to pray in the family. This circumstance resulted in his decision for Christ. From the time of his conversion, the ambition of his life was to carry to his family and kindred near Lake Tshad the glorious tidings of salvation. He made more than one voluntary but fruitless attempt to reach his native country.

He also planned a scheme for buying, out of his savings, a large plot of land in Lagos, with the object of forming a colony of such members of tribes kindred to his own as could be found there, and of preaching Christ to them. When, after several years' faithful and devoted service as School-teacher, Catechist, and Evangelist, he was received as a probationer for the African Ministry, and appointed to the Upper Niger, his joy knew no bounds, as he regarded it as a long step towards his much-desired goal. In a recent letter to his English Superintendent he wrote: "The impression which Christianity made on my mind at the very first start was: 'Go and preach in your country: find a way to your native land.' . . . . And when God opened the way I rushed into it with such zeal as though I could pull down mosques. . . . . If past failure had not checked my purpose, I would have sought for a free and sound education, and probably from thence projected a Mission to my country. I still hope that God will open out a way to make possible that which is impossible to man." He and his devoted wife nobly, and almost alone, held the fort in the unhealthy town of Eggá, through both war and pestilence, for about four years. In December last they came down to Lagos for the District Meeting, and to seek medical advice. Brother Sharpe was found to be suffering from the disease which ultimately proved fatal, and was advised to remain awhile in Lagos, with the hope and expectation of being fit to return to Nupé in two or three months. But Providence arranged otherwise. He grew worse, and on May 22nd, 1884, after undoubted testimony as to his personal interest in Christ, he passed quietly away.

(10.) EDWARD SPRATT; who was born at Scamblesby, in Lincolnshire, on the 11th of May, 1830. From early childhood he was the subject of religious impressions, but it was not till the nineteenth year of his life that he yielded himself in penitent trustfulness to the Saviour, and became the conscious possessor of pardon and peace.

In 1851 he was received as a Local-preacher on trial in the G. Hollier, Jakob Klenk, James Nicholas Knight, G. Jakob Müller, William Parker, Henry Pennington, and Michael Wiedmann, who have voluntarily retired from our work.

2. Luigi Girone and John W. Woodliffe, who have also retired.

3. James Yeames.

Q. X. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial STATIONED for the ensuing year?

A. As follows; viz.:—

[N.B. 1. Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively, from 1 to 869, is the head of the Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent. The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers, stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned, is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline, in each and every one of the Wesleyan-Methodist Chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to him or them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister.

2. Stations without a number are placed under such supervision as the Conference directs.]

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Q. XV. What is the Report upon the Examination of PREACHERS ON TRIAL during the past year?

A. The Conference receives the Report of the General Examination Secretaries, regards the results of the Examination as satisfactory, and directs that an Abstract of the Report be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. V.) The Conference also directs that the Report be printed and sent to all Chairmen of Districts, to the Ministers who form the Board of Examiners, to the District Examination Secretaries, and to every Preacher on trial.

Q. XVI. What are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of PREACHERS ON TRIAL for the ensuing year?

A. 1.

(1.) The Examination of Preachers on trial shall be conducted by a Connexional Board of Examiners, to consist of one Examiner in each subject contained in the course of reading prescribed for the four years of probation.

(2.) In addition to the Probationers' Examination Committee, two General Examination Secretaries shall be appointed.

(3.) Arrangements shall be made at each Financial District Meeting for a Central Examination of Preachers on trial in each District, or more than one if necessary; at which Central Examination or Examinations the Probationers in that District shall attend. In the event of any Preacher on trial being unable to pay the necessary travelling expenses, those expenses shall be defrayed, together with other expenses of the Examination, from the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund and from the Theological Institution Fund, in such proportions as the Committees of those Funds may decide.

(4.) At each Financial District Meeting a District Probationers' Examination Secretary shall be appointed, or more than one, so as to provide a Secretary to take charge of each Central Examination in the District; and each District Secretary shall be held responsible for the efficient conduct of the Central Examination. Full and clear instructions as to the course to be pursued are to be forwarded to the District Secretaries by the General Secretaries.

(5.) The Examination shall take place throughout the Connexion on the same days in the first week of April.

(6.) The Examination-Papers, prepared under the direction of the Committee, shall be sent by the General Secretaries to each District Examination Secretary, whose duty it shall be to distribute them at the Central Examination, and by the earliest post transmit to the General Secretaries the Papers written by the several Probationers at those Examinations.

(7.) The Probationers' Papers shall be forwarded by the General Secretaries to the Examiners for valuation, and each Examiner shall send to them the results of his valuation of the Papers shown by numbers, together with any remarks upon them which he may think desirable. In the case of the North and South Wales Districts, such variations from the foregoing arrangements are permitted as the Examination Secretaries may find necessary.

(8.) The General Secretaries shall compile from the returns of the Examiners a complete Report upon the examination of each Probationer, and forward it to the District Examination Secretary, to be presented by him to the May District Meeting, together with such remarks on the Examination of the Preachers on trial in the District as he may think desirable. The numbers obtained by each Preacher on trial in the several subjects of Examination shall be entered on the District Minutes. The Resolutions of the District Meetings on the Examination of Preachers on trial shall be forwarded to the General Secretaries by the District Examination Secretaries.

(9.) The Conference directs the General Examination Secretaries to send to each District Committee—in May—having one or more Candidates for Ordination, a Report showing the result of the examination of every such Candidate during each year of his probation.

(10.) The General Secretaries shall prepare and present to the Conference a General Report upon the Examination of the Preachers on trial.

2. The following Ministers are appointed the Probationers' Examination Committee for the ensuing year; viz.,—the PRESIDENT of the Conference, the Ex-President, the Tutors of the four Branches of the Theological Institution, the two General Examination Secretaries, the REV. DR. GREGORY, DR. RIGG, BENJAMIN HELLIER, GEORGE W. OLVER, B.A., and GEORGE O. BATE. The REV. DR. MOULTON is reappointed the Secretary of this Committee.

3. The REV. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., and GEORGE A.

BENNETTS, B.A., are appointed the two General Examination Secretaries. The Conference directs the Rev. Macdonald Munro, B.A., to assist the General Examination Secretaries during the year.

4. The following are the subjects of Examination for the year 1884—5; viz.,—

(1.) For Preachers in the first year of trial:—
- i. Wesley's Sermons, i.—xxx.
- ii. Pearson on the Creed. Article II.
- iii. St. Luke's Gospel.
- iv. St Matthew i.—vii., in Greek; or St. Matthew's Gospel, in English.
- v. Genesis xii.—xvi., in Hebrew; or the Book of Genesis, in English.

(2.) For those in the second year:—
- i. Cave on the Scripture Doctrine of Sacrifice.
- ii. Wesley's Sermons, xxxi.—liii.
- iii. Moulton on the History of the English Bible.
- iv. Galatians.
- v. Acts xvii.—xxii., in Greek; or the Book of Acts, in English.
- vi. Deuteronomy v.—x., in Hebrew; or the Book of Deuteronomy, in English.

(3.) For those in the third year:—
- i. Butler's Analogy. Part I.; and Dissertations I. and II.
- ii. Wesley on Original Sin.
- iii. Westcott on the Canon of the New Testament.
- iv. St. John's Gospel.
- v. Ephesians, in Greek; or Ephesians, in English.
- vi. Psalms xc.—cvi., in Hebrew; or Psalms lxxiii.—cvi., in English.

(4.) For those in the fourth year:—
- i. Butler's Analogy. Part II.
- ii. Williams on the Constitution and Polity of Wesleyan-Methodism.

iii. History of the Christian Church, A.D. 300—350
iv. 1 Timothy.
v. Hebrews i.—viii., in Greek; or Hebrews, in English.
vi. Isaiah xl.—xlv., in Hebrew; or Isaiah xl.—lxvi., in English.

5. The following are the subjects of Examination for the year 1885—6; viz.,—

(1.) For Preachers in the first year of trial:—
i. Wesley's Sermons, i.—xxx.
ii. Pearson on the Creed. Article II.
iii. St. Luke's Gospel.
iv. St. Matthew viii.—xiii., in Greek; or St. Matthew's Gospel, in English.
v. Genesis xii.—xviii., in Hebrew; or the Book of Genesis, in English.

(2.) For those in the second year:—
i. Cave on the Scripture Doctrine of Sacrifice.
ii. Wesley's Sermons, xxxi.—liii.
iii. Pope's Compendium of Theology. Vol. II., pp. 1—139.
iv. Romans i.—viii.
v. Acts xxiii.—xxviii., in Greek; or the Book of Acts, in English.
vi. Deuteronomy viii.—xiii., in Hebrew; or the Book of Deuteronomy, in English.

(3.) For those in the third year:—
i. Butler's Analogy. Part I.; and Dissertations I. and II.
ii. Wesley on Original Sin.
iii. Westcott on the Canon of the New Testament.
iv. St. John's Gospel.
v. Colossians, in Greek; or 1 and 2 Thessalonians, in English.
vi. Psalms cvii.—cxix., in Hebrew; or Psalms cvii.—cl., in English.

(4.) For those in the fourth year:—

i. Butler's Analogy. Part II.

ii. Williams on the Constitution and Polity of Wesleyan-Methodism.

iii. History of the Christian Church in the third century.

iv. 2 Timothy and Titus.

v. Hebrews ix.—xiii., in Greek; or Hebrews, in English.

vi. Isaiah xlviii.—liii., in Hebrew; or Isaiah xl.—lxvi., in English.

6. The Conference requires every Probationer who is acquainted with Greek and Hebrew to take the Greek and Hebrew subjects which are specified in the list of subjects for his year. Every Probationer who has been a student in the Theological Institution shall be examined in these Greek and Hebrew subjects, unless the Tutors under whom he studied, having taken into consideration his attainments on leaving the Institution, are of opinion that these examinations cannot reasonably be required in his case.

7. The Conference requires every Probationer of the second, third, and fourth years respectively to be examined in four subjects; but it expects such Probationers to be examined, as a rule, in five subjects. Probationers of the first year shall be examined in four subjects.

8. Every Probationer of the second, third, and fourth year respectively shall be examined in the subjects marked iv., v., and vi., in the list of subjects for his year. Every Probationer of the first year shall be examined in the subjects marked iii., iv., and v., in the list of subjects for his year.

9. Whenever a Probationer obtains less than one-third of the full number of marks for a paper on any portion of Scripture, either in the original language or in English, he shall be re-examined in the same subject, and the results of both examinations shall be specially reported to the Conference.

10. In the case of Probationers of the fourth year, the second examination referred to in the last paragraph shall, if possible, take place early in May, in order that the District Meeting may be made acquainted with the result. In other cases the second examination shall, as a rule, be held in the latter part of June.

11. Every Probationer shall, not later than the end of October in each year, inform Dr. Moulton what subjects he will present for Examination.

12. Every Probationer whom the President of the Conference shall send into the work before Christmas-day, 1884, shall be examined in the subjects of his year.

13. The Conference directs that those students who by the decision of the Conference are allowed to remain in the Institution for a fourth year, and those Probationers who, not being appointed to Circuits, remain at the Institution during the whole or the greater part of the year, and at its close pass the regular Examinations held for Institution students, shall not be expected to pass the ordinary Examination for Preachers on Trial. In other cases every Probationer is required to pass the Examination appointed for Preachers on Trial.

14. The days of Examination for the ensuing year shall be Wednesday and Thursday, April 1st and 2nd, 1885.

15. Should any Probationer be prevented by illness, or otherwise, from attending the Annual Examination, the General Secretaries shall, in concert with the Chairman of the District in which he is stationed, make suitable provision for his examination.

16. The Conference sees no sufficient reason for the exemption of those brethren who have formerly been Ministers in other Churches from the usual course of reading and examination prescribed by the Conference for Preachers on Trial, and directs that they be required to observe such regulations.

17. The following Ministers are appointed the Board of Examiners for the ensuing year; viz.,—the Rev. Thomas Akroyd, John S. Banks, G. O. Bate, J. Agar Beet, J. Bush, J. Chalmers, M.A., W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., George G. Findlay, B.A., John D. Geden, Richard Green, J. Robinson Gregory, John Hartley, Marshall Hartley, Henry G. Highfield,

B.A., William Hudson, David C. Ingram, Edward Lightwood, Frederic W. Macdonald, Richard W. Moss, Dr. Moulton, Charles D. Newman, Dr. Nicholson, George W. Olver, B.A., Dr. Osborn, George Oyston, B.A., Richard Peart, Dr. Pope, G. Stringer Rowe, William F. Slater, M.A., Robert Stephenson, B.A., William Stevinson, B.A., Edward H. Sugden, B.A., B.Sc., Alfred H. Vine, Thomas Wilde, Dr. Williams, Joseph C. Woodcock, and Robert N. Young.

18. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Board of Examiners for their services during the past year; and also to the Rev. George O. Bate and Dr. Moulton for their services as General Examination Secretaries, and to the Rev. G. A. Bennetts, B.A.

19. The special thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. George O. Bate for his long continued and very valuable services as one of the General Examination Secretaries.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XVII. What are the Directions of the Conference respecting the EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY?

A. 1. (1.) No Candidate for the Ministry shall be received who does not possess a fair acquaintance with English Grammar, Orthography, Arithmetic, Geography, and History.

(2). A preliminary Examination by papers which shall be prepared each year by the Tutors of the several Branches of the Theological Institution in turn shall be conducted during the session of the District Meeting by a Sub-Committee of two or three Ministers, who shall value and report the answers of the Candidates. This Sub-Committee shall be elected by the District Committee. The answers shall be written in the presence of one or more Ministers, who need not be members of the Sub-Committee.

(3.) In order to secure, as far as practicable, uniformity of valuation, figures showing the number of marks obtainable by a complete answer shall be placed at the end of each question, and no Candidate shall be considered to have passed a satisfactory examination who does not gain one-fourth of the maximum number of marks allotted to the whole of the papers.

(4.) No Candidate who has failed to obtain the minimum number of marks in the preliminary Examination shall undergo the usual Examination by the District Committee unless in the judgment of the Committee he possesses such special gifts as to justify an exceptional procedure.

2. The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry, who have passed the District Committees, shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury respectively.

(i.) The two Sections of this Committee shall be constituted as follows:—

(1.) THE SOUTHERN SECTION, to meet at Richmond, shall consist of the Ex-President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents resident in London; the Secretaries of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society (one excepted); the Tutors and Governors of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches of the Theological Institution; the General Treasurer of the Theological Institution Fund; the Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch; the Financial Secretary of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; Dr. Moulton, the Rev. Peter Thompson, together with twelve other Ministers of the three London Districts, four of whom shall be annually elected by the District Committee of each of the said Districts in May.

(2.) THE NORTHERN SECTION, to meet at Didsbury, shall consist of the President of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents living in the Manchester and adjoining Districts; one of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches of the Theological Institution; the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. David C. Ingram; together with twenty-one Ministers of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts, seven of whom shall be annually elected by the District Committee of each of the said Districts in May.

(ii.) Two Sub-Committees, to read and report on the manuscript sermons of the Candidates, shall be annually appointed as follows:—one for the Southern Section, consisting of six Ministers, two of whom shall be chosen by the District Committee of each of the three London Districts from among the Ministers elected by it as members of the Examination Committee; and another for the Northern Section, consisting of six Ministers, two of whom shall be chosen by the District Committees of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts respectively, from among the Ministers elected by them as members of the Examination Committee.

(iii.) The Literary Paper for the Examination shall be prepared in succession by the Classical and Mathematical Tutors of each of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; and the Theological Paper for the Examination shall be prepared in succession by the Theological Tutors of the said four Branches.

(iv.) The Classical and Mathematical Tutors of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Southern Section of the Committee; and the Classical and Mathematical Tutors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Northern Section of the Committee.

(v.) The Examiners of the Papers in Theology, written by the Candidates, shall be appointed as follows:—each of the First and Second London, the Liverpool, and the Manchester Districts shall appoint one Examiner from among the Ministers elected by it as Members of the Examination Committee; thus providing two Examiners for each of its two Sections.

(vi.) The General Secretary of the Theological Institution, and the Rev. Charles H. Kelly are re-appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee. All communications relating to Candidates, and the Reports on their sermons heard after the District Committees, must be addressed to the Rev. Charles H. Kelly, Spanish Close, Wandsworth Common, S.W. The Ministers appointed to report on these sermons are requested not to fix marks of value.

(vii.) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, and the Rev. Peter Thompson, are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch, and the Rev. David C. Ingram, to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

3. When Candidates for the Ministry are recommended by the North or South Wales District Committee, the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee shall summon a Welsh Minister to attend the Northern or Southern Section of the Committee, who shall be a member of that Committee.

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee on BOOK AFFAIRS?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Book Committee.

2. The London Book Committee shall consist of the PRESIDENT and SECRETARY of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents, the Book-Steward, the Secretary of the Book Committee, the Secretary of the Tract Committee, the Missionary Secretaries, the Principal of the Battersea Branch of the Normal Training Institution, the Governor and the Tutors of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, the Rev. Dr. Moulton, the Financial Secretary of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, the Secretary of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, the Secretary of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism, the Secretary of the Education Committee, the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-School Union, the Principal of the Children's Home, the Superintendents of the London Circuits, and the following additional members chosen from Ministers in London and the Metropolitan District; namely, the Revs. Richard W. Allen, Frederick W. Briggs, John Evans (B), Walford Green, John H. Morgan, JamesSmith, Luke Tyerman. and Dr. Williams.

3. The Rev. William J. Tweddle is re-appointed the Secretary of this Committee for the ensuing year. Letters should be addressed to him at 44, Kyverdale Road, Stoke Newington, N.

4. The Methodist Tract Committee shall consist of Ministers to be appointed by the London Book Committee.—The Rev. Owen Davies is appointed the Secretary. Communications for this department should be addressed to him at Holmwood, Knatchbull Road, Brixton Road, S.W.

5. The General Book Committee, which is appointed to meet at the next Conference, shall consist of the President, the Secretary, the Ex-Presidents, and all the members of the London Book Committee who shall be duly authorised to attend the Conference; with the—

with the Representatives of the Irish Conference.

6. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Benjamin Gregory, D.D., for the great ability and diligence with which he has fulfilled the duties of Editor during the past year.

7. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Theophilus Woolmer for the fidelity and business ability with which he has conducted the affairs of the Book-Room during the year.

8. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Edward Lightwood, the Secretary of the Book Committee; and to the Rev. G. Stringer Rowe, the Secretary of the Methodist Tract Committee, for their services during the year.

9. The Conference regrets that, in consequence of his removal from London, the Book Committee will lose the valuable services of the Rev. Edward Lightwood, and it records its grateful sense of his faithful and diligent labours as Secretary of the Committee during many years.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

Q. XIX. What other Resolutions are adopted by the Conference in its Pastoral Session?

A. 1.

1. The respectful and hearty Thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby presented, to its late President, the Rev. Thomas M'Cullagh, for his efficient and valuable services in the discharge of the duties of his office, both during the Session of the last Conference, and throughout the year.

2. The best Thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Robert N. Young for his valuable services as Secretary of the Conference during the past year.

3. The respectful Thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby presented, to the Ex-President, the Rev. Thomas M'Cullagh, for the able and appropriate discourse delivered by him on Sunday morning, July 27th, in the Burslem Chapel.

4. The hearty Thanks of the Conference are presented to the ex-President, the Rev. Thomas M'Cullagh, for the valuable and impressive Charge delivered by him to the newly-ordained Ministers in the Hanley Chapel, on Thursday morning, July 31st; and he is earnestly requested to publish it.

5. The respectful and cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. William Burt Pope, D.D., for the able and appropriate Charge delivered by him to the newly-ordained Ministers, in the Brunswick Chapel, Macclesfield, on Thursday morning, July 31st; and he is earnestly requested to publish it.

6. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Francis W. Greeves, the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, and he is re-appointed.

7. The Annual Meetings of the several District Committees shall be held between the 10th and 17th of May, 1885, with the exception of those of the North Wales, South Wales, Lincoln, Isle of Man, Edinburgh and Aberdeen, and Zetland Districts.

Deputation to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States.—The thanks of the Conference are presented to its Secretary, the Rev. Robert N. Young, and to the Rev. Silvester Whitehead for the valuable service rendered by them as its Representatives to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States. The Conference has heard with deep interest and much satisfaction the statements of the Deputation; and it rejoices in the success of their mission, and expresses its fraternal and affectionate interest in the prosperity of the large and growing Church to which they were deputed.

RETIREMENT OF MINISTERS.—The Conference regrets that many esteemed and beloved Brethren have been compelled this year to request permission to retire from active service in the Ministry. In granting their request and recording their names in the honoured list of Supernumeraries, the Conference recalls with gratitude the remembrance of the valuable services which they have rendered to the Connexion; some of them in the able and faithful oversight of important Districts and Circuits, and all of them in the edifying ministrations of the pulpit and the pastorate, and in the exhibition of many graces of Christian character and life. It expresses the hope that they may be spared for many years, and that in spheres of comparative retirement they may not only enjoy the richest consolations of Divine grace, but may be able to render valuable aid to our Societies, and so fulfil to the last their long-cherished purpose 'to spread Scriptural holiness throughout the land.'

II.

THEOLOGICAL EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION.—The Conference directs:—

1. That arrangements be made for conducting the Theological Examination of Candidates for Ordination at a time when the President of the Conference can attend, and when a large proportion of the Conference, including its official members, may be expected to be present.

2. That an explicit declaration by each Candidate of his belief of the doctrines of Methodism be substituted for the present Theological Examination.

3. That the attention of the Chairman of Districts be called to the following regulations adopted by the Conference of 1815, viz.:—'Before any preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Meeting for admission into full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful examination by the Chairman of that Meeting, respecting his acquaintance with Mr. Wesley's works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament, in addition to the other examinations required by our existing rules; and no preacher shall be so recommended unless the result of his examination be satisfactory to the Meeting.' (Minutes of Conference, vol. iv., p. 122.)

N.B.—In order to prevent any doubts on the subject, the Conference directs that the above-named examination in Mr. Wesley's works in general shall be in addition to such an examination in Theology as has been customary.

THE BALLOT IN QUARTERLY MEETINGS, ETC.—The Conference declares that the practice of voting by ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits, is contrary to long-established usage, and that its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies.

WEST INDIAN CONFERENCES.—I. The Conference resolves to constitute two West Indian Annual Conferences; the first, which shall be called the West Indian Western Conference, to include what are designated in the Minutes of the Conference for 1883 the Jamaica District and the Hayti District; and the second, which shall be called the West Indian Eastern Conference, to include what are designated in the Minutes of Conference for 1883 the Antigua District and the St. Vincent and British Guiana District; which Conferences, in accordance with the plan hereafter stated, and subject to the distinctions and limitations therein specified, shall have jurisdiction over all the Wesleyan-Methodist Ministers, Preachers on Trial, Churches, and Missions in the West Indian Districts above mentioned; such Conferences to meet annually, and to be affiliated to 'The Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists.'

N.B.—1. Where the phrase 'Yearly Conference' occurs the subsequent resolutions, it is used instead of 'The Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists,' as constituted and defined by Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll.

2. The Districts, Circuits, and Societies included in the two Conferences as above described constitute collectively that which is hereinafter called the West Indian Connexion.

II. The Conference resolves to constitute also a West Indian General Conference, to meet once in three years, and to be affiliated to 'The Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists.' This General Conference shall have such relation to the Annual Conferences, and shall exercise such powers and functions, as are hereinafter set forth and specified.

III. The Conference accordingly, under and by virtue of the Methodist Conference Act, 1876 (39 and 40 Vict., c. 72; see Minutes of the Conference, vol. xx., pp. 248-255), resolves, subject to the power of revocation and amendment contained in Section 4 of the said Act, to delegate to and confer upon the said West Indian Annual Conferences, and the said West Indian General Conference, when consisting of Ministers only, the powers, privileges, and advantages vested in the Yearly Conference under and by virtue of the 8th, 9th, and 11th clauses of the late Rev. John Wesley's Deed Poll, dated the 28th day of February, 1784, so far as such powers, privileges, and advantages are exercisable or available within the limits of the West Indian Connexion, and as such powers, privileges, and advantages are declared to belong to the Annual and General Conferences severally, according to the arrangements hereinafter made and set forth.

N.B.—The word 'Ministers' throughout these resolutions designates only Preachers who are admitted into full connexion either with the 'Yearly Conference,' or with either of the West Indian Conferences.

IV. The West Indian Conferences, as thus constituted, shall always faithfully keep and uphold the doctrines of Wesleyan Methodism as contained in Mr. Wesley's first four volumes of Sermons, and in his 'Notes on the New Testament,' and shall also observe and maintain the general rules and usages of Wesleyan Methodism.

V. The Conference resolves that the acts done by virtue of the delegation thus conveyed shall not require any confirmation or approval by the 'Yearly Conference,' and shall not be entered on the Journals or Minutes thereof.

VI. No disciplinary action of the West Indian Conferences, in relation to European Ministers, West Indian Ministers, Preachers on Trial, Assistant Missionaries, or Members of Society in the West Indian Connexion shall require confirmation or approval by the 'Yearly Conference,' nor shall such disciplinary action be entered on the Journals thereof.

VII. The Conference empowers the West Indian Annual and General Conferences, when consisting of Ministers only, and also when consisting of Ministers and Lay Representatives, to consider and deal with the subjects hereinafter specified as being within the province of those Conferences respectively; but with the provision that, as long as the West Indian Conferences continue to be affiliated to the 'Yearly Conference,' any new legislation by the West Indian General Conference must be submitted through the Missionary Committee to the 'Yearly Conference' for approval at its first meeting after such legislation is proposed by the West Indian General Conference, and shall come into operation only when such approval has been officially notified to the President of the West Indian General Conference for the time being.

N.B.—A copy of any resolution of the 'Yearly Conference' relating to such new legislation, signed by the President and Secretary for the time being, shall be a sufficient official notification.

VIII. The Conference resolves that all Ministers who are in connexion with the West Indian General Conference, or who may hereafter be admitted into connexion with that Conference, and all persons now or hereafter upon trial for such admission, shall be eligible for appointment to the use and enjoyment of any churches, chapels, dwelling-houses, school-houses, and premises, situate within the limits of the West Indian Connexion, in the same manner and to the same extent as if such persons had been admitted into connexion with the 'Yearly Conference.'

IX. The Conference resolves that the West Indian General Conference, so long as it continues to be affiliated to the 'Yearly Conference,' shall have the right, in its Ministerial Session, to nominate a Minister to be the President of the next General Conference; but the appointment to that office shall be with the 'Yearly Conference.'

N.B.—The first President of the West Indian General Conference shall be appointed, without nomination, by the 'Yearly Conference;' and if at any time the Minister nominated by the West Indian General Conference, whether already appointed by the 'Yearly Conference' or not, shall die, or be in any way incapacitated for the duties of his office, it shall be lawful for the 'Yearly Conference' to delegate to the West Indian General Conference at its next session the power of appointing a President.

X. The powers and duties of the President of the West Indian General Conference, in relation to the Ministers, Preachers on Trial, Churches, and Missions comprehended in the West Indian Connexion, shall be the same as those belonging to the President of the 'Yearly Conference' in relation to the Ministers, Preachers on Trial, and Societies in Great Britain; but the said President of the West Indian General Conference shall continue in office for a term of three years, that is, until the next meeting of the General Conference.

XI. At each Annual Conference a Vice-President shall be elected on the first day of its session, who, during the year, shall act for purposes of administration under the direction of the President of the General Conference; and in the event of the death of the President of the General Conference, or of his being incapacitated by prolonged illness, or otherwise, for the discharge of his duties, the Vice-President senior in years in the Ministry shall succeed to his powers and duties; provided that if he be called to fulfil the duties of the office in consequence of the illness of the President, the said President shall upon his recovery from illness resume those duties. The retiring Vice-President shall be eligible for re-election.

XII. The President of the West Indian General Conference shall preside over each of the Annual Conferences, the sessions of which shall be arranged by him in concert with the Vice-Presidents. In the unavoidable absence of the President from either of the Annual Conferences, the Vice-President of such Conference shall preside over its sessions.

XIII. The time and place of the first Meeting of each of the West Indian Annual Conferences, and of the first Meeting of the General Conference, shall be fixed by the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Committee.

The time and place of all future sessions of the General Conference shall be fixed at the previous General Conference; provided that, if during the interval of three years, near to the appointed time, any calamity, such as hurricane, fire, or epidemic disease, should make the selected place unsuitable for the holding of the Conference therein, it shall be lawful for the President, in consultation with the Vice-Presidents of the Annual Conferences and the Superintendents of the Circuits affected by the arrangement, to select some other suitable place, and, if necessary, some other suitable time for the session of the General Conference; and, in such case, full and timely information shall be sent by the President to all members of the Conference of the change which has been made. The same proviso shall apply to the Annual Conferences.

XIV. The Plan and Constitution of the West Indian General Conference named in the 2nd, 3rd, and 7th of the foregoing Resolutions are defined as follows:—

1. The General Conference, when considering the subjects hereinafter specified as being within the exclusive province of the Conference when composed of Ministers only, shall consist of—
   i. The President appointed by the 'Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists,' and the Ex President of the General Conference.

ii. The Secretary of the General Conference, and of each Annual Conference.

iii. The Vice-Presidents of the Annual Conferences.

iv. The Chairman of each of the Districts within the West Indian Connexion.

v. Ten other Ministers, who shall be elected by ballot, five by each Annual Conference, when Ministers only are present, at its session next preceding the assembly of the General Conference.

2. The General Conference, when considering the subjects hereinafter specified as being within the province of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Lay Representatives, shall consist of—

i. All the Ministerial Members of the General Conference as already described.

ii. The Lay General Treasurer of each Connexional Fund, as such Funds may from time to time be formed, provided always that the total number of ex-officio Members thus qualified shall not exceed four. In the event of the total number of Lay Treasurers exceeding four, the selection shall be made by the preceding Conference.

iii. A number of Laymen sufficient to make the entire number of Lay Representatives equal to the entire number of Ministerial Members of the Conference, such Laymen to be elected by ballot, an equal number by each Annual Conference during its session when consisting of both Ministers and Laymen.

N.B.—No Layman shall be eligible for election to the General Conference unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his nomination, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Committee. Any Layman nominated in the Annual Conference must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within the jurisdiction of that Conference.

XV. The General Conference shall have the sole power of legislation, subject to the approval of the 'Yearly Conference, in all matters belonging to the general work of Methodism in the West Indian Connexion, and shall exercise full oversight and control therein, and shall have the power of review and final control over all Connexional Funds. It shall not, however, have any appellate jurisdiction over the Annual Conferences in respect to decisions relating to the supervision or expulsion of Ministers, or to decisions relating to suspended or expelled Members. While the arrangement of Ministerial appointments shall belong to the Annual Conferences, the General Conference shall have power to transfer Ministers when necessary in the interests of the work of God, from one Annual Conference to the other. Between the sessions of the General Conference no such transfer shall be made without the consent of both Annual Conferences and of the President.

The following subjects shall be within the exclusive province of the General Conference when consisting of Ministers only:—

1. Introduction of the President appointed by the 'Yearly Conference,' election of Secretary, and appointment of the other officers of the Conference.
2. Report of number of Members and state of the Societies; plans and means for the promotion of directly aggressive and Missionary work.
3. General supervision of Connexional Literature, and official Ministerial Appointments which may be necessary in connection therewith.
4. Questions affecting the conduct of public worship.
5. Transfer of Ministers from one Annual Conference to the other.
6. Nomination of a Minister for the office of President at the next General Conference.
7. Time and Place of the holding of the next General Conference, and the Order of its Business.

XVI. The following subjects shall be within the province of the General Conference when consisting of Ministers and Lay Representatives:—

1. Committee of Privileges and Exigency, and Reports of all official communications with Government authorities.
2. Review of West Indian Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary affairs.
3. Cost and management of Connexional Educational Institutions.
4. Financial management of Connexional Literature.
5. Chapel Affairs, and Methodist property generally.
6. The Children's Fund.
7. The Contingent Fund.
8. The Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund.
9. Temperance.
10. The Reception of Deputations.

XVII. 1. Each Annual Conference, when considering the subjects hereafter specified as being within the exclusive province of the Conference when composed of Ministers only, shall consist of—

i. The President of the General Conference appointed by the 'Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists.'

ii. The Vice-President of the Annual Conference then in session.

iii. The Chairman of each of the Districts within the limits of the Annual Conference.

iv. One in every three Ministers in full connexion within the area of each Annual Conference, not counting the Chairmen, to be elected by ballot at the next preceding District Meeting, when Ministers only are present; the number to be elected by each District to be determined by the preceding Annual Conference.

2. Each Annual Conference, when considering the subjects hereafter specified as being within the province of the Conference, when composed of Ministers and Lay Representatives, shall consist of—

i. All the Ministerial Members of the Conference, as already described.

ii. Two Lay General Treasurers of Connexional Funds, to be selected by the preceding Annual Conference.

iii. A number of Laymen in addition sufficient to make the entire number equal to the number of Ministerial Members of the Conference, not counting the President; such Lay Representatives to be elected by the joint vote of the Ministers and Laymen of the District Committees at their Meetings next before the assembly of the Annual Conference, and in such proportion in each District as the preceding Annual Conference shall determine.

N.B.—No Layman shall be eligible for election to an Annual Conference unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and at the time of his nomination in the District Committee a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a Member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a Member of a District Committee. Any Layman nominated in a District Committee must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District.

In case of the unavoidable absence of the President of the General Conference, the Vice-President of the Annual Conference then in session shall occupy the chair and discharge the duties of the Presidential office connected therewith.

XVIII. The following subjects shall be within the exclusive province of each Annual Conference when consisting of Ministers only:—

1. Introduction, in his first year of office, of the President of the General Conference appointed by the 'Yearly Conference;' election of a Vice-President; election of a Secretary; and appointment of other officers of the Conference.
2. Ministerial Lists; recommendation of admission, and continuance of Preachers on Trial; arrangements for the examination of Candidates and Preachers on Trial; recommendations of admission into full connexion and for ordination.

3. All questions affecting Ministerial character and ability, and all questions of discipline arising therefrom, or in any wise relating thereto.
4. All final appeals in matters of discipline relating to Ministers, Preachers on Trial, or Members of Society.
5. Ministers becoming Supernumeraries, and Supernumeraries returning to Circuit work.
6. Obituaries.
7. Stations, and Appointments of Ministers.
8. Alterations and divisions of Circuits and Districts, concerning which the Quarterly Meetings and District Committees are agreed, and against which there is no appeal.
9. Pastoral consideration of the number of Members, and the state of the Societies, and the Pastoral Address.
10. All Ministerial and Pastoral subjects of like nature with any of those specified in this Resolution (XVIII.), or affecting the Ministerial and Pastoral supervision of the Districts and Circuits within the limits of the Annual Conference.
11. At the Conference preceding the session of the General Conference, the election by ballot of the Ministers who shall attend it, and the preparation of Reports and Returns for it.
12. Time and place of holding the next Conference, and the order of its business.

XIX. The following subjects shall be within the province of each Annual Conference when consisting of Ministers and Lay Representatives:—

1. The Committees of Privileges and Exigency, and Reports of all official communications with Government.
2. The organization and management of a West Indian Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society.
3. Education, general and special, including Day and Sunday Schools and Industrial Institutions.
4. Chapel Affairs and Trust Property generally.

5. The Children's Fund.
6. The Contingent Fund.
7. The Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund.
8. The Conference Expenses Fund.
9. Temperance.
10. Religious Observance of the Lord's Day.
11. Home Missionary, District Sustentation, and other Funds.
12. Proposed alterations or divisions of Circuits or Districts against which there is any appeal.

    N.B.—The Conference, when consisting of Ministers only, shall have power to consider and decide all questions as to alterations and divisions of Circuits or Districts, concerning which the Quarterly Meetings and District Committees shall be agreed, and against which there is no appeal; and also any proposals for the employment of additional Ministers, when the respective District Committees have been satisfied that provision for the support of such Ministers will be made, and have sanctioned the proposals.

13. Election of Lay Representatives to the General Conference at the session of the Annual Conference next before the assembly of the General Conference.
14. All financial and general subjects of like nature with any of those specified in this Resolution (XIX.), or affecting the financial or general affairs of the West Indian Connexion.

XX. The consideration and determination of all questions raised by any resolutions of District Committees, or by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings, or otherwise, shall come within the province of the Conference, either when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject matter thereof. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide.

XXI. The following shall be the Order and Form of Business in the General Conference, subject to such modifications as may hereafter be found to be necessary or convenient.

I.—The Conference, when consisting of Ministers only.

1. The Calling of the Roll.
2. Introduction of the President appointed by the 'Yearly Conference.'

XXIII.—The foregoing Constitution and Plan shall be open to revision and amendment, but subject to the provisions of Article VII.

XXIV. RELATION OF MINISTERS IN THE WEST INDIES TO THE YEARLY CONFERENCE AND TO THE WEST INDIAN GENERAL CONFERENCE.—I. European Ministers now in the West Indies, and any who may hereafter be sent out by the Committee, having, according to present arrangements, a claim to return to England, shall have the option of so doing, subject, as to the time of their return, to the recommendation of the Annual Conference to which they belong and to arrangements with the Committee of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society. If the return of any such Minister should become unexpectedly and urgently necessary between the sessions of the Annual Conference, the President shall correspond with the Committee of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society and make arrangements accordingly. The expense of the return of such Ministers to England, as thus sanctioned, shall be borne by the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society.

II. Any West Indian Preacher now on Trial, who has been received on the recommendation of any of the Districts in the West Indian Connexion, and any such Preacher who may hereafter be received on Trial by either of the West Indian Annual Conferences, shall, at the close of his probation, if approved, be received into full connexion with the said Annual Conference, but shall not thereby acquire any claim upon the 'Yearly Conference' or its Connexional Funds, or have any claim upon the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society.

N.B.—The above Plan and Constitution, having been ap*proved in that* part of it which relates to Pastoral and Ecclesiastical affairs by the Conference when composed of Ministers only, and in that part of it which relates to Financial affairs by the Conference in its Representative Session, was subsequently approved and adopted as a whole by the Legal Conference.

[For FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS adopted in the Representative Session, see Appendix, No. X.]

III.

CATECHISM OF METHODIST HISTORY AND POLITY.—The Committee having reported that the preparation of this Catechism is advancing, and will probably be completed during the year; the Conference receives the Report and re-appoints the Committee, viz.:—The Rev. Dr. Gregory, with the Revs. Dr. Osborn, Dr. Pope, Dr. Rigg, Theophilus Woolmer, Edward Lightwood, and Henry W. Holland.

RELATION OF BAPTIZED CHILDREN TO THE CHURCH.—The Committee of last year is re-appointed, with the addition of the following, viz.:—Rev. Hugh P. Hughes, John M'Kenny, William F. Slater, William J. Tweddle, and Anthony Ward. The Committee is at liberty to correspond with Superintendents by circular or otherwise, and to publish at its discretion any information or practical suggestions relating to the subject.

RESOLUTIONS ON PASTORAL WORK.—The Committee report that the Pastoral Resolutions contained in the Liverpool Minutes, and such other Resolutions of the Conference since 1820 as bear upon Pastoral Work, have been collected and codified. They further report that most of the Resolutions referred to have been classified and embodied in one homogeneous document after the pattern of the Liverpool Minutes, and other Resolutions bearing upon the Pastoral Work have been classified and reprinted, and that 'the Twelve Rules of a Helper' have been added to the document.

The Conference receives the Report, and directs that a copy of the document prepared be sent in the September book-parcel to every Minister and Preacher on trial.

The Conference re-appoints the Committee, with the addition of the President, the ex-President, and the Secretary of the Conference, with the understanding that it shall consider any suggestions relating to the subject that may be sent to it during the year.

OFFICE OF CHAIRMAN OF A DISTRICT.—The Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the whole question of the appointment of Chairmen of Districts, and the character of their office and work, viz.:—The President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Rev. Dr. Osborn, Dr. Rigg, Ebenezer E. Jenkins, Alexander M'Aulay, George Alton, George Bowden, William J. Brown, Joseph Bush, J. Ernest Clapham, Walford Green, John W. Greeves, Featherstone Kellett, George Kenyon, Thomas L. Parker, G. Stringer Rowe, Dr. Stephenson, William L. Watkinson, and John Bond, Convener.

STUDENTS OF 1841.—The Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the case of certain Students of 1841, viz.:—Rev. the Secretary of the Conference, George O. Bate, J. Ernest Clapham, G. Stringer Rowe, William J. Tweddle, David J. Waller, Dr. Willlams, and Charles H. Kelly, Convener.

„ William Perkins,	Dr. James Wood.

MR. J. HARTLEY BLACKBURN (H. W. and J. Blackburn, Bradford, Yorks) is re-appointed Honorary Auditor of Kingswood School Accounts.

6. The Conference directs that the Ministerial Subscriptions be continued, and that the payment of £2 for each child by Ministers in Circuit work, having children at the Schools, shall be, as heretofore, in addition to the subscription of one guinea.

7. CLOTHING.—The Conference of 1882 directed that after Midsummer, 1882, the Governor of the School for Boys should cease to provide clothing for the boys; and that this rule should apply to the sons of Supernumerary and Deceased Ministers, except in cases of extreme need.

8. WOODHOUSE-GROVE SCHOOL LIMITED.—The Conference directs that the fee for Ministers' sons at Woodhouse-Grove School be £21 for the year 1884-5.

9. ENDOWMENTS FOR PRIZES.—Scholarships' Fund Deed Poll, dated 20th July, 1875. The Conference directs that the names of the Rev. Thomas Tapley Short and Mr. Thomas Coke Squance, of Sunderland, be substituted for those of the Rev. Samuel Coley and Mr. H. W. Blackburn, deceased, as Members of the Board of Trustees, instituted by Deed Poll, dated 20th July, 1875, for the Scholarship and Prize Funds for Kingswood School.

10. The Conference directs that, in order to avoid any unnecessary disturbance of arrangements made for the teaching and general management of the Schools, and in order to give the Governing Bodies sufficient time to make an equitable selection of candidates for any vacancies which may occur during the year, parents having children at the Schools be required to give three months' notice before the removal of such child or children.

11. ADMISSION TO THE SCHOOLS.—(1.) Admission. Not later than the 1st of March, the name and age of every applicant for admission shall be sent, in the case of boys, to the Rev. John S. Simon, Springfield Villa, Cotham Brow, Bristol; and, in the case of girls, to the Rev. David C. Ingram, 4, Church Street, Southport: the boys must not be less than ten, and girls not less than twelve, years of age at the next Midsummer. The Examination of Candidates for entrance at the Schools shall be as follows:

Standards of Entrance Examination. Standard IV. Candidates ten years of age. Reading—A few lines of poetry to be read intelligently. Writing from Dictation—A short passage from an easy Reading-Book. Arithmetic—The First Four Rules, Simple and Compound (Money only). Grammar—The Parts of Speech. To parse a simple sentence. Geography—Outlines of Geography of England and Wales. History—Elementary knowledge of the main facts of English History. Scripture—Main facts of Scripture History, as contained in Appendix to Catechism, Part I. Standard V. Candidates eleven years of age. Reading—Intelligent reading of a more difficult passage. Dictation—Short passage from an easy author. Arithmetic—The First Four Rules, Simple and Compound (Money and Weights and Measures) and Practice. Grammar—Elementary work. Parsing simple sentences. Geography—Outlines of Geography of Great Britain and the Colonies. History—Outlines of History of England. Scripture—Main facts of Scripture History. Standard VI. Candidates twelve years of age. Reading and Dictation—As above for Standard V., but more advanced. Arithmetic—As Standard V., with Elementary Vulgar Fractions. Grammar—Analysis and Parsing of simple sentences. Geography—Outlines of Geography of Europe (including British Isles). History—Outlines of History of England. Scripture—Main facts of Scripture History.

(2.) Admission to the Schools on Payment. The number of boys for whom provision is made under paragraph (1) is 250. Boys so admitted may remain five years on the foundation. In addition to these, fifty boys are received annually on payment, for the first year, of £25. Parents whose boys are thus received will be entitled, for that year, to the usual allowances of six guineas from the Children's Fund and twelve pounds for Education. In every case where an extra year, at the end, is granted to any boy or girl, the sum of £30 shall be paid. The Rule as to extra years shall be construed in harmony with Clause thirty-two of the Scheme of Management. Parents whose children are granted an extra year are entitled to the six guineas from the Children's Fund, and, unless they have already received for six years, the twelve pounds for Education. All payments for children at the Schools, whether £25 for first year or £30 for extra year, are due in four equal instalments, one on each quarter day; and the money must be sent to the Rev. John Harvard, 197, Great Cheetham Street, Manchester.

12. Number of Years at Kingswood School (Min. Conf. 1882, p. 240, sec. 9).—The General Committee exercise the discretion allowed them under this decision of the Conference thus: After receiving the applicants for admission who have passed the examinations, the unoccupied room is filled up by senior boys eligible for a sixth year at School, on payment of £25 for the year.

13. Educational Allowances for Children not at the Schools.—Payments are made at the Conference for the past year; and in every case in which the Educational Allowance has been received by the parent, the claim upon the Schools Fund shall be understood to have been met and satisfied for that year. Claimants must be nine years of age on or before the previous Christmas-day.

14. Circuit Schedules.—Not later than the 1st of March, each Superintendent shall send to the Rev. Marshall Hartley, 16, Gascoyne Road, Hackney Common, London, E., a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit, specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received.

15. The Conference directs that the April Meetings of the General Committee and of the Governing Bodies be held at Bath, and that the October, January, and July Meetings be held at London, and that the first meeting be held early in October.

16. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Officers of the Schools Fund, the General Committee, the Governing Bodies, with their Treasurers and Secretaries, and to the Executive Committees, for the diligent and faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices during the year; also to Mr. Hartley Blackburn, of Bradford, for his valuable services as Auditor of Kingswood-School Accounts.

17. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. JOHN H. LORD, the Governor of the School for Boys; to Mr. T. G. OSBORN, M.A., the Head Master of Kingswood School; and to Mrs. LORD, together with the Lady Principals having charge of the Schools for Girls, for their kind attention to the comfort of the Boys and Girls under their care during the past year.

18. On the occasion of the resignation of one of the General Treasurers, the Rev. FREDERICK PAYNE, the Conference desires to express their grateful acknowledgment of the long and faithful services which he has rendered to this department. During fifteen years he performed the arduous duty of Secretary, and for seven years he held the office of Treasurer. In both these offices, Mr. Payne has been most faithful and painstaking, and in his intercourse with his brethren most considerate and courteous. The Conference hopes that Mr. Payne's valuable life may long be spared, and that God's blessing may richly rest upon him.

MAINTENANCE.

1. TRANSFER OF MINISTERS FROM THE CHANNEL ISLANDS TO THE FRENCH CONFERENCE:—The Conference directs,

I. That the number of exchanges in any one year between the French and English Conferences shall not exceed two, unless the President of the English Conference, in urgent circumstances, gives special consent.

(1.) That when Ministers belonging to the French Conference return from the Channel Islands to French Conference Circuits, there shall be paid to the French Conference, as compensation, a sum of £25 4s. for each child born during the appointment of the father to the Channel Islands, being an amount equal to four years' allowance.

(2.) That French Ministers appointed to Circuits in the Channel Islands shall receive (during their stay in the Channel Islands) for children of the proper school age the same grant for education paid to Ministers of the English Conference.

II. That, in future, when a French Minister who has served in the Channel Islands becomes a Supernumerary, there shall be paid, during each year of his Supernumeraryship, from the Auxiliary Fund, to the French Auxiliary Fund, the sum of £1 per year for each year of active Circuit work, from the Conference of 1884, in the Channel Islands, and one-half this sum in the case of a widow.

III. That when a Minister returns to the French Conference, as a married man, who has served any part of his probation in the Channel Islands, there shall be paid to the French Conference a sum equal to £20 for each year of such probation spent in the Channel Islands. This amount shall be a charge upon the Channel Islands Circuit or Circuits in which the said Minister has been stationed, and the Home Mission and Contingent Fund will be responsible for the payment.

N.B.—When a married Minister is received into the Channel Islands District in exchange for a Minister returning to the work in France, the above rule (III.) shall not apply.

2. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the District Treasurers of the Children's Fund for their valuable services during the year; and also to the Rev. G. Stringer Rowe and Mr. William Mewburn, the General Treasurers, and to the Rev. James D. Tetley, the General Secretary.

3. The Rev. G. Stringer Rowe and Mr. William Mewburn are re-appointed the General Treasurers, and the Rev. J. D. Tetley the General Secretary, for the ensuing year.

(Remittances are to be sent to the Rev. G. Stringer Rowe, Selborne Villa, Blackhall Road, Oxford; other communications respecting the Fund to be addressed to the Rev. James D. Tetley, 1, Brooklyn Villas, Chester Road, Manchester.)

4. The following Statements show the amounts to be raised in each District for the general purposes of the Children's and Schools Funds:—

„ John Napier, Manchester,
„ James Prescott, Manchester,
„ George Wainwright, Oldham,
„ Thomas Walker, Bolton,
„ Thomas Willshaw, Manchester,
„ James Wilson, Eccles;

Also the Secretary and Treasurers of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Committee; and the Secretary of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain.

N.B. (1.) The Chapel Committee usually meets on the first Wednesday of each month.

(2.) All communications intended for the Committee must reach the Secretary not later than the Saturday preceding the day of the usual Monthly Meeting.

(3.) Letters, Schedules, and all other documents on Chapel Affairs must be sent to THE GENERAL SECRETARY, Wesleyan Chapel Committee, 13, Dale Street, Oldham Street, Manchester. The private address of the Secretary is,—the REV. HENRY J. POPE, Flixton, Manchester.

(4.) Applications relating to Loans, Grants, Erections, Enlargements, Alterations, Organs, Purchases, or Sales must be made on the authorised Schedules, as undermentioned, which may be obtained from the Conference Office, London:—

Schedule I. New Chapels.—II. School-Rooms.—III. Enlargements and Alterations.—IV. Organs.—V. Sales.—VI. Grants.—VII. Loans.—VIII. Ministers' Houses.

RELIEF AND EXTENSION FUND FOR METHODISM IN SCOTLAND.

1. The Conference receives and approves the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference directs that Annual Collections on behal

thus received will be entitled, for that year, to the usual allowances of six guineas from the Children's Fund and twelve pounds for Education. In every case where an extra year, at the end, is granted to any boy or girl, the sum of £30 shall be paid. The Rule as to extra years shall be construed in harmony with Clause thirty-two of the Scheme of Management. Parents whose children are granted an extra year are entitled to the six guineas from the Children's Fund, and, unless they have already received for six years, the twelve pounds for Education. All payments for children at the Schools, whether £25 for first year or £30 for extra year, are due in four equal instalments, one on each quarter day; and the money must be sent to the Rev. John Harvard, 197, Great Cheetham Street, Manchester.

12. Number of Years at Kingswood School (Min. Conf. 1882, p. 240, sec. 9).—The General Committee exercise the discretion allowed them under this decision of the Conference thus: After receiving the applicants for admission who have passed the examinations, the unoccupied room is filled up by senior boys eligible for a sixth year at School, on payment of £25 for the year.

13. Educational Allowances for Children not at the Schools.—Payments are made at the Conference for the past year; and in every case in which the Educational Allowance has been received by the parent, the claim upon the Schools Fund shall be understood to have been met and satisfied for that year. Claimants must be nine years of age on or before the previous Christmas-day.

14. Circuit Schedules.—Not later than the 1st of March, each Superintendent shall send to the Rev. Marshall Hartley, 16, Gascoyne Road, Hackney Common, London, E., a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit, specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received.

15. The Conference directs that the April Meetings of the General Committee and of the Governing Bodies be held at Bath, and that the October, January, and July Meetings be held at London, and that the first meeting be held early in October.

16. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Officers of the Schools Fund, the General Committee, the Governing Bodies, with their Treasurers and Secretaries, and to the Executive Committees, for the diligent and faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices during the year; also to Mr. Hartley Blackburn, of Bradford, for his valuable services as Auditor of Kingswood-School Accounts.

17. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. JOHN H. LORD, the Governor of the School for Boys; to Mr. T. G. OSBORN, M.A., the Head Master of Kingswood School; and to Mrs. LORD, together with the Lady Principals having charge of the Schools for Girls, for their kind attention to the comfort of the Boys and Girls under their care during the past year.

18. On the occasion of the resignation of one of the General Treasurers, the Rev. FREDERICK PAYNE, the Conference desires to express their grateful acknowledgment of the long and faithful services which he has rendered to this department. During fifteen years he performed the arduous duty of Secretary, and for seven years he held the office of Treasurer. In both these offices, Mr. Payne has been most faithful and painstaking, and in his intercourse with his brethren most considerate and courteous. The Conference hopes that Mr. Payne's valuable life may long be spared, and that God's blessing may richly rest upon him.

MAINTENANCE.

1. TRANSFER OF MINISTERS FROM THE CHANNEL ISLANDS TO THE FRENCH CONFERENCE:—The Conference directs,

I. That the number of exchanges in any one year between the French and English Conferences shall not exceed two, unless the President of the English Conference, in urgent circumstances, gives special consent.

(1.) That when Ministers belonging to the French Conference return from the Channel Islands to French Conference Circuits, there shall be paid to the French Conference, as compensation, a sum of £25 4s. for each child born during the appointment of the father to the Channel Islands, being an amount equal to four years' allowance.

(2.) That French Ministers appointed to Circuits in the Channel Islands shall receive (during their stay in the Channel Islands) for children of the proper school age the same grant for education paid to Ministers of the English Conference.

II. That, in future, when a French Minister who has served in the Channel Islands becomes a Supernumerary, there shall be paid, during each year of his Supernumeraryship, from the Auxiliary Fund, to the French Auxiliary Fund, the sum of £1 per year for each year of active Circuit work, from the Conference of 1884, in the Channel Islands, and one-half this sum in the case of a widow.

III. That when a Minister returns to the French Conference, as a married man, who has served any part of his probation in the Channel Islands, there shall be paid to the French Conference a sum equal to £20 for each year of such probation spent in the Channel Islands. This amount shall be a charge upon the Channel Islands Circuit or Circuits in which the said Minister has been stationed, and the Home Mission and Contingent Fund will be responsible for the payment.

N.B.—When a married Minister is received into the Channel Islands District in exchange for a Minister returning to the work in France, the above rule (III.) shall not apply.

2. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the District Treasurers of the Children's Fund for their valuable services during the year; and also to the Rev. G. Stringer Rowe and Mr. William Mewburn, the General Treasurers, and to the Rev. James D. Tetley, the General Secretary.

3. The Rev. G. Stringer Rowe and Mr. William Mewburn are re-appointed the General Treasurers, and the Rev. J. D. Tetley the General Secretary, for the ensuing year.

(Remittances are to be sent to the Rev. G. Stringer Rowe, Selborne Villa, Blackhall Road, Oxford; other communications respecting the Fund to be addressed to the Rev. James D. Tetley, 1, Brooklyn Villas, Chester Road, Manchester.)

4. The following Statements show the amounts to be raised in each District for the general purposes of the Children's and Schools Funds:—

METROPOLITAN CHAPEL BUILDING FUND.

1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee, and directs that an abstract of it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. I.)

2. The Conference, recognising the great benefits the Fund has conferred on Metropolitan Methodism, and the cause of Christ generally, and approving the proposals of the Committee as to the erection of smaller Chapels, calls on all the Metropolitan Methodists, and especially on the Trustees, and all others interested in the sixty-five Chapels already erected with the aid of this Fund, to sustain it to the utmost of their power, so that sufficient means may be provided for the further development of Methodism in this immense and ever-growing Metropolis.

3. The Conference, having heard with great satisfaction of the new impulse given to the Fund by Sir William M'Arthur, and others, earnestly hopes that the Methodists of the Provinces will heartily aid their London brethren in this fresh effort to overtake the religious necessities of the Metropolis of the British Empire.

4. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the General Treasurers, Sir William M'Arthur, K.C.M.G., M.P., and Mr. Samuel D. Waddy, Q.C., M.P., and to the other Officers of the Fund, for their services during the past year.

5. The following are the Officers of the Fund for the ensuing year, viz.: Sir William M'Arthur, K.C.M.G., M.P., and Mr. Samuel D. Waddy, Q.C., M.P., Treasurers; Rev. John Bond, HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND.

Q. XXIV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and of the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and directs that the Returns from the Army and Navy and Reserve Forces be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. IV.)

2. In view of the facts, (1) That there are now between eighty and ninety married Ministers who are without the customary provision of a house, involving the Fund in a very large expenditure; (2) That there are in the Connexion about 130 Circuits under obligation to provide for married Ministers, many of whom have given the pledge that they would so provide at periods which have expired; and (3) That of the Grant from the Thanksgiving Fund, voted 'to assist needy Circuits in providing or furnishing houses for married Ministers who at present have none,' upwards of £4,000 remains unappropriated; the Conference directs the Home-Mission Committee to send a Circular to each Circuit, the case of which was contemplated when the Grant from the Thanksgiving Fund was obtained, urging such Circuits to take immediate steps to provide houses for married Ministers, and informing them of the aid which can be afforded to them in securing this object.

3. (1.) The following Grants are to be paid to the Districts for the ensuing year, and the manner in which they have been distributed to the several Circuits shall be reported in the Minutes of the next Conference:—

The Rev. Alexander M'Aulay and the Rev. John Kilner are the Secretaries, and the Rev. Richard W. Allen is Assistant-Secretary.

SEAMEN'S MISSION.

The following is a Sub-Committee for the ensuing year:—The Officers of the Home-Mission Committee; the Superintendent of St. George's Circuit; the Superintendent of the Seamen's Mission, and the Stewards of the Circuit; the Local Treasurer of the Mission; Mr. H. J. Atkinson, Mr. J. J. Holdsworth, and Captain Walker; with ten other persons to be elected by the Home-Mission Committee.

LAY MISSIONS.

The Conference receives the Reports of the Metropolitan, the Manchester and Salford, and the Liverpool Lay Missions, and it again commends these Missions to the generous support of the Connexion.

DISTRICT SUSTENTATION FUNDS.

The Conference receives the Report of these Funds, of which the following is an abstract:

When the Fund was commenced in 1874, 356 Circuits were paying less than the desired minimum stipends, viz.: £150 for married and £80 for single ministers. This number has been reduced to 182, and the stipends of 288 ministers have been increased. Subscriptions have been raised to the amount of £24,437 during the ten years that have elapsed since the Funds were started, and to meet this amount assisted Circuits have raised £20,029.

The amount raised for the Fund during the past year is £1,913, and the amounts granted to Circuits £1,867, to meet which grants the Circuits have raised £2,991.

The special thanks of the Conference are presented to Mr. T. F. C. May for his services as Treasurer, on the occasion of his presenting the last Report to the Conference of the District Sustentation Funds.

WORN-OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. XXV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the AUXILIARY FUND?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference, while rejoicing in the cheerful support given to this Fund, desires to impress on our Ministers and people the necessity of continued exertion to sustain and increase the regular sources of income—viz., the contributions in the Classes, the Private Subscriptions, and the Public Collections. Several legacies of large amount were received during the past year; but this source of income is necessarily fluctuating and uncertain.

3. The Members of Society in the German Mission, in London, having for some years past contributed to the Auxiliary Fund, and there being now organised a Fund for the Worn-Out German Ministers in Germany itself, this Committee deems it expedient and desirable that the sums heretofore raised by the German Society in London, should be paid over to that Fund, and that their future contributions should be transmitted in like manner.

4. The Conference resolves that the scale of allowances to Ministers' Widows shall be the same as last year—viz., fourteen pounds in addition to ten shillings per annum for each year that the husband travelled.

5. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Dr. Williams and Mr. John Napier, the General Treasurers, and to the Rev. Herbert Hoare, the Secretary; also to the District Treasurers and the Circuit Treasurers, for their services during the past year.

6. The thanks of the Conference are presented to those friends who, during the past year, have generously aided this Fund by special Donations; to those Executors who have paid Legacies to this Fund; and also to those Trustees who have contributed to it from their Chapel-income.

7. The REV. DR. WILLIAMS and MR. JOHN NAPIER are re-appointed the General Treasurers, and the REV. HERBERT HOARE is re-appointed the Secretary.

8. The following persons are appointed the Committee of Management for the ensuing year; who shall superintend the general working of the Fund, and also consider and decide upon such peculiar cases of affliction or distress among the Supernumerary Ministers, and Ministers' widows, as may be recommended by the District Committees for special and occasional relief, viz.:—

The President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the General Treasurers and the Secretary of the Fund; and the—

Rev. George Bowden,
„ Benjamin Browne,
„ Richard Brown (A),
„ Joseph Bush,
„ Thomas T. Dilks,
„ Charles Garrett,
„ Richard Green,
„ Walford Green,
„ John Harvard,
„ Henry Hastling,

Mr. John Beauchamp, London;
„ G. W. Booth, London,
„ H. R. Bowers, Chester,
„ Joshua Bryant, Alford,
„ George H. Chubb, London,
„ John Cole, Sheffield,
„ W. H. Eyre, Southsea,
„ S. Harvey, Bedford,
„ Isaac Holden, M.P., Oakworth, „ William Hunt, Bristol,
„ William Johnson, London,
„ A. M'Arthur, M.P., London,
Sir W. M'Arthur, M.P., London,
Mr. John H. Mason, Newbury,
„ William Mewburn, Banbury,
„ Thomas Oliver, Bollington, „ Henry Page, Deal,
„ Robert W. Perks, London,
„ J. Radmall, London,
„ John Raynar, Leeds,
„ Lancelot Smith, London,
„ T. Walton Stead, Southport,
„ S. D. Waddy, Q.C., M.P., London, „ Greaves Walker, London.

N.B.—The Conference directs that in future but one meeting be held during the year, and that in the month of July.

9. The following persons are appointed the Sub-Committee for the Invalid Ministers' Rest Fund:—

Rev. Charles Garrett,	Mr. John Napier,
„ Herbert Hoare,	„ Henry R. Bowers,
„ Thomas M'Cullagh,	„ T. Walton Stead.

Rev. C. Garrett, Treasurer; Rev. H. Hoare, Convener.

10. The Conference directs that, in addition to the report of the Contributions in the Classes, a report shall be made to the District Committee at its Annual Meeting of the amount of the Private Subscriptions and the Public Collections in each Circuit for the year immediately preceding.

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Q. XXVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to the WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the General Committee, the Governors, Tutors, and Examiners, together with the financial statement of the General Treasurers.

9. The Conference directs that the following resolutions previously adopted shall be reprinted:—

(1.) The Conference resolves that wherever it is practicable two Collections shall be made annually in each Chapel throughout the Connexion on behalf of the Funds of the Theological Institution, and that these Collections shall be made, if possible, on some Sunday in December.

(2.) The Conference affirms the principle, which has from the beginning been recognised in the administration of the Institution, in regard to charges on account of Students, that such Students as have the means, or whose friends have the means, shall be expected to contribute, in whole or in part, according to their ability, towards the cost of their maintenance and education, and directs the Committee to consider and adopt such methods as may be deemed best for carrying this rule into effect.

10. The question of the date of closing the accounts of the Theological Institution with a view to the presentation of an audited Balance-Sheet to the Conference having been referred to the consideration of the General Committee, and the Committee having reported that there is no necessity for any change in the date of closing the accounts, which is June 30th, provided that prompt payment of subscriptions and collections be made, the Conference directs the Superintendents of Circuits to remit all subscriptions and collections for the Theological Institution to the General Treasurers early in the year, and instructs the Chairmen of Districts to ascertain, by enquiry at the May District Meeting, whether such payments have been made.

11. The Conference regards the fiftieth Anniversary of the Theological Institution as a fitting occasion for special and joyful thanksgiving to God, and for renewing its confidence in the principles and spirit which have directed the work of the Institution during the last half century; and believing that an intelligent, educated, and earnest Ministry is still the need of the times, gratefully recognises that provision now exists for the efficient training of all Candidates for the Ministry, and commends this department of work to the prayerful consideration and generous support of the Connexion.

12. The Conference resolves that all the existing Branches of the Theological Institution are required in order to meet the necessities of the Connexion in regard to the Training of Candidates for the Ministry.

13. The Conference resolves that a proportion of the Missionary Candidates shall be trained in the Home Branches of the Theological Institution, and that any vacancies so created at Richmond shall be filled up with Candidates for the Home work.

14. The Conference directs the General Committee of the Theological Institution to consider, during the year, how best to arrange for the interchange of Home and Foreign Students, so as not to interfere with the Missionary character of the Richmond Branch of the Institution, as contemplated and provided for in the Trust-deed; and also to consider whether any and what modifications can be advantageously made in the administration of the Theological Institution, in the constitution of the Tutorships, the curriculum, or otherwise, and specially if any steps can be taken to give a distinctive character and greater efficiency to the Richmond Branch as a specifically Missionary College.

15. The Conference directs that the Quarterly Meetings of the General Committee shall be held in Birmingham, Manchester, Leeds, and London successively.

16. The Conference appoints the following Discipline Committees:—

Richmond Branch.—The House Governor, Tutors, Local

Secretary, the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society, Rev. F. W. Briggs, Walford Green, William Hirst, Charles H. Kelly, John M'Kenny, Dr. Rigg, Richard Roberts, William J. Tweddle, Anthony Ward, Theophilus Woolmer.

Didsbury Branch.—The House Governor, Tutors, and Local Secretary, Rev. John Baker, James Chalmers, John Harvard, Richard Martin, Thomas Nattrass, H. J. Pope, Benjamin Smith, J. Stevinson, James D. Tetley, J. C. Woodcock.

Headingley Branch.—The House Governor, Tutors, Local Secretary, Rev. J. Alexander Armstrong, Henry J. Foster, Theophilus S. Gregory, Richard Harding (B), James Hughes, William Jessop, W. Rodwell Jones, Marshall Randles, Robert Stephenson, W. Wilson (D).

Birmingham Branch.—The House Governor, Tutors, Local Secretary, Rev. William Andrews, David Barley, James Cooke (C), William Foster, Featherstone Kellett, Dr. James, Josiah Jutsum, Ebenezer Moulton (B), Joseph Posnett, Thomas Wilkes.

17. The Conference appoints a Finance Sub-Committee and directs it to meet before each Quarterly Meeting of the General Committee, to consider the reports of the Governors as to payments to and payments by Students, to examine the quarterly statements of the Local Treasurers, and generally to compare and watch the expenditure at the several Branches of the Institution.

This Committee shall consist of the General and Local Treasurers, the General and Local Secretaries, the House Governors, the Rev. Thomas Akroyd, Dr. James, George W. Olver, T. Tapley Shorť, Dr. Rigg, Joseph Bush, Messrs. T. Dewhirst, G. Lidgett, T. P. Bunting, H. Edmunds, A. Pointon, J. Fishwick Stead, with the Rev. J. Ernest Clapham, Convener.

18. The Conference approves of the election by the Trustees of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches of the Theological Institution of the Ministers and Laymen, whose names are submitted, as new Trustees of the Trust Premises.

EDUCATION.

Q. XXVII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of WESLEYAN EDUCATION?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the proceedings of the Education Committee during the year, together with a Statistical Statement relating to Training Colleges, Day Schools, Sunday Schools, and the Connexional Sunday-School Union, and directs that an Abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes as an Appendix. (See Appendix, No. II.)

2. The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:—

(1.) The Conference empowers the Education Committee to make Grants, on inspection, to new Schools to which the provisions of the Minute of the Education Department, dated June 21st, 1878, apply, and for the probationary period during which, under the said Minute, such Schools cannot receive Grants in aid from the Department.

(2.) The Conference expresses its opinion that, in view of the working of existing arrangements for Public Elementary Education, it is highly desirable that the number of Wesleyan Day Schools should at least be maintained. The Conference therefore strongly recommends that before any steps are taken towards the closing or transfer of any Wesleyan Day School, the proposal to close or transfer it be communicated to the Education Committee, in order that they may have an opportunity of suggesting alternative proposals for the consideration of Local Managers.

(3.) The Conference directs that in all ordinary cases of Day-Schools conducted on Wesleyan Trust premises, no such Schools shall be discontinued so long as there is a reasonable prospect of their being carried on without serious embarrassment. The same general principle shall apply to Wesleyan Day Schools conducted in premises rented for the purpose under the management of a recognised Wesleyan School Committee.

When, however, the discontinuance of a Day School is proposed, before such proposal is carried into effect the Superintendent shall consult the Trustees, the Managing Committee and the Subscribers; and if in any case there is a considerable division of opinion, the case shall be submitted to the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit. In all cases, the general principle laid down by the Conference respecting the Transfer of Schools —viz., that the Superintendents of the Circuits, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall consult the Education Committee—shall be adhered to.

(4.) The Conference declares that it shall not be deemed to be within the power and option of a Superintendent to prevent the establishment or continuance of a Wesleyan Day School so long as responsible parties pledge themselves to bear all the financial cost and risk.

(5.) (i.) In view of the interpretation which is put upon Section XXIII. of the Elementary Education Act by the Lords of the Committee of Council, to the effect that any transfer of a School, settled upon our School Model Deed No. I., to a School Board, for any term whatever, for the purposes of such School Board, must be sanctioned not only by the signatures of the Trustees, but by the Conference, testified by the President in writing, the Conference directs that in every case in which the transfer of such a School is proposed, the Superintendent with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall first consult the Education Committee on the subject, and that if for reasons given, that Committee recommends such a transfer the Rules of the Conference in relation to the sale of Trust Property shall be applicable thereto;—the Education Committee considering all questions affecting School management, and the Chapel Committee questions affecting Trust Property.

(ii.) In respect to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. II., or on any other Deed in which the consent of the Conference is rendered necessary for the alienation of the property, the Conference recommends the Trustees to act upon the same principles as those laid down in the foregoing clause in relation to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. I.

(iii.) In all cases of transfer which may hereafter occur, the Conference recommends that provision be made in the instrument of transfer to secure the resumption of the premises by the Trustees, without their being required to reimburse any money laid out upon them by the School Board solely for its own purposes.

(6.) The Conference directs that the Statistics of the Day and Sunday-Schools of each Circuit be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but that if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and enquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

(7.) The Conference directs that the Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the District Education Secretary, not later than April 20th, in each year.

(8.) The Conference directs all who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises for the establishment of new Schools, to communicate with the Education Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings, and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted.

(9.) The Conference directs that the October Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday of that month. The March Examination will continue to be held on the first Saturday of that month.

(10.) The Conference authorizes the observance of the third Sunday in October in each year as a day for Special Prayer on behalf of Sunday-schools and young people.

3. The Conference directs that the District Sunday-School Sub-Committees shall have charge also of the interests of the Day-schools in their respective Districts.

4. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev.

FREDERIC GREEVES, D.D. (President of the Conference), to MR. FREDERICK HOWARD, and to MR. WILLIAM VANNER, for their services as Treasurers of the Education Fund.

5. The Conference re-appoints the REV. FREDERIC GREEVES, D.D., MR. FREDERICK HOWARD, and MR. WILLIAM VANNER, to be Treasurers of the Education Fund. The special duty of Mr. William Vanner shall be the charge of the Sunday-School Union branch of the finance.

6. The EDUCATION COMMITTEE shall consist of the following persons, namely,—

(1.) The ex-officio members:—The President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Treasurers; the Secretary of the Committee; the Principals of the Westminster and Southlands Training Colleges; the Secretary of the Sunday-School Union; the Principal of the Children's Home; the Connexional Editor; and the Book-Steward.

5. The Committee is empowered to make appropriations by way of grant or loan, or otherwise, on account of the remainder of the sum of Ten Thousand Pounds, which was allotted from the Thanksgiving Fund in aid of Methodist Middle-Class Schools.

6. The Conference recommends the promoters of any projected Middle-Class School, which it is proposed to denominate a Wesleyan-Methodist School, to submit to this Committee the draft of the Trust Deed or Articles of Association of the School, for any suggestions which the Committee may deem it to be desirable to make.

7. The Conference directs the Committee:—

(i.) To consider schemes for the establishment of such Schools, when they are submitted to them, and to advise respecting such schemes as they may deem expedient.

(ii.) To report on such cases to the Conference.

(iii.) To act on behalf of the Conference, in the cases referred to, in the interval between one Conference and another.

(iv.) To present to the Conference annually any suggestions for the promotion of the interests of Methodist Middle-Class Education.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

Q. XXVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of the CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the Children's Home and Orphanage, and directs that an Abstract of it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. III.)

2. The Conference records its thankfulness for the moral and religious results which have attended the work of this Institution; it expresses its satisfaction that a resolute effort is being made to remove the debt, and again earnestly and confidently commends the enterprise to the Christian public.

3. The Conference is glad to know that the Princess Alice Orphanage has commenced its good work, by the reception of about fifty children, and hopes that the increase of income, whether local or general, will erelong render prudent an extension of this part of the work.

4. The President of the Conference, being the President of the Children's Home and Orphanage, the Conference authorises the General Committee to select six Vice-Presidents, who shall be members of some Evangelical Church. These gentlemen shall receive yearly reports of the condition of the Institution.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XXIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee for Promoting the RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee and rejoices in the prospect of speedy success in the cessation of the liquor traffic on the Lord's Day in England, and also that the attempts persistently made to impair the sanctity of the Day by legislative enactments have hitherto been defeated.

2. The Conference in view of the systematic and organized opposition to the Divine authority of the Sabbatic Institution which exists in this country, and which receives so much support from the rationalistic and latitudinarian spirit of the age, recognises the importance of increased vigilance and fidelity on the part of the friends of the Sabbath, and especially of maintaining a conscientious consistency in the due observance of the Sacred Day.

3. The Conference, deeply impressed with the perils to which the children in our large towns are exposed, through the opening of shops on the Lord's Day, commends to the attention of all who are engaged in Sunday-school work the importance and necessity of warning the children against making purchases on that Day.

4. The Rev. John Baker, M.A., and Rev. James Finch are re-appointed Secretaries, and the following Ministers and Laymen are appointed the Committee for the next year:—

The President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; and the—

EXTENSION OF METHODISM IN GREAT BRITAIN.

Q. XXX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of the Fund for the EXTENSION OF METHODISM IN GREAT BRITAIN?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report, and learns with satisfaction that during the past year the Committee have received and considered 126 applications for aid. The amount paid during the year for sites and Grants for Chapels was £8,738. The total receipts during the year amounted to £3,330 2*s*. 2*d*. The sum promised was £47,470. The amount paid is £33,982 9*s*. 8*d*. Since the formation of the Fund there have been 1,073 Applications; 741 Grants; and 117,922 additional sittings have been provided.

2. The Thanks of the Conference are presented to Mr. WILLIAM MEWBURN, and Mr. ALEXANDER M'ARTHUR, M.P., the Treasurers, and the Committee, for their faithful and valuable services during the past year.

3. Mr. WILLIAM MEWBURN and Mr. ALEXANDER M'ARTHUR, M.P., are re-appointed the Treasurers for the ensuing year; and the Rev. JOSEPH HARGREAVES is re-appointed the Secretary. All communications in relation to the Fund are to be addressed to the Rev. JOSEPH HARGREAVES, 12, Ormistow Road, London, W.

The COMMITTEE for the ensuing year shall consist of—i. The ex-Officio Members,—namely, the President of the Conference, REV. FREDERIC GREEVES, D.D.; the Secretary of the Conference, the REV. R. N. YOUNG; the Ex-President, the REV. T. M'CULLAGH; Mr. WILLIAM MEWBURN and Mr. ALEXANDER M'ARTHUR, M.P., the Treasurers; and the REV. JOSEPH HARGREAVES, the Secretary of the Fund; Messrs. TEMPERANCE.

Q. XXXI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Temperance?

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Temperance Committee, and directs that an abstract of the Report be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. VIII.)

2. The Conference hears with great satisfaction of the constant progress of the Methodist Temperance work among the young, as shown by the fact that there are now in Great Britain 2,821 Wesleyan-Methodist Bands of Hope with 291,989 members. The Conference would urge upon the Superintendents and Teachers of Sunday-schools the great advantage of enrolling as many Sunday-scholars as possible in the Bands of Hope.

3. The Conference regrets that there are not more than 337 Wesleyan-Methodist Temperance Societies in existence, and would impress upon our people the great importance of multiplying and sustaining the Connexional Temperance organizations as well as of co-operating in undenominational Temperance work.

4. The Conference rejoices to learn that the March Quarterly Meetings and the Sunday-schools have petitioned so promptly and so heartily for the Sunday Closing of public-houses in England. The Conference greatly regrets that Parliament still delays to grant this rightful boon, which has been so long refused to the people of England.

5. The Conference recommends that on the second Sunday in December in each year special reference shall be made in all Wesleyan-Methodist places of worship, and in all Wesleyan Sunday-schools, to the appalling extent and dire results of Intemperance in Great Britain.

6. The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of:—

(1.) Ex-officio members,—namely, the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Secretaries and Lay Treasurer of the Committee; the Book-Steward; the Connexional Editor; the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-School Union; one of the Secretaries of the Lord's Day Observance Committee; and,—

(2.) The following Ministers and Laymen, namely,—

Rev. Thomas Allen,
„ Benjamin Browne,
„ John Colwell,
„ Charles Garrett,
„ James E. Hargreaves,
„ Joseph Hargreaves,
„ Henry W. Holland,
„ Ebenezer E. Jenkins,
„ Thomas T. Lambert,

„ Joseph Richardson,
„ John Slack,
„ John Smith,
„ George J. Smith,
„ Lewis Williams,
„ James Wood, LL.D.,
„ Joseph G. Wright,

7. The Rev. HUGH PRICE HUGHES, M.A., and the Rev. ROBERT CULLEY are re-appointed the Secretaries, and Mr. THOMAS SEABER is re-appointed the Treasurer of the Committee.

WESLEYAN-METHODIST THANKSGIVING FUND.

Report of the Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee reported as follows:—

1. That the Report of the Thanksgiving Fund has been issued in accordance with the Resolutions of the last Conference.

2. That between the date of the ad interim Balance-Sheet—which was presented to the Conference of 1883, and published in its Minutes, pp. 342-345—and March 24th, 1884, when the accounts on the Receipts side were finally closed, the Treasurers received £1,079 0s. 8d.

3. That Grants have been paid since the Conference of 1883, as follows;—Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society, £1,000; Wesleyan Theological Institution, £417; Schools Fund, £278; Fund for the Relief and Extension of Methodism in Scotland, £26 16s.; South Wales Chapel Loan Fund, £350; Chapel for the Welsh in London, £50 0s. 1d.

4. That a Balance-Sheet of the Fund up to May 2nd, 1884, has been prepared, and audited by a professional accountant. It is printed in the Report of the Fund, and shows that at the date named there was an unexpended balance of £3,216 13s. 5d. This sum has been reserved in order to provide ample funds for defraying the cost of the Report (including circulation) together with incidental expenses; but it is expected that of this sum a balance will be available for distribution in accordance with the directions of the Conference.

A Supplementary Balance-Sheet is to be prepared and presented to the next Conference.

It was resolved as follows:—

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Executive Committee, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes.

2. The Conference records its gratitude to Almighty God for the remarkable success which has attended the Thanksgiving Fund; it expresses its hearty appreciation of the widespread liberality which has contributed to it the sum of £296,740 9s. 1d.;

amounts otherwise accruing, chiefly from interest, having raised the total income of the Fund to £297,518 8s. 4d. The Conference believes that the interests of the work of God in Methodism have been materially furthered by Grants made from the Thanksgiving Fund towards the relief of the ordinary Connexional Funds from debt, and for other purposes.

3. The Conference very cordially thanks the District and Circuit Treasurers and Secretaries and other ministers and laymen, to whose efforts on its behalf the Fund has been largely indebted, under God, for the success attained.

4. The Conference presents its especial thanks to the Executive Committee and Officers of the Fund, to whose prolonged and attentive endeavours it believes that the prosperity of the Fund is largely attributable.

5. The Conference appoints the following Committee, which it directs to undertake all matters connected with the closing of the affairs of the Thanksgiving Fund, namely:—The President and Secretary of the Conference,

Rev. George O. Bate,
„ J. Ernest Clapham,
„ John M'Kenny,
„ Dr. Rigg,
„ Dr. Stephenson,
„ David J. Waller,
„ Dr. Williams,

Mr. J. Beauchamp,
„ T. Percival Bunting,
„ James Duncan,
„ Thomas M. Harvey,
„ Alexander M'Arthur, M.P.,
„ Thomas W. Pocock,
„ Thomas Seaber,
„ James E. Vanner.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

Q. XXXII. What OTHER RESOLUTIONS are adopted by the Conference in its REPRESENTATIVE SESSION?

A. 1.

1. The Rev. T. Tapley Short is directed to prepare the volume of Agenda for the Conference of 1885. It is further directed that the Agenda be sent to the Lay Representatives as early as possible before the Representative Session begins.

2. The Rev. Charles H. Kelly and Mr. William Vanner are appointed Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, and are directed to prepare and print lists of the persons recommended by the Committee for service on the several Connexional Committees, and to furnish a copy to each member of the Conference on the first day of the Representative Session.

3. Mr. J. Wilcox Edge is appointed Convener of the Scrutineers of votes for the election of Lay Representatives by the Conference.

4. The special thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. J. Ernest Clapham, for his valuable services as the Convener of the Committee on Connexional and Circuit Finance.

5. The special thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. T. Tapley Short and Mr. Thomas C. Squance for their services in connection with the re-organization of Kingswood School.

II.

CONNEXIONAL AND CIRCUIT FINANCE.—(1) Assessment for the Children's and Schools Funds. The Resolutions numbered 1 to 10, pp. 248, 249 of the Minutes of the Conference 1883, having been submitted to the several District Committees are adopted by the Conference.

The Conference also adopts the following resolutions, viz.:—

1. That an assessment for the Children's Fund be made in respect of all Ministers in the Home Work not being Supernumeraries, and all Preachers on Trial whose names are on the stations, and that all children of such Ministers be chargeable to that fund.

2. That in Circuits to which a single man has been appointed for a fifth year and upwards, the assessment in every such case be at the same rate as that for a married Minister.

3. That in future for any additional Minister called out in any District, an additional charge be made upon the District to the amount of the average cost per Minister to the Connexion such amount to be charged either wholly on the Circuit by which the Minister is called out, or in part also on the other Circuits within the District, as may be determined by the District Meeting.

N.B.—During the first four years the assessment shall be half the amount charged for a full married Minister.

4. That in the case of the increase of the number of Ministers in any five-yearly period the amount of the District assessment shall be increased by the amount of the assessment for each additional Minister called out, but there shall be no decrease in the amount of the District assessment during such period.

N.B.—In the case of changes in the boundaries of Districts and Circuits an equivalent change shall be made in the assessment.

5. All balances of the Children's Fund shall be forthwith available for the purposes of the Schools Fund.

(2) Revision of the Assessments. The Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the subject (Min. Conf. 1883, p. 248, par. 4), viz.:—The President and Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-President, one Minister and one Layman from each of the following Departments:—Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Auxiliary Fund, Chapel Fund, Schools Fund, Children's Fund, Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, Education, Theological Institution, Extension of Methodism, Sunday-School Union, and Children's Home; Rev. George Alton, George O. Bate, George Bowden, Benjamin Browne, Joseph Bush, George Dickenson, Charles Garrett, Walford Green, James E. Hargreaves, J. Richard Hargreaves, Hugh P. Hughes, Featherstone Kellett, Alexander M'Aulay, George W. Olver, Marshall Randles, Dr. Rigg, Richard Roberts, T. Tapley Short, John S. Simon, W. Henry Thompson, Anthony Ward, Edward Workman, Theophilus Woolmer, Messrs. Henry John Atkinson, John Beauchamp, John Brewer, Ralph B. Brierley, Henry R. Bowers, T. Percival Bunting, John Cooper, Charles B. Davidson, Thomas Dewhirst, John Dingley, Henry B. Harrison, T. Morgan Harvey, William Holland, William R. Horner, Thomas C.

Hutchinson, J. Wesley Lewis, George Lidgett, Isaac A. Mack, Thomas G. Osborn, W. Willmer Pocock, J. Rivett, Thomas C. Squance, T. Walton Stead, William H. Stephenson, J. Thorpe Taylor, Thomas B. Tombleson, and Rev. J. Ernest Clapham, Convener.

(3) Common Cash. The Conference directs the same Committee to consider the proposal that while separate administration and accounts for each Fund shall be maintained, there shall be a Central Financial Office and Common Cash for all Connexional Funds.

(4) Early Closing of Accounts. The Conference receives the report, viz.:—That arrangements have been made to present to the Conference audited Balance-Sheets of all the Funds, except the following,—the Home Mission and Contingent Fund, and the Children's Fund. That under the peculiar circumstances of these Funds, it does not appear possible that audited Balance-Sheets for the then closing year can be presented to the Conference. The Conference adopts the recommendation of the Committee with respect to these Funds, that the Balance-Sheets for the preceding year be printed in the Agenda-Book, together with interim certified statements of account to date.

METHODISM IN SOUTH WALES.—1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee, and directs that an Abstract of it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. IX.)

2. Irregular Chapel cases in the South Wales District. The Committee report that in several of these cases there have been circumstances of exceptional difficulty and misfortune, and they are glad to learn that encouraging efforts are in progress to reduce the debts reported. At the same time the Committee are of opinion that sufficient prudence has not been shown in the commencement of these schemes, and that, in future, more care should be taken by the South Wales District Meeting, and the Committee of the South Wales Chapel Fund, to secure the actual payment of a larger proportion of promised contributions before building operations are commenced. The Conference adopts this recommendation.

3. On the proposed transfer of certain Circuits from the Bristol to the Swansea District, the Conference resolves to defer the question for the present.

4. The Conference recommends that in all places where both English and Welsh Causes exist, the Superintendent Ministers concerned endeavour, as far as practicable, in their arrangements for Home and Foreign Missionary Meetings, by Monthly United Ministers' Meetings, and in every other way, so to bring the English and Welsh Ministers together as to set forth and declare the essential unity of Methodism, whether worked by English or by Welsh agencies.

5. The following Committee is appointed to watch the interests of Methodism in South Wales, and to report to the next Conference:—The Chairmen of the Bristol, Swansea and South Wales Districts, with two Ministers and three Laymen from the Bristol and the Swansea Districts, and three Ministers and four Laymen from the South Wales District, who shall be elected by the several Financial District Meetings, together with the Rev. Dr. Rigg, Samuel Davies, John W. Greeves, Henry J. Pope, Joseph Hargreaves, Lancelot Railton, and John A. B. Harry, Convener. This Committee shall be the Committee for the administration of the South Wales and Monmouthshire Wesleyan-Methodist Extension Fund.

N.B.—Any information on the working of the above-named Extension Fund may be obtained from the Secretaries of the Fund, Rev. D. Young (Cardiff) or Rev. L. Railton (Bridgend).

English Preaching in North Wales.—The Conference receives and adopts the following recommendations of the Committee:—

1. That it is expedient to establish Society-classes for English-speaking Methodists in connection with those Wesleyan Chapels in the North Wales District where there are persons willing to meet who cannot understand Welsh.

2. That in the Welsh Watering Places, and other localities in the Principality where Englishmen reside in considerable numbers, it is desirable that separate English services should be provided; and that in some neighbourhoods, by the redistribution of ministerial labour or otherwise, additional English Circuits should be formed.

3. That in other places where there is at present Welsh preaching exclusively, and a small but increasing English population, an English Lay Agent might be appointed to work under such superintendence as the Committee on English Preaching in North Wales may recommend.

4. That to carry out these propositions, a Committee constituted on the same principle as the present be appointed from time to time to consider cases as they arise.

The Conference appoints the following Committee, viz.:—Four persons to be elected by the North Wales District, and three by the Liverpool District at the Financial District Meetings in September, with two to be appointed by the Home Mission Committee, together with the Chairmen of the North Wales and South Wales Districts. The Rev. John W. Greeves is Convener.

NECESSITOUS LOCAL PREACHERS.—1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference directs the Trustees of the Necessitous Local Preachers' Fund to pay to the Committee the available income of the current year, to be administered by the Committee in accordance with the Scheme adopted by the Conference.

3. The Conference appoints the following Committee, with power to appoint a small Executive Committee:—Rev. Alexander M'Aulay, George O. Bate, John Jackson (A), George Kenyon, Samuel Lees, David J. Waller, Dr. Williams; Messrs. Henry Avis, John Beauchamp, Abraham J. Brook, Thomas Cole, John Dyson, George Lidgett, George Parkinson, William J. Pile, W. Willmer Pocock, Major Smith, H. Arthur Smith, and Samuel D. Waddy, Q.C., M.P.

Mr. JOHN BEAUCHAMP is appointed Treasurer, and the Rev. JOHN JACKSON (A) Secretary.

N.B.—1. All communications to the Committee and applications for relief are to be sent to the Secretary, the REV. JOHN JACKSON (A), 6, Lanier Villas, Hither-green-lane, Lewisham, S.E.

2. All communications to the Trustees are to be sent to the Rev. SAMUEL LEES, 19, Yew Tree Road, Birmingham.

CUSTODY OF CONNEXIONAL DOCUMENTS.—The Conference receives the Report of the Committee on the Custody of Connexional Documents, and re-appoints that Committee, repeating its instructions of 1882. (See Minutes, 1882, p. 287). The Committee shall consist of the President and Secretary of the Conference, the Rev. Dr. Osborn, Dr. Rigg, Marmaduke C. Osborn, Theophilus Woolmer, David J. Waller, and J. Ernest Clapham, with Messrs. John W. Gabriel, T. Morgan Harvey, William Johnson, and W. Willmer Pocock. Dr. Williams is re-appointed Custodian and Registrar and also Convener of the Committee.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES ACTS.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Wesleyan Society for Abolishing the Regulation of Vice by the State, and renews its solemn protest against the Contagious Diseases Acts, as being iniquitous in principle, and demoralizing in tendency; and earnestly presses for their early and complete repeal.

2. The Conference adopts the Report of the Special Committee appointed to consider whether it is expedient that any specially organized action should be taken by the Conference on the subject of public morality.

3. The undermentioned ministers and gentlemen are appointed a Committee to deal with the question of Social Purity:—The President and Secretary of the Conference,

Rev. Joseph Bush,	Mr. Henry J. Atkinson,
„ Hugh P. Hughes,	„ John Beauchamp,
„ Ebenezer E. Jenkins,	„ J. R. Bedwell,
„ Charles H. Kelly,	„ T. Percival Bunting,
„ George W. Olver,	„ Percy W. Bunting,
„ Dr. Osborn,	„ T. Morgan Harvey,
„ Allen Rees,	„ George Lidgett,
„ Dr. Rigg,	Sir William M'Arthur, M.P.

The Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, the Rev. Allen Rees, and Mr. Percy W. Bunting are the Secretaries.

4. The Committee is empowered to put itself into communication with the several other bodies which pursue the same object in a religious spirit.

5. The same Committee is also authorised to take up and carry on the work of the Wesleyan Society for Abolishing the Regulation of Vice by the State, the Treasurer of which Society is authorized to employ the balance in the hands of the Society after meeting its liabilities. Mr. Percy W. Bunting is appointed the Treasurer.

Œcumenical Methodist Conference.—The Conference is of opinion that the proposed date, namely 1887, is too early for the holding of a second Œcumenical Conference.

Conference Missionary Meeting.—Conference Arrangements' Committees are instructed to make provision for the holding of a meeting on behalf of our Foreign Missions during the Representative Session of each Conference.

III.

The Allan Library.—The Conference, having heard from the Rev. Dr. Rigg of the munificent offer of a gentleman, who did not, at least in the first instance, wish his name to be divulged, to present to the Conference for the use of Wesleyan Ministers a very large and valuable Theological Library, desires to record its high pleasure in receiving the communication, and gratefully and respectfully accepts the generous gift.

The Conference directs that its sincere and respectful acknowledgments be forthwith transmitted to the donor in a letter signed by the President and Secretary of the Conference.

A letter acknowledging this communication having been received from the donor, the Conference directs that it be entered in the Journal and printed in the Minutes of the Conference. The following is the letter:

'REV. AND DEAR SIRS,—

'I am much gratified by your kind letter informing me that the Conference had done me the favour to accept the Collection of books which I had much pleasure in offering to them.

'It will be a satisfaction to me to know that the Collection is now in the best hands, and safely lodged under the ownership of the Conference, and I trust that its members will find much enjoyment in the use of it.

'Allow me also to express my best acknowledgments for the kind way in which the President and the Secretary of the Conference have communicated to me the Resolution of the Conference, and I remain,

'Rev. and Dear Sirs,

'Yours truly and respectfully,

'T. R. ALLAN.

'26th July, 1884.

'To the Rev. the President of the Conference, and the Rev. the Secretary of the Conference.'

The Conference further resolves:—

1. That as soon as possible a body of Trustees of the Library be appointed, consisting of Ministers and Laymen, and the following list was provisionally agreed upon, viz.:

Rev. John S. Banks,
" George O. Bate,
" J. Agar Beet,
" W. Theophilus Davison,
" Richard Green,
" Dr. Greeves,
" Dr. Gregory,
" Ebenezer E. Jenkins,
" Frederic W. Macdonald,
Rev. Dr. Moulton,
" Dr. Osborn,
" Dr. Pope,
" Dr. Rigg,
" G. Stringer Rowe,
" Dr. Stephenson,
" David J. Waller,
" William L. Watkinson,
" Theophilus Woolmer,

Rev. Robert N. Young,
Mr. Henry J. Atkinson,
„ John Beauchamp,
„ James S. Budgett,
„ Thomas Dewhirst,
„ W. P. Griffith,
„ Thomas M. Harvey,
„ Isaac Holden, M.P.,
Mr. Frederick Howard,
„ Alexander M'Arthur, M.P.,
„ William Mewburn,
Dr. Riggall,
Mr. W. Bickford Smith,
„ Thomas C. Squance,
„ William Vanner,
Dr. James Wood.

2. That a Special Committee be appointed to sit during the year, to make such arrangements as may be necessary to carry out the wishes of the donor, and to consider the question of a permanent Committee of Management; and to report to the next Conference.

3. That in the first place all Ministers and Preachers on Trial whose names appear on the printed Minutes shall have right of access to the Library when so established, subject to such regulations as shall hereafter be determined.

4. That persons other than Ministers shall also be admitted to the benefit of the Library under such regulations as shall hereafter be determined.

5. That inasmuch as the expenditure of a very considerable sum of money will of necessity be involved in the transfer and opening of so large a library, as well as its subsequent due care and administration, and possible extension, the Conference sanctions the immediate opening of a subscription list in the present Pastoral Session of the Conference, and further postpones the consideration of the subject until its Representative Session.

The subject of the Library having been resumed during the Representative Session of the Conference, Dr. Rigg informed the Conference that he had, in the meantime, had an interview in London with the donor of the Library, who had, in accordance with the suggestion of the Committee appointed by the Conference, given his consent to the designation of the Library as 'The Allan Library,' after his own name the Conference further resolves:—

6. That the Ministers and Laymen named in the first resolution as a provisional list of Trustees, together with the Rev.

Marmaduke C. Osborn, Charles H. Kelly, and Messrs. Samuel Osborn and S. Rathbone Edge, be the Special Committee referred to in the second resolution foregoing, with power to add to their number; also that the Rev. Marmaduke C. Osborn be the Convener of this Committee, and the Rev. Theophilus Woolmer be for the present the Treasurer of the Library Fund.

METHODISM IN THE CITY OF LONDON.—The Conference receives the Report and re-appoints the following Committee to consider the whole subject of Methodism in the City of London, and the best means of making suitable provision for it, and to report to the next Conference, viz.: The President and Secretary of the Conference, the Rev. John Bond, Thomas Brackenbury, Joseph Bush, John W. Greeves, William Hirst, William Hudson, Ebenezer E. Jenkins, George Kenyon, Alexander M'Aulay, John M'Kenny, Charles H. Kelly, Dr. Rigg, Richard Roberts, Theophilus Woolmer, David J. Waller, Anthony Ward, with Mr. W. J. Almond, Sir William M'Arthur, Messrs. John Beauchamp, John W. Gabriel, James Hargreaves, T. M. Harvey, Robert W. Perks, William W. Pocock, George Hayman, Clarence Smith, Lancelot Smith, Ralph Smith, William Taylor, John Vanner, John Webster, William L. Williams, and James Yeo. The Rev. William Hudson is appointed Convener.

OLDHAM-STREET CHAPEL, MANCHESTER.—1. The Report of the Committee is adopted.

2. The Conference rejoices to hear of the removal of some of the peculiar difficulties that have hindered the progress of this scheme, and repeats its hearty approval of the proposal to erect new and commodious premises on the site of Oldham-Street Chapel, and strongly commends the undertaking to the liberality of our friends generally, and more especially to the active support of Superintendents of Circuits and others in the Manchester and adjoining Districts.

3. The following Committee is re-appointed, with the same powers as last year, viz.:—Rev. Joseph Bush, John Harvard, George W. Olver, Joseph C. Woodcock, with Messrs. Henry J. Atkinson, John Cooper, John Dyson, Isaac Hoyle, and T. Walton Stead. The Rev. Joseph C. Woodcock is appointed Convener.

SPIRITUAL DESTITUTION IN LONDON.—The Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the subject of Spiritual Destitution in London, and to present a scheme for the consideration of the next Conference, viz. :—The Officers of the Home-Mission Fund, the Members of the Home-Mission Sub-Committees of the three London Districts, the Rev. Richard W. Allen, J. Ernest Clapham, Charles H. Kelly, John Hugh Morgan, Anthony Ward, Messrs. John Beauchamp, T. Morgan Harvey, George Lidgett, Sir William McArthur, M.P., Thomas W. Pocock, and Mr. Sheriff Clarence Smith, with power to add to their number Ministers and Laymen in equal proportions, not exceeding twelve in all. The Rev. William J. Brown is the Convener.

The Committee has power to appoint its own officers and to carry out such special Home-Mission Work during the year as may be deemed desirable. It is directed to consider the case of Chapels, situate in the midst of dense and necessitous populations, which may be regarded as special centres for Home-Mission Work, and whether in the case of such Chapels any difficulty may arise from the provisions of the Deeds by which the premises are held, and also whether any special form of Deed is advisable for Mission-Rooms hereafter to be erected under any scheme that may be adopted.

The Conference adopts in principle the suggestion of the Metropolitan Home Mission Sub-Committees, that in order to bring the densely populated and necessitous localities of London more distinctively within the scope of Evangelistic and Home-Mission effort, certain districts, the spiritual needs of which cannot be provided for by the Circuits to which they belong, shall be detached from such Circuits, and constituted special ground for Home-Mission Work, the boundaries of such districts being carefully defined; and in cases where all parties are agreed the Committee is empowered to take immediate action.

OLD CHAPELS IN LARGE TOWNS.—The Conference resolves that inasmuch as there are many old Chapels in large towns which have small and decreasing congregations, owing to the fact that the former seat-holders have removed to suburban districts, and that around some of these Sanctuaries there are dense populations living in vice and indifference, a Committee be appointed to sit during the year to consider the subject and prepare suggestions for a larger Committee, consisting of the members of the preparatory Committee together with the Ministers and Laymen elected to be members of the Representative Session of the next Conference by the following Districts, viz.:—1st London, 2nd London, 3rd London, Bristol, Birmingham and Shrewsbury, Liverpool, Manchester, Bolton, Halifax and Bradford, Leeds, Hull, Sheffield and Newcastle-on-Tyne.

The larger Committee shall meet at Newcastle-on-Tyne, on the Saturday previous to the Meeting of the Representative Session, at 3.30 p.m.

The following is the preparatory Committee, viz.:—The President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Rev. Richard W. Allen, William J. Brown, J. Ernest Clapham, Charles H. Kelly, Alexander M'Aulay, Henry T. Smart, Peter Thompson, Anthony Ward, Messrs. John Beauchamp, John Bee, Henry B. Harrison, T. Morgan Harvey, Edward Hutchinson, J. Wesley Lewis, George Lidgett, Sir William M'Arthur, Thomas W. Pocock, and Mr. Sheriff Clarence Smith.

The Rev. John Hugh Morgan is the Convener of both Committees.

THE MISSIONARY SECRETARIAT.—The Conference appoints a Committee to consider the expediency of reducing the number of the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society, and whether any modification of the work of the Secretaries is advisable. The Committee shall consist of the President of the Conference, the following fifteen ministers and fifteen laymen who are not members of the Missionary Committee:—The Rev. Thomas Allen, George Alton, Richard Hardy, Henry W. Holland, William Hudson, John Samuel Jones, Joseph Posnett, G. Stringer Rowe, James Scott, John S. Simon, William F. Slater, Dr. Stephenson, David J. Waller, Silvester Whitehead, William Williams (A); Messrs. Ralph B. Brierley, T. Percival Bunting, Joseph M. Collingham, Thomas Dewhirst, J. Willcox Edge, John R. Flitch, F. W. Gedye, Thomas B. Holmes, Edward Hutchinson, Isaac Jenks, J. Bailey Lees, James Oddy, Edwin Powell, W. Farrar Smith, and Robert Walker, together with fifteen ministers and fifteen laymen to be appointed by the Missionary Committee.

OFFICES OF GOVERNOR AND HEAD MASTER OF KINGSWOOD SCHOOL.—The following Committee is appointed to consider a Memorial presented to the Conference, suggesting that the offices of Governor and Head-Master of Kingswood School should be united:—The President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-President, the Rev. George O. Bate, George Bowden, J. Ernest Clapham, W. Theophilus Davison, George Fletcher, Marshall Hartley, Dr. Moulton, George W. Olver, Dr. Rigg, G. Stringer Rowe, John S. Simon, James D. Tetley, William J. Tweddle, David J. Waller; Messrs. Henry Avis, Percy W. Bunting, T. Percival Bunting, Henry Edmunds, Henry H. Fowler, F. W. Gedye, William Hunt, George Lidgett, Sir William M'Arthur, John H. Mason, F. C. Maxwell, Robert W. Perks, W. Willmer Pocock, Thomas C. Squance, Sheriff Clarence Smith, T. Walton Stead. Rev. T. Tapley Short, Convener.

RE-ARRANGEMENT OF THE BOUNDARIES OF THE MACCLESFIELD DISTRICT.—The Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the re-arrangement of the Boundaries of the Macclesfield District in relation to the Manchester and other adjacent Districts:—The President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Chairman of the Birmingham and Shrewsbury, Macclesfield, Liverpool and Manchester Districts; four Ministers and four Laymen from each of those Districts, to be elected at the Financial District Meetings in September; with the Revs, George Bowden, John W. Greeves; Messrs. John Dyson, J. Wesley Lewis, J. S. Sutcliffe, J. Thorpe Taylor, and the Rev. Joseph Bush, Convener.

EPWORTH CHAPEL.—It having been reported to the Conference that the sum required for the erection of the proposed Chapel has not yet been raised, the Conference appoints the following Committee to complete the Scheme:—Rev. Charles H. Bishop, John R. Gleave, Richard Green, Henry Hastling, Herbert [illegible]eare, John S. Jones, Joseph Nettleton, James Pratt, Henry J. Pope, Marshall Randles, Thomas Rowson, W. Henry Thompson, George E. [illegible]ung; Messrs. J. J. Blaydes, Ald. Boulton, Thomas Cole, John Dyson, C. R. Farmer, Thomas B. Holmes, J. Laverack, Ald. Lawton, W. O. Quibell, J. H. B. Robinson, John Smith, George Stamp. The Rev. Charles Garrett and Mr. Edward H. Witty are appointed Treasurers, and Mr. A. M. Sharp, Convener.

ACCOUNTS OF CONNEXIONAL FUNDS.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Committee is re-appointed, with instructions to report upon all Funds and Trusts which are under the control of the Conference in its Representative Session, and also to inquire as far as it may deem needful, concerning the conditions and management of any Funds held in Trust for Methodist purposes, to prepare a list of the same, and to report thereon to the Conference. The following is the Committee:—The President of the Conference, the Rev. J. Ernest Clapham, Walford Green, Theophilus Woolmer; with Messrs. Henry J. Atkinson, T. Morgan Harvey, Thomas W. Pocock, and Thomas C. Squance. The Rev. George W. Olver is Convener.

Signed in behalf and by order of the CONFERENCE,

FREDERIC GREEVES, D.D., PRESIDENT.
ROBERT N. YOUNG, SECRETARY.

Burslem, August 8th, 1884.

The PRESIDENT'S address is The Manse, Chiselhurst, Kent, S.E., and the SECRETARY'S, Friary Road, Handsworth, Birmingham.

V.

STANDING ORDERS.

1. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any gentleman elected to attend the May District Meeting in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such District Meeting.

2. Admission of Members.—Mistakes having occasionally arisen respecting the meaning of the Rule of 1797 on the subject of the admission of persons who are on trial as Members of our Society, the Conference deems it necessary to repeat the statement, That it never was intended that the names of all those who are on trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to the person so objected to, at the Quarterly Visitation.

3. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit Town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation.

If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting, as above constituted, the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such Chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connection with the principal Society in the Circuit Town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of Society in the same Circuit.

4. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—Mistakes having arisen on this subject, the Conference deems it proper and necessary to declare, that all the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed.

5. Probationers and the Lord's Supper.—The Conference, having been informed that, in several Circuits, the Preachers on Trial have very rarely an opportunity of receiving the Lord's Supper, resolves that, in compliance with a former injunction on this subject, the Superintendents be required to make the necessary arrangements, in their Circuit-Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this Holy Sacrament.

6. Liverpool Minutes.—The Resolutions adopted by the Conference in the year 1820, and usually called the 'Liverpool Minutes,' besides being read and considered in the Annual Meeting of each District Committee, (as our Standing Regulations require,) shall also be read at the Weekly Meeting of Ministers in each Circuit, next following the September Quarterly Meeting, or instead thereof the Resolutions on the Work of God, and on Pastoral Duties adopted in the years 1835 and 1847; and the Chairmen of Districts are directed to make enquiry concerning the due observance of this regulation.

7. Supply of Vacancies.—Instances having occurred in which Superintendents and other Ministers needing Circuit-supplies on occasion of sickness and various casualties, have applied to the President of the Conference, without first taking counsel with the Chairman of the District; the Conference directs the Brethren to return to the old plan of first communicating with the Chairman in every such case, who is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal enquiry, that a local supply cannot be obtained.

8. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—The Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings, to be held at the principal Chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations.

9. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage the New Members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility. Such recognition might be associated with the administration of the Lord's Supper; or it might be found expedient to recognise New Members at a Society-meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service. The Conference, therefore, directs that, from time to time, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held, as far as practicable, in every Circuit, subject to the discretion of the Superintendent as to the frequency and exact nature of such meetings.

10. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the District Meetings, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.

11. Examination of Pupil-Teachers.—The Conference directs that the Annual Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday in October and on the first Saturday in March; that the questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; that the Examination shall be held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September District Meetings, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and that the written answers shall be forwarded to the General Secretary, and shall be valued by Central Board of Examiners to be elected by the General Committee. The Conference further recommends that, in connection with Central Examinations, Meetings of Teachers and Pupil-Teachers be held under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Educational Secretary.

12. Quarterly Fast-Days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connection, for the following year, are, Fridays, September 26th, and December 26th, 1884, March 27th, and June 26th, 1885.

13. Discipline of Methodism.—The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular enquiries at their Annual Meetings in reference to all the points of Discipline specified in the first Article of the Answer to Q. XXVIII. in the Minutes of 1825.

14. Candidates for Admission on Trial.—(1.) Those Preachers who are recommended for Admission on Trial shall preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the District Committee, (at or about the time of its Annual Meeting in May,) to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendents by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Meeting, and immediately forwarded in writing to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates.

(2.) The Conference directs that arrangements shall be made by the May District Meetings for the hearing of each Candidate by one Minister of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the District Committee, such Minister to forward his Report to the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

15. Preachers on Trial.—Whenever it shall be found to be practicable, Preachers on Trial shall preach during the District Meetings.

16. Candidates for Ordination.—The Conference directs that Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May District Meeting, preach before three Ministers of the District, who shall report to the Meeting.

17. Annual Returns of Members.—The Returns of the Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May District Meetings, to the REV. JOHN W. GREEVES, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

18. Returns of the Military.—The Chairmen of Districts are directed to enquire of the Superintendents of Circuits in which troops are marched to Divine service in our chapels, the average number of non-commissioned officers and men in attendance, distinguishing the number of Members in Society. These returns must include, also, the actual number of soldiers who are declared Wesleyan-Methodists. The returns given are to be recorded in the District Minutes. If there be no military attendance in the District, a note to that effect shall be inserted.

19. Home-Missionary Ministers.—The Conference directs that a special enquiry shall be made at the May District Meetings, whether the Regulations for the employment of Home-Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home-Missionary Ministers are appointed; and that a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference.

20. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home-Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home-Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed:—One-third of the sums received to be paid to the Funds of the Foreign Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one-third to the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund; one-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home-Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent, and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting (See Minutes, 1863 and 1877).

21. Lay-Members of District Committees.—The Chairmen of Districts shall be required to send a circular to the Lay-

Members of the District Committee, requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the Annual District Meeting, specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been specially remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Meeting. A similar circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the Financial District Meeting.

22. Representative to the Stationing Committee.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Committee.

23. Division of Circuits.—Before District Committees consent to the division of any Circuit, enquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust-Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to any debts existing thereon.

24. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the Conference directs that, in future, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall be fully stated in the Minutes of the District-Meeting to which they belong, and that the Secretary of the District shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and that, in such cases, copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned, be coloured, so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust-Deeds of the Circuits. The Conference further directs that these arrangements be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits.

25. Minor District Meetings.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor District Meeting is rendered necessary, such Meeting, except under the Regulation passed by the Conference in 1840, (Minutes, Vol. IX., p. 94,) shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides, the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, who, with the Chairman thereof, shall constitute the Minor District Meeting

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers, to act as members of the Meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them so that the number required by Rule may be made up.

26. District Minutes.—The Chairmen of Districts are required to procure three complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the District Committees, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Meetings shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary. One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; a second shall be reserved for the use of the Chairman and Financial Secretary at the Conference; and a third shall be sent to the REV. DAVID J. WALLER, Wesleyan Training College Westminster, S.W., not later than June 23rd, and delivered by him to the President during the first week of each Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion. The several copies of the last class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

27. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, should be furnished with as much statistical information as possible on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up.

28. Elections to Departmental Offices.—The Conference resolves that in any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and that when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two, or if necessary, the first three names on the list which have the largest number of votes.

29. Committee on Appeals and other Cases.—At each Conference, the President shall nominate, not later than the second day, a Committee of twenty-one members of the Conference, to whom shall be referred, without discussion, all cases requiring further enquiry touching the character of Ministers or Preachers on Trial, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Committees thereupon, or of any notice of charge or appeal relating thereto, or for any reason which the Conference may deem sufficient.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under enquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and the President shall then appoint some other member of the Conference to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special Cases to be decided upon by the Conference may be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee.

30. Lay-Members of Connexional Committees.—In respect to the several Committees of the Connexional Funds, the Conference resolves, that a certain number of Lay Gentlemen, being at least one-sixth of the number of Lay Members of each Departmental Committee, shall annually retire from each Committee by rotation, the same persons being ineligible for immediate re-appointment, except in special cases, and after nomination for such re-appointment by the vote of four-fifths of the Members of the Committee present.

31. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than the 27th day of June in each year, upon a Schedule to be provided by him, complete lists of (1) the arrangements provisionally made for the Stationing of Ministers in his District, (2) the invitations accepted by Ministers in his District to Circuits in other Districts, and (3) all Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made;—from these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, one complete list of all arrangements thus provisionally made, and a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and a copy of these lists shall be sent to each member of the Stationing Committee at least seven days before the meeting of that Committee.

32. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, (as already required by Rule,) complete and print, not later than the 15th day of June in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Session of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, inform every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels, of the time and place of such appointment. And in order that the Plan thus prepared may not be violated, to the disappointment of our friends, and to the great inconvenience of other parties concerned, no Minister who attends the Conference shall be at liberty to make an engagement to preach in any other Circuit, either on the Sabbath, or on any other day, during the period appointed for the meeting of the Conference, at the time for which his name shall be inserted on the Conference Plan.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, your Majesty's most faithful subjects, Ministers of the Gospel in the Connexion established by the late Rev. John Wesley, A.M., now assembled in our annual Conference, beg to approach your Majesty with the expression of our sincere and dutiful condolence on the occasion of the irreparable loss which your Majesty has recently sustained by the decease of His Royal Highness the Duke of Albany.

With all your Majesty's subjects we ever entertained the highest admiration for those rare gifts of mind and taste, which had already approved themselves in many important spheres, and which gave sure promise, had God so willed it, of a wider exercise and usefulness in years to come. Neither have we failed to recognise gratefully those eminent moral qualities for which he was conspicuous, and which made him an example equally admirable and exalted of such things as are lovely and of good report.

It is our most earnest prayer that God may comfort your Majesty under this great sorrow, and ever multiply upon you and upon each member of your Majesty's beloved family the choicest gifts of His mercy.

We beg, at the same time, to offer to your Majesty our most hearty congratulations on the birth of the son of the Duchess of Albany, and to express our ardent hope that he may be a continual joy to his widowed mother, and a solace to your own oft-stricken heart.

We are, may it please your Majesty,

Your most loyal and dutiful subjects,

Signed in the name and on behalf of the Conference,

FREDERIC GREEVES, D.D., President.
ROBERT N. YOUNG, Secretary.

Burslem, July 29th, 1884.

Whitehall, 14th August, 1884.

SIR,—I have had the honour to lay before the Queen the loyal and dutiful address of the Wesleyan-Methodist Conference, Burslem, on the occasion of the death of His Royal Highness Prince Leopold, the Duke of Albany, K.G. And I have the satisfaction to inform you that Her Majesty was pleased to receive the Address very graciously.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

W. V. HARCOURT.

The Secretary to the Wesleyan-Methodist Conference, Burslem.

OF THE

CONFERENCE TO THE METHODIST SOCIETIES.

DEAR BRETHREN,—

We greet you 'in the Lord.' In Him our love to you, as also your love to us, began; in Him it is sustained and sanctified, and in Him it is from time to time renewed. He 'loved us, and gave Himself for us.' He 'loved us, and washed us from our sins in His own blood.' Gratefully acknowledging the happy constraint of the bond which binds you and us alike in allegiance to Him, we greet you as beloved 'in the Lord.'

You will rejoice with us to know that the numbers of those who are in fellowship with Him, and with us, continue to increase. More than 51,000 new members of Society have joined us during the year, and more than 35,000 remain on trial; though, when allowance is made for losses by death and other causes, we record a net increase only of 3,281. That we have thus far been blessed by God through the year is matter of devout gratitude, and over so many souls brought from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, we rejoice as over great spoil. It has been gained in a bloodless victory through the strength of Him who leadeth us in triumph in Christ, and 'maketh manifest' through us 'the savour of His knowledge in every place.' For the increase has not been confined to a few favoured neighbourhoods, nor has it been due to the efforts of a few, but is spread over the whole Connexion, and is a testimony to the devoted service of co-workers in north and south, and east and west. As the Apostle Paul tells us, it is 'the whole body' which is to make 'increase of the body,' and this 'according to the working in due measure of each several part.' We trust 'each several part' has worked in its due measure. We rejoice to recognise the labours of those who have been specially appointed to do the work of an evangelist, and cannot but discern that in many places it has been through their efforts under God that societies have been stirred up to greater earnestness in aggressive efforts, and waverers encouraged to come to decision. But the labours of these faithful men are blessed in proportion to the preparedness of societies to receive and co-operate with them; and where this co-operation is meagre and half-hearted, failure cannot but be expected. No stirring and tending will rekindle a fire where the scanty sparks have been allowed to die out, and no sudden shower of rain will fertilize ground in which good seed has been suffered to perish. Expect abundant blessing in the ordinary means of grace, keep the fire always burning upon the altar, look for a spiritual harvest, not once a year, but all the year round. 'Stir up the gift' that is in you, brethren, that there may be no need of stirring up from without; or, if stimulus from without be found of service, that the results may be effectual and permanent.

For the permanence of the work thus graciously begun we are extremely anxious. Some districts which showed a large increase a year or two ago report a sad falling-off this year. An examination of the numbers for the last few years shows that a startlingly large proportion of those added to us year by year are year by year lost again, so far as our reports are concerned. Some have been taken to a better world. But by far the larger number are reported as having ceased to meet. We by no means assume that they are all lost to the Church of Christ. But when all allowance has been made for loss by emigration from the country and transference to other churches, it is a fact which should cause grave concern that we must add 48,000 new members every year before we can begin to count clear increase. We do not regard this in a spirit of discouragement, for in a large body considerable wear and waste may be expected, while it cannot but be deplored. But we do feel that we are called most carefully to examine into the significance of this diminution, observable in times of net increase as well as decrease, and enquire how by God's help it is to be arrested.

With those who are set apart to be overseers of the flock and to feed the Church of God, the chief responsibility in this matter must rest. A duty devolves upon us as your Pastors which we cannot divest ourselves of, cannot delegate to others. But we would affectionately urge upon you all, labourers together with us, considerations which may be of service in guarding and conserving the work of grace in the hearts of our members. Let us see to it that the foundations of the kingdom of grace are well and securely laid in each individual soul; that the nourishment afforded by good and abundant teaching is freely imparted and heartily received; and further, that the discipline and training provided by our Church, according to the will of God, is systematically and diligently used.

Dear brethren who have lately joined us, young many of you in years, young all of you in the Divine life, search your hearts diligently, and know clearly where you stand. Do you enjoy the clear and happy assurance of God's forgiving love? Have you deeply, earnestly, utterly repented of sin, forsaken it; as far as you know, even in its most subtle and deceptive and engaging forms? Are you trusting wholly in Christ as your Saviour, in His atoning death as the one Sacrifice for sins, and His living presence to give you power over sin? Do you clearly realize these truths in your own experience, though it may be in the midst of many temptations without, and misgivings sometimes within? Your stability in the future depends largely upon your obtaining now a firm footing on the Rock of Ages. Suffer, we beseech you, no uncertainty here; let no vague hopes and desires like tinted mists hide from you the narrow path; no repetition of familiar phrases, no unwillingness to deal searchingly with yourselves lead you to drift you know not whither. Have and keep your hearts right with God. Know that ye are of the truth, and assure your hearts before Him, because 'God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.'

And you, dear brethren, who as Leaders of Classes share with us the charge of the flock, with whom it largely rests to direct and guide those who, in exciting special services, have been moved with a strong desire to flee from the wrath to come, do you be faithful as well as tender in your care of souls. Most kindly, but searchingly, help all to know themselves. Do not be satisfied with general expressions of good desires. Suffer none to be self-deceived, or to grope long in spiritual twilight.

In the Class-meeting, or, if desirable, more privately, see that each one is quite clear as to the way into the kingdom, and that those who have entered by the True Door are walking by 'the same rule,' minding 'the same thing.' Encourage them to work for Christ; but do so discreetly, that they may engage in such work as their youth and comparative ignorance in the Christian life fits them for. An infant must not be set to walk alone too soon, or his limbs may permanently suffer. But the zeal which prompts to active enterprise for a newly-found Saviour needs only careful direction to be a help in stablishing, strengthening, settling in the faith.

For the new life of the spirit, food is above all necessary. We exhort, with St. Peter, all, as 'new-born babes,' to 'long for the spiritual milk which is without guile, that they may grow thereby unto salvation.' If you do not long for it, you do not truly live. If you long for it only a little, your life will be feeble; if intermittently, you will be spiritual invalids, occasionally in health, but with intervals of sickness, in any one of which spiritual death is too likely to overtake you. Be strong, brethren; and that you may be strong, let the word of God abide in you. The letter of the Scriptures should be familiar to you. It ought to be more familiar to us all than it is; the very words of Christ are spirit and life. But the letter of Scripture is to be read over, thought over, prayed over, repeated over and over, in order that its spirit may be ours, that we may be 'filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding.' Be specially careful to observe Christ's own ordinance: 'Do this in remembrance of Me;' and regularly, at the Lord's table, 'feed on Him in your heart by faith with thanksgiving.' It has been said that many of our members are negligent in this important matter; for the Master's sake, brethren, for your own sakes, give no ground for this reproach, nor slight so valuable a means of grace. Consider it a duty to read all you can that will help you to understand better the Book of books. Be on your guard against the insidious spirit of unbelief which animates much of current literature. Read yourselves, and encourage your young people to read, the wholesome literature of our time, of which there is abundance—we would specify the publications of our own Book-Room,—which will build up the character, as well as inform the mind and cultivate the taste. Our habits of thought are formed, often unconsciously, by what we read in leisure moments. Covet earnestly, and cultivate diligently, true spiritual knowledge. The lack of this knowledge is the secret of much instability. Soldiers must fall out of the ranks on the march faint and overdone, if they have not touched food for days. 'Grow in the grace' that you may grow 'in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ'; grow also in His knowledge that you may grow in His grace.

The experience of generations of Methodists has taught the value of the discipline of the Class-meeting in the training of the spiritual life at all its stages; and further, that regularity and attention to details is necessary for the maintenance of a Class in a healthy spiritual state. Details are most important in their place. Nothing will compensate for the absence of a full, strong current of religious life and holy influence in a Class-meeting; but the stream may be allowed to run dry for want of due care of the channel. The perfume of devotion and spiritual service is the main thing; but that it may be conserved, the vessel that contains it must be carefully kept and used. Do not then be unmindful of the regular fulfilment of the routine-work of a Class-meeting, upon the due performance of which so much of the success of a Class depends. If in each Class members are constantly slipping away, and its numbers are only sustained by perpetual additions, the same evil will of course be observed in the total numbers returned to us. We lay it upon our own souls as a solemn duty, to attend to this important part of God's work; we affectionately urge Class-leaders to work together with us, and members to work with their Leaders, that the wasting disease, which even in years of increase impairs the full vigour of our Church, may be arrested in its beginnings.

The work of building up which we have thus specially laid upon us is best begun early. We rejoice to find 41,821 members of Junior Society-classes reported this year; the numbers of young people included in them having steadily increased from the beginning, and being likely still to increase. Here is an opportunity for that thorough teaching in Divine things which is often never acquired, if not acquired early. The knowledge and love of the Bible as the most interesting of books, as well as the only one able to make 'wise unto salvation,' may be acquired in these Classes as it cannot even in the Sunday-school.

The steady progress of our Sunday-schools is matter of great thankfulness. Here increase has been unbroken for many years. The most-cheering fact of all is that during the last year there has been an increase in Church-membership from our Sunday-schools of 1,560 young people—more than 40,000 during the last five years. The increase in the number of elder scholars, also, is pleasing; the proportion of those over fifteen years of age having risen from 18 to 21 per cent. The self-denying labours of Sunday-school teachers are even now earning abundant reward. They need not wait, in the majority of instances, for many years; their 'due season' may be now, if they 'faint not.' That nearly half our Sunday-scholars have given their hearts to God urges us not to be satisfied that the other half should hesitate. A teacher, consecrated to God's service, who maintains a close, loving, personal relation with a class will not find many in it who refuse to follow such leadership. But only strongly magnetized iron can powerfully attract; and to constrain others we must be ourselves mightily constrained by love.

The temporal and spiritual interests of the dense populations of our large towns, more especially of London, have excited much public attention through the year, and the subject has been thus afresh urged upon the Christian Church. Methodism has always cared for the outcasts, in its early history it was almost alone in the work, and it must not fail now. Our Home-Missionary operations are conducted with vigour, so far as the funds at disposal permit; and in some of the spiritually desolate parts of the metropolis the labours of our ministerial and lay evangelists, our Local-preachers and Home-mission bands have been greatly blessed. We have it in consideration whether it be desirable to make special arrangements for the special needs of the vast population of the metropolis, a population annually increasing, and one that taxes the wisdom and resources of the statesman and philanthropist no less than of the Christian Church, to provide adequately for it. God will guide us, if we are willing to enter the great and effectual doors which He, from time to time, opens, though there be 'many adversaries.'

We continue to bespeak your intelligent and generous sympathy on behalf of our Foreign Missions. The holy enthusiasm of former days is needed now as ever. The interior of Africa loudly calls for us. The villages of Southern India and Ceylon are like corn bending and waiting for the sickle. The foundations of educational work in China are to be laid, if possible, this year. Two years ago the South African Conference was constituted, and Representatives from it have been now for the first time received by us. This year a separate West Indian Conference has been established, of which the Rev. George Sargeant has been appointed the first President. Thus the Jubilee year of the abolition of slavery in the British Dominions—a glorious achievement in which Wesleyan Methodism as a Church was privileged to play no unimportant part—will be marked by the establishment of the first West Indian Wesleyan-Methodist Conference, an event which speaks for itself as to the progress of our work in islands which only half a century ago groaned under the curse of slavery. In proportion as parts of the Mission-field are arranged under separate Conferences, we are called on to extend our efforts in the parts that remain. For this nothing more is needed than the sympathies, ever quick and tender towards all that is good, of the Methodist people. Their manifold charities at home will not allow them to be unmindful of these calls from afar. God has opened before us a large room, we are not straitened in Him, nor in our opportunities, let us not be straitened in ourselves. The large hearts of our fathers in this good work, and of the noble men who still are giving money and time and heart's blood in this cause, say to us: 'Now for a recompense in like kind, . . . be ye also enlarged.' Such enlargement is 'twice blessed.'

During the year the Sessions of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of America have been held, and the Revs. R. N. Young and Silvester Whitehead have attended as a Deputation from us to convey fraternal messages of love and good will. Special interest has attached to this Conference as being held in the Centennial Year of American Methodism, and our brethren have witnessed and expressed our share in the joy and thanksgiving natural to such an occasion. We have said by our deputed brethren: 'The Lord hath done great things for you,' and the answer has been returned: 'The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.' A meeting, held in City-Road Chapel in June last, testified to our interest in this centenary of American Methodism, and at the same time reminded us that it is just one hundred years ago since the Deed of Declaration was signed by Mr. Wesley: an instrument which legally assured our property, and made the way plain for us who were 'not a people' to take our place among the peoples—the Evangelical Churches of this country.

And now, brethren, in commending you to God for another year of Christian activity and effort, we cannot too strenuously urge it upon you, that you are witnesses for God in the midst of the world. Testimony is what the world needs; and none but those who enjoy experimental religion can give it. Ours is said to be an age of unbelief; but it is yet more an age of uncertainty and eager enquiry. Many questions are silently being asked, besides those which make themselves keenly, painfully audible. Tens of thousands are watching professed Christians and enquiring of their lives. What do these men know more than we, and is theirs a knowledge firmly held and securely based? What faith and hope have these men more than we; and is it one which will stand the strain of the stern facts of life? What power have these men more than we; and what is the secret by which it is to be gained and kept? It is for you, brethren, for us all, to testify in these matters. The Divine finger points to us: 'Ye are My witnesses, saith the Lord.' It is for us to reply: 'We have seen and do testify.' 'That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us.'

For this a living, active, vigorous religious life is necessary. No hearsays will do. No mere repetition of traditional beliefs, no mere decent and orderly compliance with conventional religious requirements will avail. Nothing but the power of the living God working in you, the voice of the living God speaking through you, will meet the needs of those who are thirsting, not for the common-places of religious phraseology, but for the living God. Reminiscences of what our fathers have told us of the things done in their days, and in the old time before them, should only inspire us to realize that the same present Help is in our midst. Under the 'prophesying' of the Apostolic days, the secrets of the heart were made manifest, and those coming into the gatherings of Christians at Corinth fell down and worshipped, acknowledging that God was among them indeed. The same Spirit is ours. Varying in manifestation and in operations, blowing where He listeth, He moves still in the hearts, among the gatherings of the faithful. It is for us to realize the present Spirit of Christ, and testify of the truths which He teaches, the affections which He inspires, the strength which He imparts. A Church filled with the Spirit is a witness indeed.

The testimony of words is not to be undervalued. From the beginning of Methodist history, in private, in Bands, in Class-meetings, in Love-feasts, in preaching—God has blessed such testimony. Believing with the heart that Jesus is the Lord, confess Him with your mouth: if we were to be silent, the very stones would cry out. But the testimony of words alone is 'as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.' Words must be wedded to deeds. And both alike must spring from the devotion of the heart. Words may deceive, deeds may be formal and mechanical, or spring from unworthy motives. Only that mysterious and complex influence, the image and impress of the man's very self, which we call character, really testifies. This is the Epistle which all can read, though they know not the grammar of the language in which it is written. And a generation, weary of striving for wealth that does not profit, for knowledge that gives little guidance and no hope, a generation, weary of shadows and longing for the light, is asking for testimony which only such Divinely-appointed witnesses can give.

Let us all testify, for it is written in the prophets, and fulfilled in the Christian Church: 'And they shall be all taught of God.' The Christian Church is to be the practical interpreter of the mind of Christ. As the artist is glad to spend hours in copying the work of a master-hand, hid in the corner of some church or gallery where few will seek or study it, in order that the conception of the master, though only in an imperfect copy, may instruct and delight thousands, so are we to be imitators of Christ. We are to show the world as much as we may of what He would have men to be, not in Palestine 1800 years ago, but in England now. And that we should be able to do this it is needful that we should know Him well, and the needs of our time well.

Our boasted 'nineteenth century civilization' is in many respects far from Christian. The making haste to be rich, which is one prominent feature of it, is essentially unchristian,

The kind of knowledge which it makes its special pursuit, though important, is far from the highest. Its tastes and refinements, its pleasures and recreations, are still less brought 'into captivity to the obedience of Christ.' It is for you, in common with all true Christians, to show what is meant by 'a city of God.' Ye are 'fellow-citizens with the saints:' show, then, to a highly-civilized community, what is meant by true citizenship in a Christian commonwealth. Protest against the sins of our nation and century by word and deed. Have no fellowship with darkness, no concord with Belial. Against the eagerness after money, and the comforts money will buy; against the speculation in business, so near to dishonesty, which the eagerness to get money easily engenders; against the habits of self-indulgence which creep unconsciously upon a generation and sap its moral strength; against the 'false measure,' and false word in business, which are alike an abomination to the Lord; against the amusements which enervate and relax the moral tone, when they do not positively corrupt; against slander and evil-speaking under all its disguises; against intemperance,—horrid parent of so many other iniquities; against impurity, open or secret, spoken, or represented, or committed; against all the manifold evils of commercial and social life, which are rife around you, lift up your voice, and from any approach to them turn away your feet. 'Ye that love the Lord, hate evil.' Amidst 'a crooked and perverse' generation, be ye seen 'as lights in the world; holding forth the word of life.'

Labour with faith in God, lose not faith in the capacities of human nature. In the image of God it was at first created, to that image it may be by grace restored, however sadly defaced and marred by sin. Have faith in God's purpose of love to redeem mankind. The masters of faith are lords of the world within, and the world without. He who has faith as a grain of mustard-seed can move mountains. Faith is needed in the Father of all, who loves and rules over all; in the Saviour, who gave Himself as a ransom for all, and now lives and prays on behalf of all; in the Spirit, who with tireless patience works in all, to draw, cleanse, and save all who will hear Him and obey. Faith in such a Triune God must overcome the world. Men of faith the world has always been unable to produce, unable to understand, unable to resist. Believe, and conquer all.

Finally, brethren, pray for us. If you pray, we, though weak, are strong; if your prayers fail us, we, at our strongest, are feeble. We are of your flesh, and of your bone. We claim not to be lords over God's heritage, we seek not to 'have dominion over your faith;' but would be 'helpers of your joy.' Be ye also helpers of our joy, by your fervent, sympathetic, believing prayers on our behalf. A faithful ministry is easy among a praying people. A year of such ministry must be crowned with blessing; and such a year we trust together with you to enjoy. And we, brethren, will thus pray for you in one of the prayers of the Apostle Paul: 'Now may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way unto you; and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you; to the end He may stablish your hearts unblamable in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints.'

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1884

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1884.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,—

Believing in the close and intimate relationship that exists between us, we most gladly avail ourselves of this fresh opportunity of conveying to you our increasing feeling of brotherly love and esteem.

And we are happy to learn, not only from your answer to our address of last year, and the reports of our Representatives, whom you so affectionately received, but by many incidental proofs that you reciprocate those feelings. The knowledge that you thus sympathise with us in our trials, and rejoice with us in our joy, is an encouragement in our work, and an incentive to renewed effort.

It was with more than ordinary pleasure we welcomed among us your honoured President, the Rev. Thomas M'Cullagh, a countryman of our own; one who thus adds another name to the small but illustrious band who, gathered in by us, have been entrusted by you with the highest office in the Church. He came among us as a brother beloved, and has been received as one coming to his own. His calm, mature judgment was conspicuous in the Chair of the Conference, and his official Sermon and Charge to the newly-ordained Ministers were so graciously accompanied by the influence of the Holy Spirit as to prove 'seasons of grace and sweet delight.' The honoured companions of the President have also received from us a most cordial welcome. The visit of the beloved Ex-President, the Rev. Charles Garrett, was anticipated with pleasure, and as usual a full proportion of labours were provided for him. Revs. William Hirst, and David J. Waller came as comparative strangers to the Conference, but cannot do so again, as they have made themselves known and loved by all with whom they came in contact.

We congratulate you on the substantial increase in your membership during the past year, and trust it is but the forerunner of larger ingatherings in the years to come. We too, in the good providence of God, have been granted somewhat of 'the joy of harvest.' During the past year there were added to our Societies two thousand three hundred and ten new members, which, after filling the vacancies occasioned by death and emigration, leave us a net increase of four hundred and eighty.

On many of our Circuits there have been gracious revivals, and the labours of those brethren specially set aside from Circuit for general work have been much owned. But the increased care given to the young, and the regular and effective preaching of the Word in our Circuits, furnish us with the principal grounds of hope for future prosperity. Though in these respects there are many hopeful signs of blessing, we have to regret a large, and, at times we fear, an increasing amount of Sabbath desecration by which the rest of the sacred day is broken, and the minds of many distracted. As directly bearing on the sanctity of the Sabbath, and tending to spiritual and national prosperity, we cease not in our efforts to promote not only the partial but entire closing of public-houses on Sunday, and in this important movement we confidently look for your sympathy and support.

We have this year received into full Connexion eight young men who have been well reported of and cordially recommended by their District Meetings. In committing unto them their great charge we believe they have been inwardly moved by the Holy Ghost to undertake the responsibilities of the Ministry, and trust they shall make full proof of the same. Three candidates have been received on trial, so that in addition to the probationers, we have now thirteen young men eligible for our work. Three brethren have obtained permission to become Supernumeraries, and during the year three other honoured fellow-labourers have passed to their reward. By the death of Dr. Robinson Scott, Methodism in Ireland loses one of its best known and most devoted sons. He was, however, spared to see his efforts in the matter of higher education in connection with Wesley College, Dublin, and the Methodist College, Belfast, crowned with much success. His death also left a vacancy on the Senate of the Royal University, that we expected would be filled by one of our Ministers, but in this we were disappointed, as His Excellency Earl Spencer gave the seat to a Member of another Church.

We have observed your noble efforts on behalf of that department of your work that has long been a 'crown of rejoicing'—the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society, and feel thankful the burden of debt is removed, and that you are now more free to enter those doors which the hand of the Lord has opened for your Missionaries.

We heard with much pleasure from our Representatives not only of the deputation of Nonconforming Ministers that waited on you in the Conference of last year at Hull, to convey fraternal greetings, but also of the visit to your platform of a number of Clergymen of the Established Church. These incidents we regarded as a high testimony to the fidelity with which you have maintained the ideal of our venerated founder: 'The friends of all, the enemies of none.'

We send you this year as our Representatives, the Rev. James Donnelly, Secretary of our Conference, whom we nominate as the Irish member of the Delegation, the Rev. John Woods Ballard, and the Rev. George R. Wedgwood, brethren who possess our confidence, and are fully qualified to inform you of our affairs.

The year has not been to us, as a Church, more than usually eventful. Our Circuits have enjoyed much peace and spiritual prosperity. The sittings of Conference have been marked by some diversity of opinion, but, at the same time, all the proceedings have been characterized by perfect harmony.

In conclusion, we 'commend you to God, and to the Word of His Grace,' and earnestly pray that He may guide all your conversations, as we believe He has directed ours, to the promotion of His glory, and the welfare of the Societies committed to our care

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JAMES DONNELLY, Secretary.

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1884

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1884.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

In the midst of the important and laborious business of our Conference, it has, this year as in years past, brought us refreshing help to receive assurance that the work of Methodism in Ireland is still carried on with all the advantages of good organization, administered with fidelity and unremitting zeal.

The bond of our union with you is so close, that we reckon your welfare and success as an integral part of our own prosperity. We can never forget that some of the most inspiriting records of early Methodism belong to Ireland, and that our fathers reaped some of their richest harvests upon Irish soil; and you will not wonder that, year after year, we look towards your beautiful island, rejoicing to recognise every token of your progress, and longing to see the ancient successes repeated and surpassed.

The difficulties which beset your work at all times are fully appreciated by us. But those difficulties, while they severely tax your patient faith, and withstand your earnest effort, also serve to mark, in our eyes, the magnitude of the trust which is committed to you, and the critical importance of the position which you occupy. The results of the ministry of Methodism in Ireland are not to be measured by any returns which you are able to report. When we rejoice, as we do with hearty gratitude, in the increase in your Societies during the year just closed, we are not slow to note how large losses you have had to fill up, before you could make any advance. Yet those losses were not all loss to the Church of Christ, nor even to Methodism in its wider interests. Though removed from the pastoral care of those who have first gathered them, multitudes have been continually passing forth from under your oversight, to carry with them into other lands the truth which they have learned from you; and there are found to-day, all over the world, faithful champions of Protestantism, trained in the best of all schools, where they were taught to hold fast the gospel in the face of the dominant and unveiled superstitions and errors of Romanism.

In the financial embarrassments which now trouble you, you have our liveliest sympathy; and we trust that the wise measures of administrative economy which you have adopted will result, not only in speedy relief, but in permanent advantage to all your operations.

We should regard with more than uneasiness anything that would tend to weaken the welcome bonds of our union with you; and we trust that the day will never come when want of harmony in counsel shall imperil that loving fellowship in plan and labour, wherein it has long been our delight to move along with you in the service of our Lord.

The presence of your Representatives among us has again caused us unfeigned joy; and while we gave them our best welcome for your sakes, we have loved them for their own, and listened with cordial interest to their words.

The death of the late Dr. Scott has afflicted us as well as you; for his fine qualities, and beautiful Christian character had long been highly prized by us. As long as your admirable system and appliances of higher education exist, he will never be without a noble and fitting monument: the memorial of invaluable services ungrudgingly rendered upon both sides of the sea.

We have gladly received your nomination; and have, from your own number, enrolled in the Legal Conference the Rev. Dr. M'Kee, and the Rev. Thomas C. Maguire.

We thankfully hail the signs of growing quietness and prosperity in Ireland. It is not for us to express any opinion here upon the merits of any political measures. Above all questions of Imperial policy, we have to do with the supreme interests and claims of the Kingdom of God; and we are assured, without doubt or misgiving, that your work is one with those interests, and done in furtherance of those claims. In your success, and in the success of those who labour on your principles, and with your aims, we see the only hope for Ireland's permanent welfare; and we pray, dear brethren, that there may rest upon you that divine grace which will enable you to keep your place, with more and more efficiency, along with those who, in the ministry of the pure Gospel, are applying the one certain cure to your country's ills and sufferings, by conferring upon her the high benefits of the kingdom of heaven.

ADDRESS

OF THE

CONFERENCE OF THE EVANGELICAL METHODIST CHURCH OF FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND

TO THE

BELOVED AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

We have received with deep gratitude the excellent Address which you have sent to us. The words of encouragement and the judicious counsels which it contains have touched our hearts by the cordiality of their tone. They have confirmed us in the certainty which we already felt, that if there exists between us the difference between what is small and weak and what is great and strong; on the other hand, there does not exist between us any of those misunderstandings or antagonisms which sometimes cause divisions between brethren. The fear, expressed at the Hull Conference, by our Representative, Mr. Lelièvre, that there might be on your side some tendency to forsake our old and much-tried work, in order to reserve your sympathy and your sacrifices for new Missions—that fear, we are happy to be assured, was not founded. You wish to see us attain, as soon as possible, financial independence; we desire, as much as yourselves, to reach that position. But you do not think of abandoning a work, which, notwithstanding its weakness, is a necessary one, and has borne excellent fruit.

If any fears on this point had still remained, the visit of the Rev. Ebenezer E. Jenkins, M.A., delegate from the Missionary Committee, would have completely removed them. With the amiable urbanity of a gentleman, and the affectionate sympathy of an experienced brother, he assured us that our work is the object of your constant solicitude; and that if it is still too little known among English Methodists, it is nevertheless not forgotten. He told us, after having seen our work on the spot, and in detail, that it was to be regretted that our English friends were so unacquainted with it, and that he did not doubt, if they possessed more information respecting it, that it would receive increased support.

Mr. Jenkins, accompanied by Mr. Gibson, in his visit to some of our Societies, has had the opportunity of forming his own judgment as to the depth of the work which the revival has wrought in several of our Churches of the south. He has seen the young Christians full of faith, and heard their simple and touching testimonies to the power of the grace of God. A blessed work has gone on throughout the year with great power, and we have reason to hope that it will continue. A certain number of our churches have been quickened by these revivals, and their youth has been renewed; and a salutary impulse has been given to other churches which have not felt to the same extent the reviving influence of the Spirit of God.

Experience has shown us that while efficient organization is necessary to preserve the fruits of a revival, the work of organization is greatly facilitated by the influence of a revival. The Circuit in which the revival broke out with the greatest power, and in which it has produced the most abundant fruit, is the Circuit in which we seem to have had the most success in applying completely the system of Methodist organization. We are conscientiously endeavouring to strengthen where it exists, and to establish everywhere, the regular working of our ecclesiastical mechanism, for we know its close connection with the maintenance of religious life. But we suffer from the scarcity of efficient Class-leaders, and of laymen qualified to take completely in hand the management of our financial affairs. Mr. Jenkins gave us excellent advice as to the best way of recruiting and forming a body of enterprising Class-leaders; his advice we intend to follow. As to the second point, it is more difficult to discover a remedy, inasmuch as it results from the fact, that the spiritual success of our work has hitherto been achieved, almost exclusively, among the least wealthy classes of society. We are, and shall probably long continue to be, what English Methodism was at the commencement,—the church of the poor.

But these 'poor as to the world' often give us proofs of a deeply touching liberality. We have, in our Societies, working men and servant girls who give, for the support of the work of God, a considerable proportion of their modest income. One of the latter class, for instance, contributes twenty francs, that is, sixteen shillings per quarter. The averagesubscriptions of our members would compare advantageously with those given in the majority of English Circuits. One great hindrance to our financial independence arises from the fact of our members being scattered over such extensive districts, that the average number of members under the care of a pastor is not more than eighty.

We have held our Conference this year at Anduze, a town situated at the foot of the Cevennes, those mountains which the piety and the heroism of the Huguenots have rendered so celebrated. Our Conference has been marked by a spirit of joyous and grateful confidence in God. Two important decisions have been taken, which will have a great influence upon the future of our work. We have decided upon the transfer of our Students' Home from Lausanne to Nîmes; and we have also taken the resolution to commence a Mission in Algiers, if God opens our way.

The first of these decisions was dictated by a sense of the duty incumbent upon us, to train up our future Ministers in a moral atmosphere, which should be impregnated with the doctrinal and ecclesiastical principles of Methodism. Our attachment to those views, which it is the special mission of our church to represent in the midst of other religious communities, induced us to place our new establishment in the midst of our southern societies, where our young men will have the best opportunities of seeing our peculiar organization in operation, and where their piety and zeal will be stimulated by the fervour of churches which are often visited by revivals.

For many years we have felt ourselves called to commence a missionary work in the vast French colony of Algiers. This year, we have at last decided upon sending one of our Ministers to examine the situation, and to report upon the best methods of commencing a mission to be prosecuted with success. We are convinced that this enterprise will be popular among our Societies, and that it will contribute to quicken among them a missionary spirit.

In connection with our Conference, we have had the happiness of celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the arrival in France of the Rev. James Hocart, who is now the oldest Minister among us. We felt peculiar pleasure in showing the affectionate esteem in which we hold him, in the vigorous old age, still so abundant in fruit, to which God, in His goodness, has spared him.

We have appointed our beloved and honoured brother, the Rev. J. P. Cook, B.A., to represent us at the Sessions of your Conference.

And we have again chosen the Rev. William Cornforth to be our President for the ensuing year. We respectfully request you to ratify our choice.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOHN WESLEY LELIÈVRE, Secretary.

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1884

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE EVANGELICAL METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1884.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

It has been a great pleasure to us to listen to the encouraging words of your Address, and to the interesting particulars with which your Representative, the Rev. J. P. Cook, B.A., illustrated it. Alike for his own sake and for yours, we heartily welcome him amongst us. We are glad to learn that the visit of the Rev. E. E. Jenkins, M.A., has proved, as we felt sure it would, an encouragement as well as a benefit to you. To us, his description of the promising condition in which he found the work in your country has been most gratifying; and we give thanks to God on your behalf.

Nothing in your Address has pleased us more than the allusions to the 'times of refreshing' which many of your Churches have enjoyed. We join with you in the hope that these quickening impulses will continue to be felt, and will diffuse themselves over the whole country. Your Representative told us of the readiness to hear, which is noticeable throughout your country, and of the interest generally felt in the mission and message of Protestantism. It appears, however, that with you, as with us, this interest is chiefly that of curiosity, and may easily be mistaken. We interpret it as the sign that the Spirit's work of preparing the soil for the seed of the kingdom has reached an advanced stage. For if indifference is a worse foe to success than hostility, the spread of a spirit of curiosity, even though chiefly intellectual and heartless, is to be welcomed as a necessary preliminary to conversions. And we shall not be surprised to hear that, under the influence of the Spirit, the curiosity deepens into earnestness and yearning, and the harvest of your labours becomes more abundant. It is a distinct advantage that the ears of the people have been gained, and the Word may be trusted to produce its wonted effect upon their hearts.

Whilst we congratulate you upon the continuance of the gracious work referred to in your last year's Address, we remind ourselves, as well as you, of the paramount importance of using every means suggested by the experience of the Methodist Church, in order to protect and nourish those whose hearts the Lord has opened. Our beloved President has called our own attention to the necessity of more diligent pastoral service, and it is his wish that, whilst the year is marked by no diminution of evangelical fervour, more anxious effort than ever should be made to conserve new converts and edify the body of Christ. You will need much wisdom in so adapting the organization of Methodism to France, as to preserve its essential characteristics amidst strange conditions. But the two main functions committed to it, as to other Churches, are to seek and to shelter the lost. Neither of these functions should be overlooked, and the claims of neither forgotten in the earnest discharge of the other. A Church, in loyalty to its Head and remembering His words, will not neglect to give each its due position, and to maintain their equal honours. For long it has been a difficulty amongst us, as amongst you, to prevent the annual loss of members, who ceased to meet in Class. We are of opinion that the best, if not the only, remedy consists in greater vigilance over their souls, 'as those who must give an account'; and we would urge upon you the wisdom of the most tender and persistent attention to the duties of the overseers of the flock. To every Church, and perhaps to our own especially, it would be a weakness and an error not to go out into the highways. But the guests, who have already been brought in, have many wants and some claims upon our service, and cannot be neglected without peril. In every church the cry of the herald should be heard in the porch, and the prophet's voice within; and the pleasure of the Lord must be greatest, when neither drowns the other, but the harmony of both is complete. For it is as necessary to steadfastness that the service of the pastor be faithfully done, as it is to growth that the evangelist lift up his voice in the streets.

We observe that you propose to remove your Theological Institution to Nîmes, and to establish a mission in Algiers. The latter proposal, and the motives that have prompted the former, will be fully appreciated here. English Methodism owes much of her aggressive spirit at home to the enthusiasm evoked by her Foreign Missions; and a forward movement on your part will, if strongly supported, greatly stimulate the faith and zeal of your home Churches. A feeble mission in Algiers will prove embarrassing and a disappointment. But a vigorous one will quickly and beneficially react upon the religious life of all your Churches.

We leave the question of the removal of your Institution from Lausanne to Nîmes with entire confidence in your judgment. The former place has of necessity special attractions for us, through its association with the memory of the sainted John Fletcher. But the reasons you plead for the change are of obvious and sufficient force. And we rejoice that you are determined to maintain an attitude of friendly dissent from the doctrines and polity of the National Reformed Church. Any other resolution would make it difficult to defend your existence in France as a separate Church. And since Nîmes also affords better opportunities than Lausanne for the study of Methodism in operation, and brings your young men into closer contact with the more fervent of your Churches, it is evidently a better site for your Institution. The aim in training them is to make them masters and defenders of dogmatic theology, and vigorous and zealous exponents of the Methodist view of personal religion. Any other aim would be wrong in theory, and a cause of much practical difficulty and weakness.

We rejoice cordially with you in the interesting celebration you have just held of the jubilee of the arrival of the Rev. James Hocart as a minister amongst you. His name and saintly character are greatly revered by us, and his eloquent and fervid addresses at our Conferences will be long remembered. We earnestly pray that, in his fruitful old age, he may enjoy richly the promised light at the evening time.

It has grieved us daily to read of the ravages inflicted of late by the cholera in certain parts of your country. We sympathise with you in your perils and additional labours, and continue to pray that it may please Almighty God speedily to stay the pestilence.

We have acceded to your request, and have appointed the Rev. W. Cornforth to be your President for the ensuing year.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

ROBERT N. YOUNG, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH OF SOUTH AFRICA, 1884,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1884.

BELOVED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Again we are assembled in Conference, after the experience of a year, in which our work has been prosecuted under somewhat altered but hopeful conditions, and in which we have been stimulated by the fact that we have entered but so recently on a new era of our history.

The year through which we have passed has been one of great commercial depression throughout the whole area over which our work extends. Drought in agricultural districts, and as a consequence comparative stagnation in commercial activities, together with the unsettled condition of large portions of our native population, have occasioned difficulties in the consolidation and extension of our work. In such circumstances we have felt some misgivings as we have endeavoured to grapple with the financial problems and difficulties with which, as a Church starting on a fresh career of enterprise, we have been called upon to deal. Yet this has not been without its advantage to us. We have thus been led to approach such questions with a care and caution which have been to some extent forced upon us by our position, but which have led us, we trust, to avoid action which more prosperous times might have induced us to take, but which would possibly have entailed upon us in the future burdens which might have proved too great for us to bear.

But, as if to cheer and encourage us in the midst of our anxieties, a large measure of success has attended our efforts, and the preaching of the Word, both to Europeans and natives, has resulted in many conversions to God, and a considerable increase to our Church. For some time past, although our Native Societies were receiving continued additions from heathenism, we were led to mourn that there was not a corresponding growth amongst our European Churches. The children of our colonists seemed in too many instances to be drifting away from the Church of their fathers, and anxiety was often felt lest, whilst our efforts to evangelise the Native races remained unabated, we might to some extent overlook the claims of those of our own race who were in danger of growing into formalism, indifference or scepticism. This has led to prayerful effort for the benefit of our European population; effort sustained by the conviction that the conversion of our Colonial people and their consecration to God and His work must prove a guarantee for the maintenance of missionary zeal, and the pledge of ultimate success in 'the regions beyond.' Our efforts, thanks to the great Head of the Church, have been greatly blessed during the year, especially in some of the oldest centres of Methodism and of Colonial life. The story of the past year has reminded us in many respects of the traditions of the earlier successes won by our fathers. Many of our people, hitherto only nominally attached to us, have been brought under the power of God's converting grace. Not the young only, but the middle-aged, and even the old, have shared in the outpouring of the spirit of God. Thus richly has the promise been fulfilled: 'Upon My servants and upon My handmaids in those days will I pour out My spirit; . . . and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy.'

Amongst the Native Churches, too, we have been permitted to witness such a measure of success as calls for most devout gratitude to God. 1,251 members have been added to our Church, and 9,529 are on trial for membership.

We have thought it right to set apart a District Missionary for special evangelistic work amongst our European population, as we had previously made a similar appointment for the benefit of the Natives. We trust that the wisdom of this appointment will be justified by its spiritual results, and that we shall witness a large ingathering of souls during the coming year.

We have been gratified to find that from amongst our Colonial Churches there is the promise of a succession of men to preach the Word and to carry on the work committed to our care. Five young men have been received at this Conference as preachers on trial. We gratefully recognise the fact that the ranks of our Ministry have been so long recruited from the home Church, as we hope they will be for some time to come; but we are also aware that, ultimately, the power to raise and develop a Ministry from amongst our own Churches, both English and Native, will be one index of our success.

The adverse circumstances of the country have led the Government to look with a considerable degree of apprehension upon the demands which have been made upon it for assistance in the work of Native education, and there is every indication that less financial aid from this source will be given in the future. In these circumstances we shall be compelled to rely more and more upon the loyalty and liberality of our people themselves. This, however burdensome for the time, will, we doubt not, ultimately prove sufficient to meet the claims which this most important department of our work makes upon us.

The adequate theological training of candidates for our Native Ministry is to us a cause of considerable anxiety. We are called upon suddenly to take up a work for which sufficient preparation has not been made in the past. If the Native Churches themselves are to be instructed in the truths of Scripture and the verities of religion, and by this means the conscience is to be awakened and the mind informed, it is necessary that those who teach should themselves have been taught 'what they speak, and whereof they affirm.' At any cost, we feel that this work must be done.

As a contribution to this end you will be glad to know that a translation of Mr. Wesley's standard Sermons into Kafir has been completed, and we are turning our attention to the better provision of Native literature, which the increasing educational advantages of our people will render necessary.

The desire for higher education on the part of our Colonial people continues to increase. The institutions recently established amongst us to meet that desire are prospering, and beginning to bring forth fruit.

We mournfully record the departure from the 'Church below' to the 'Church above' of three honoured brethren, who for various periods have laboured successfully in the work of the Lord amongst us. Their removal admonishes us all, and we determine that what our hands find to do we will do it with our might.

The Sessions of our Conference held in Graham's Town, accompanied as they have been by hallowed retrospects and memories, have been to us seasons of comfort and encouragement. Some of us visited for the first time the scenes of the labours of the devoted men of a former age, apostolic in their zeal and success. We have sought, in all humility, that the mantle of our fathers may fall upon us, and our rejoicing is that the God of our fathers is still our God.

We thank you for acceding to our request and appointing the Rev. John Walton, M.A., to be our President. We think it unnecessary to say how highly we esteem him, and how greatly his presence amongst us has contributed to the effective administration of our affairs, and to the development of our work in its various departments.

Two of our Brethren—the Revs. William Tyson and Henry S. Barton—leave us, not only with our most affectionate wishes, but with our fullest confidence and esteem. We have requested them to bear to you our filial and fraternal greetings, and to convey to you, as opportunity may serve, the assurance of our unabated attachment and unswerving loyalty. We are praying that we may be enabled to institute and perpetuate a Connexional Methodism in this far-off land, which shall not be unworthy of the memories of England and home.

We gratefully appreciate the aid which you continue to afford us through your Missionary Committee, and the generous and hearty interest which the Ladies' Committee have ever manifested in our work.

We have nominated as our President for next year the Rev. Richard Ridgill, who for many years has rendered important services to South African Methodism, and who, in our judgment, is eminently qualified for the duties of this office. We trust that you will be pleased to approve of our nomination and appoint him our President.

The record of your own successes has cheered and stimulated us; and whilst we rejoice with you, we devoutly pray that the God of our fathers may make you a thousand times as many as ye are. For ourselves, we shall return to our various fields of labour with greater dependence on the abiding words of our common Master: 'Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature? 'Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.'

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

ROBERT LAMPLOUGH, Secretary.

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1884

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH OF SOUTH AFRICA OF 1884.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

It has given us much pleasure to receive the Address of your second Conference, and to hear of the spirit in which you have undertaken the duties of the new position on which you so recently entered. You have been enabled, by the grace of God, to rise to the demands of that position, and we greatly rejoice in view of the success with which you have been favoured, and of the confidence with which you look into the future.

We thank God for the care and the caution with which you have met the difficulties that have arisen through wide-spread commercial depression, and by reason of the migratory condition of some of the native tribes. Though you complain of the difficulties, you are manifestly receiving in the right spirit the discipline to which you have been providentially appointed. The consolidation of your work may be retarded for a time, but as your organization is prudently extended you will overcome the obstacles which now exist, and will then be in a position to reap the fruit of your present care.

It has given us great joy to hear of the signs which have cheered you in your work amidst many anxieties. Your prayers have been heard, your faith has been honoured, and your labour has had a reward, in the spiritual quickening of people of various classes. With you, as in all other places, this is the special work of Methodism. You have successfully laboured among the heathen, and have brought many of them 'from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God.' While we deeply rejoice in this, we cannot overlook the missionary value of the conversion of European colonists and their devotion to the work of God. We are sensible of the importance of securing the cordial attachment of the children of colonists, and especially of those who have received their training in Methodism; and we trust that, through the blessing of God on prompt and prudent measures, you will have the joy of keeping the young in the Church of their fathers, and of leading them to devote themselves fully to God. We recognise how sorely 'formalism, indifference, or scepticism,' when seen among European colonists, must hinder your work among the native tribes, and we therefore glorify God because power has been given to the ministers of His Word amidst those who are of our own race.

We are cheered by your recognition of the claims of the native work; and it is to us an occasion of devout thanksgiving to God that in the native Churches you have had the joy of witnessing an encouraging amount of success. We regard this as a most hopeful sign for the Methodism of South Africa, and it would cause deep regret if this sign should at any time disappear. We are, however, confident that, by close attention to the details of pastoral duty, and by adequate care for the education of the children of the people, you will secure a continuance of the prosperity by which you have hitherto been encouraged.

In your setting apart of a District Missionary for special evangelistic work among the European population, we see an appropriate provision for the colonists and a prudent adaptation of agency to the circumstances and the needs of the time; and we rejoice in this as another evidence of your zeal in the cause of God. We trust the appointment will be justified by rich spiritual results.

In the fact that this year you have received five young men as preachers on trial, we see great promise for the work committed to your care, as well as a sure evidence of success. This fact shows the vitality of the Churches, and is a prophecy of ultimate triumph. In proportion as you are able to provide an indigenous Ministry from among your own Churches, both European and Native, men who might otherwise be required for your work will be saved for other spheres in which they are greatly needed. We therefore rejoice with you, because there is the promise of a succession of faithful men, who shall, by preaching the Word and ministering in the Churches, carry forward the great work in which you are engaged.

We comprehend the results of those 'adverse circumstances of the country,' which have led the Government to look with 'apprehension on the demands made upon it' on behalf of native education; but while we sympathise with you on account of the increase of burdens which were already heavy, it gives us great pleasure to observe how correct is your estimate of your own position and duty in this matter; and we trust not only that the loyalty and the liberality of your people will bear the strain which may be put upon them in these new circumstances, but also that the ultimate issue will be a great extension of this department of your work.

In respect of the necessity for preparing native ministers for their work, we are in full agreement with yourselves, knowing that provision must be made for the adequate education of native candidates for the Ministry; and it gives us joy to know that the Missionary Society has strong sympathy with you in what you have designed in this behalf, and that the sympathy has been expressed in the most practical manner. We trust that your efforts will receive an abundant blessing from the Great Head of the Church, whose prerogative it is to choose, to call, and to qualify the ministers of the Gospel, and whose favour has been granted to the schools of the prophets which we have been permitted to establish.

We rejoice also that, labouring among people, as you say, 'of many tongues,' you are turning your thoughts to measures for that better supply of native literature which the increasing educational advantages of your people are rendering necessary; and we congratulate you on the completion of a Kafir translation of Mr. Wesley's Sermons, as well as on the continued prosperity of the Institutions which have recently been established among you in order to meet the desire for higher education on the part of your colonial people.

We mourn with you the loss of esteemed brethren and fellow labourers in the vineyard of the Lord. Your bereavement commands our sympathy, while we give glory to God for the blessing which rested on the labours of your late brethren Davis, Bailie, and Rose. They had the grace of the blameless life; they were enabled to live laborious days; and they had the joy of seeing success attend their evangelistic efforts. Let us be 'followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises'; and let us 'consider the end of their conversation.'

In the prayer that you may be enabled to establish and perpetuate a Connexional Methodism in the regions over which your jurisdiction extends, we very heartily join; for we are convinced that no better service can be done to those whose good you seek. To develop an organization which will place the ordinances of religion within the reach of all the population must be a great and arduous work; but by the blessing which God has promised to give with such efforts as you have already seen, even that glorious consummation can be ultimately attained.

Your honoured Representatives, the Rev. William Tyson and the Rev. Henry S. Barton, have cheered us by their presence in the Conference, and have edified us by their testimony, which told us of a great work of God. They brought to us an expression of your affection, which we cordially reciprocate in the name of the Lord; for we are one in Him, through 'the dear uniting love that will not let us part.'

It gives us much pleasure to accept your nomination and to appoint the Rev. Richard Ridgill the President of your next Conference. We are sure he is entitled to the position which you have asked on his behalf; and we trust that he will have the joy of presiding over a Conference cheered by great prosperity, and baptised with the spirit of zeal for the glory of the Lord.

We rejoice with you in the work which, by the blessing of God, the Rev. John Walton, M.A. has been enabled to accomplish among you by the part which he has taken in the administration of your affairs, and in the development of your great enterprise in its various departments.

We humbly rejoice also that the Lord has, of his mercy, granted us prosperity during another year. A net increase of 3,281 members in our Societies has rewarded the labours of His servants. We look for greater things, and are seeking to give ourselves to our work with more earnest prayer, with stronger faith, and with a deeper yearning for the salvation of men. We thank God for the peace which has reigned in our Churches during the year, for the measure of success which we have been permitted to record, and for the blessing which has rested on our assembly; and we rejoice in hope of the final victory which has been promised to them that obey the Gospel.

We commend you to God, praying that His grace may abound towards you in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, that through you His 'way may be known upon earth,' and that you may at length be 'presented faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy.'

Signed on behalf, and by the order of the Conference,

ROBERT N. YOUNG, Secretary.

Burslem, August 1st, 1884.

ADDRESS OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1883

TO THE

GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

IN THE

UNITED STATES, 1884.

REVEREND AND DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

We rejoice to be permitted once more to greet you in the Lord, and to convey to you, both by letter and by the Representatives whom we have appointed to visit you, the assurance of our undiminished affection and esteem, and of our deep interest in all that concerns your welfare.

Your fraternal Address renewed in us the pleasure we have received on like occasions before. We are cheered and strengthened by your expressions of sympathy and goodwill and of loyalty to our common calling; and we share the joy of that prosperity which it has pleased the Lord to grant you, both at home and abroad.

We cannot look upon the Addresses and Deputations that have passed between us for so many years as mere formalities. They are the expression of a kinship and a spiritual unity, both real and precious, which, at the same time, they tend to strengthen and develop. We particularly value the personal intercourse we have had with many of your most honoured Ministers. The memory of those distinguished servants of Christ and His Church whom we have from time to time welcomed for their own sake and for yours (some of whom are fallen asleep, while others are yet with you) will long be cherished among us; and we are glad to know that those whom we have sent to represent us among you have been received and are remembered with similar feelings.

We trust that this will ever continue to be the case. As our Representatives to your next General Conference we have appointed the Rev. Robert Newton Young, Secretary of our Conference, and Classical Tutor of the Birmingham Theological College, and the Rev. William F. Moulton, D.D., Principal of the Leys School, Cambridge, brethren greatly beloved and honoured; and each of whom, in addition to his own personal claims, has a strong hereditary claim to our affectionate regard.

Perhaps the most striking event in our history during the past four years, as in the history of all the Methodist Churches, was the Œcumenical Methodist Conference, held in City Road Chapel in September 1881. We felt it to be a matter for devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, that the arrangements for that great gathering were brought to a successful issue, and that the Representatives of Methodist organizations throughout the world came together in brotherly love and unity, and took counsel one of another in the sanctuary that John Wesley built, and to which his scattered children look as their ancient and common home.

We will not attempt to estimate the influence of that Conference upon the various branches of Methodism, and upon the Christian Church generally; but we thankfully record our conviction that in the quickened gratitude and increasing affection of the whole Methodist family, and in the stimulus given to the zeal and enterprise of many kindred Churches, the first Œcumenical Methodist Conference had the tokens of God's approval, and has given a favourable omen for the days to come. Though it is not possible to forecast the results of future Conferences held on your side of the Atlantic, or on ours, or in that southern hemisphere where God has given to Methodism some of her most fruitful fields, we cannot doubt that they will contribute, if not to the organic union of the several bodies of Methodists, to the true unity of the Church, and to the increased efficiency of the means and methods employed in the service of the Lord.

We observe with pleasure and wonder that in almost every department of Christian labour your statistics show your agencies multiplied, your operations extended, and your efforts crowned with abundant blessing. Yours is indeed a day of great opportunities and vast responsibilities, and it is our earnest prayer that the promise so often fulfilled to the Church of God, 'As thy days so shall thy strength be,' may have ample and glorious fulfilment in all your future, as in your past history.

Our field of labour, and the conditions of our work in this country, differ so widely from yours that direct comparisons are impossible. But you will rejoice to learn that the past four years have been with us years of untroubled peace within our own borders, and of great activity in all our departments. In connection with the preaching of the Gospel, our first and paramount duty, we have seen and felt much of the power of the Lord. Evangelical zeal has been at once quickened and disciplined. We have sought to reach the various classes of the population by special and appropriate methods. A spirit of revival has moved through our Societies; the life of believers has been deepened and purified; and multitudes have been brought to a saving knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The total number of members in Great Britain reported to this Conference is 407,085, showing an increase of more than 30,000 in the last four years. In our Mission-work we have had much encouragement and success also, of which the most decisive proof is the very recent formation of a distinct and additional Conference in South Africa, with more than twenty thousand members under its care. On the whole we trust it may be said that our people were never more thoroughly in sympathy with every aspect of Christian Missionary work, or more deeply convinced that the resources of the Gospel are adequate to all the requirements of man and of society.

It has long been our desire to afford some preparatory instruction in Theology and Literature to all whom we receive as candidates for the Ministry. And we are glad to say that, since we last addressed you, we have been able to make provision for this, by the opening of a fourth Branch of our Theological Institution, in the neighbourhood of Birmingham, which has been completed without adding anything to our pecuniary burdens.

Another marked and gratifying feature in our history is the increased number of children under instruction in our Schools. In the Sunday-schools alone the number reported last year had risen to 841,951, showing an increase for the year of more than 12,000; while there is a steady and growing purpose to improve both the quality and the methods of instruction.

On some questions of public morality too, we are glad to believe that the influence of Christian principles and example is growing and will still further increase. By the conjoined efforts of our own and other Christian people, legislation, which we regard as most objectionable and in the highest degree perilous to morality, has received a decided check, and the testimony lifted up in so many forms against drunkenness has made itself felt everywhere; not merely in the modification of the social habits of the community, but in various legislative restrictions which are likely to be still further extended before long.

We have heard that you have it in contemplation to commemorate in some formal manner the great event by which a hundred years ago your Church organization was completed; and we heartily wish that the celebration may prove as serviceable to you as a similar event was to us in the year 1839. We did of a truth find it good to recount the gifts of God, and to give practical expression to our gratitude. Our 'house was' indeed 'filled with the odour of the ointment' at that time 'poured forth,' and the grateful fragrance is not even yet departed.

And now, dear Fathers and Brethren, we 'commend you to God, and to the word of His grace.' One of your own selves powerfully reminded us in the late Œcumenical gathering that the Methodist Revival which gave birth to us both, began in the loving and careful study of that blessed Word. By the same means, we may well hope and believe that the Revival will be perpetuated and extended. May the Word of Christ dwell in us richly! May we hold it fast in its integrity, and hold it forth with all diligence, until it shall have accomplished the thing whereto He sent it, and the triumph of our Master shall be complete.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

THOMAS M'CULLAGH, President,
ROBERT N. YOUNG, Secretary.

METROPOLITAN CHAPEL BUILDING FUND.

I.—Report.

The Committee present the following Summary:—

1. Chapel opened, Welsh, City Road. Chapel commenced, Sutton, the first of the smaller Chapels the Committee has promised to aid.

2.—Sites are held at Agincourt Road, Amhurst Park, Denmark Park, Forest Hill, Hornsey, Walham Green, West Green, and Catford Bridge.

The acquisition of sites has been authorised also at Norbiton in the Kingston Circuit; at Charlton, in the Woolwich Circuit; at Wimbledon, in the Wandsworth Circuit; and at Fernhead Road, in the Sutherland-Gardens Circuit.

Beginning as the Fund now does a new epoch, the following retrospect may be presented:—

1. This Fund was commenced in 1861, and has already aided in the erection of sixty-five large Chapels in London, seating, when completed, not fewer than 65,000 persons. It has also aided in the purchase of nine sites for Chapels yet to be built.

2. The whole of these Chapels, with their connected School-Rooms, Lecture Halls, Class-Rooms, and other accommodation, when completed, will have cost above £600,000.

3. Towards these Chapels the Fund has contributed, and promised, not less than £170,000.

4. Within these Chapels not fewer than 60,000 persons will hear the Gospel every Sunday.

The Committee further report that a new movement has been initiated, Sir William M'Arthur having offered to give £10,000 at the rate of £2,000 per annum for five years, on condition that other Metropolitan Methodists would provide £40,000 at the rate of £8,000 a year, and with the hope that the provinces would provide a similar sum. Mr. Alexander M'Arthur has offered £5,000, and others upwards of £10,000 more. These leading London Methodists know what London requires. They are no more in need of this expenditure for their personal religious welfare than any of their brethren in the provinces. London is so vast that residents in Kensington and Brixton have little more interest in Bethnal Green and Haverstock Hill than have the men of Yorkshire and Lancashire. But this city is the metropolis of the British Empire. The tide of life that circulates through it affects the moral health or sickness not only of India and Canada, and the Cape and Australia, but of almost every town and village in the United Kingdom. If any place under heaven should be made truly Christian, London is that place. No other city has ever so influenced the world for its weal or woe. It is the heart of all human life and activity, and its moral condition is felt, not only wherever the British flag floats, but throughout all civilization and the world.

The proposed new Fund of £50,000 is but the nucleus round which Metropolitan gifts must gather. To the provinces also the Committee would appeal, hoping they will again rally to the aid of their London brethren.

II.—Finances.

(A) Income.—The income of the year has been as under:—(1.) Ordinary Metropolitan Contributions, £1,488 12*s.* 7*d.* (2.) Special Provincial Fund, £1,740 10*s.* (3.) Repaid Loans, £1,639. Altogether, Special Contributions, with balances and with interest on deposits, the Income of the Fund has been £9,602 14*s.* 9*d.*

(B.) Expenditure.—The Grants and Loans paid have amounted to £2,860. A very much larger amount would have been paid to claimant Chapels had the Executors of the late Sir Francis Lycett been in a position to pay over to the Committee the proportion of his gift due to the Fund.

The entire expenditure leaves a balance of £2,149 15*s.* 1*d.* in the City Bank on the Grants' account, with about £8,000 in other investments; but the claims already allowed and impending will demand a far larger amount than this.

APPENDIX III.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT

THE CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

THE work of the year has been quietly and steadily prosecuted. The great moral ends for which this work exists are being accomplished in an encouraging degree. A real work of rescue and salvation is being effected on a very considerable scale.

The Princess Alice Orphanage has been occupied by a small group of children since December last. On behalf of this Branch, including interest upon the Thanksgiving Fund Grant of £19,000, a total of £20,404 13*s.* 8*d.* has been received, and the Expenditure has amounted to £9,835 2*s.* 4*d.* The amount of £10,565, 11*s.* 4*d.* is either invested or standing to the account of the General Treasurers, bearing interest. Even on its present limited scale the Princess Alice Branch will involve an added charge of several hundreds a year; and the Committee feel that the extension of this part of the work can only be undertaken as an increase of Annual Income may justify it.

The Subscriptions and Donations for the year show an increase of £510 18*s.* 9*d.* But this is entirely owing to the receipt of a number of congregational collections made generally either at the Watch-night service or on Christmas-day, and which amounted to £603 14*s.* 2*d.* Very special thanks are presented to those ministers and other friends who interested themselves to secure for us these collections. It is believed that the experiment thus made may be repeated with still greater success, and it is hoped that our friends in very many parts of the country will choose to connect with these interesting services of the closing year some offering in behalf of the children whose needs are always great, though they appeal with a peculiar force to Christian pity and regard at that season.

A sum of £599 15*s.* 10*d.* has been received from the Colonial Birthday Society. A balance of £362 5*s.* 5*d.* is also brought to account this year, being donations promised during Dr. Stephenson's visit to the Colonies, but not received until after the closing of last year's Report.

On the other side, the Ordinary Income exceeds the Ordinary Expenditure by £587 10*s.* 9*d.* But the Extraordinary Expenditure has demanded all this, together with the special items of Extraordinary Income, and has left us with an increase of debt amounting to £1,090 19*s.* 4*d.* It should be remembered, however, that this includes the sum of £600 paid for a house in connection with the London Branch.

It should be further remembered that the charge for interest, has amounted to £478 2*s.* 7*d.*, a charge which would disappear at once if the debt were paid. These and other charges account for the increase of the debt, which amounts to £9,262 2*s.* 7*d.* Our friends are again reminded that this debt has not arisen from the annual Ordinary Expenditure being allowed to outrun the Ordinary Income, but from the fact that we have never had a large and competent Foundation-Fund, but have been compelled to acquire, enlarge, and adapt the several properties, by means of spasmodic efforts.

An effort is in progress for the removal of the debt, towards which promises have been received amounting to £4,900.

The children resident in the Homes and Orphanage on March 31st, 1884, were—In London, 255; at Edgworth, 163; at Milton, 169; at Ramsey, 36; at Birmingham, 45; in Canada, 20. Total, 688.

In addition to these, about 400 young people, formerly inmates, are receiving systematic supervision during their earlier years in situations. And in the Children's Mission, in London, about 500 are attending religious services, and are otherwise benefited.

During the year eighty-two have been placed in situations at home or abroad, and six children have died in the several Branches of the Home.

APPENDIX V.

ABSTRACT OF REPORT UPON THE EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

PRESENTED TO THE CONFERENCE, 1884.

THE Examination was held, as directed by the Conference in 1883, on Wednesday, April 2nd, and Thursday, April 3rd, 1884; and also the further examination contingently prescribed by the Conference (Minutes Conf. 1883, 10, pp. 173, 174).

A supplementary examination, provided for by the Resolution of the Conference 15 (Minutes, 1883, p. 174), was duly held. It was attended by four probationers in the third year, and by one in the second year.

Of the entire number of probationers, only three were absent from examination. All others attended either the ordinary or the supplementary examination. Two absentees were recommended for exemption by the Second London District Meeting, and one probationer was medically advised not to present himself for examination.

The Conference of 1882 resolved—that 'Every Preacher on Trial shall present for Examination as many as two books (or other prescribed portions) of Scripture, either in the original language or in English; and that in every case in which a preacher on trial obtains less than one-third of the full number of marks for a paper on any portion of Scripture, he shall be re-examined in the same subject in the month of June following, and the results of both Examinations shall be specially reported to the Conference.' The General Secretaries therefore report respecting one probationer of the fourth year, and two of the third year.

Two probationers of the third year did not present papers in Hebrew who had not been excused from examination in that subject by their Institution Tutors.

The general result of the Examination of the probationers of each year was as follows:—

First Year.—2 probationers were examined: who wrote 8 papers, the valuation marks of which were as follows:—i, 4; ii+, 2; ii, 1; iii+, 1. Both were placed in the Honours list.

Second Year.—13 probationers were examined: who wrote 64 papers, the valuation marks of which were as follows:—i, 2; ii+, 8; ii+, 21; iii, 15; iii, 10; iv+, 4; iv, 4. One probationer obtained Honours.

Third Year.—38 probationers were examined: who wrote 176 papers, the valuation marks were:—i+, 2; i, 21; ii+, 33; ii, 42; iii+, 38; iii, 25; iv+, 9; iv, 5. Failure, 1. Twelve probationers were placed in the Honours list.

Fourth Year.—42 probationers were examined: who wrote 203 papers, the valuation marks of which were as follows:—i+, 4; i, 15; ii+, 18; ii, 33; iii+, 46; iii, 45; iv+, 27; iv, 15. Nine probationers were placed in the Honours list.

Fourth Year, 1883.—3+, 18%; above 3+, 38%; below 3+, 43%. 1884.—3+, 22%; above 3+, 34%; below 3+, 42%.

It will be seen that the passes of the second year were better in 1884 than in 1883, so were those of the third year; but that the passes of the fourth year in 1884 were rather inferior to those of 1883.

APPENDIX VI.

LAY REPRESENTATION IN THE CONFERENCE.

THE following are the Resolutions of the Conference of 1877 on the subject of Lay Representation :—

I. The Conference, when considering such matters as are hereinafter declared to be within the province of Ministers and Laymen acting conjointly, shall consist of the President of the Conference, and of 240 Ministers and 240 Laymen.

(i.) The Ministerial Members of the Conference when the Lay Representatives are present shall be, in addition to the President and all other Members of the Legal Conference for the time being who shall have declared at the May Meeting of the District Committee their intention to attend the Conference :—

(a) Any Assistant Secretary of the Conference, not being a member of the Legal Conference.

(b) All Chairmen of Districts in Great Britain, not being members of the Legal Conference.

(c) Six Ministers in Full Connexion, stationed in Foreign Districts, who may be in England at the time of the sitting of the Conference. The Conference when consisting of Ministers only shall determine in what manner such Ministers shall be chosen; or if there be not six such Ministers in England at the time of the sittings of the Conference, in what manner their places shall be supplied.

(d) If, in any year, any Department would not, in the judgment of the Conference, be adequately represented by Members of the Legal Conference, provision shall be made for the Ministerial Representation of such Department by the preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers only.

(e) The remaining Ministerial Members of the Conference, when composed of Ministers and Laymen, shall be elected at the Annual Meetings in May of the District Committees in Great Britain, as follows :—The Ministerial Members of each District Committee shall elect from their own number so many Ministers as, by the allocation of the Conference preceding, are entitled to attend the ensuing Conference. From the Ministers so elected, the Ministerial Members of each District Committee shall elect by vote, taken by ballot after nomination, so many Ministers as were allocated by the preceding Conference to represent such District in the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen.

N.B.—The newly-elected Members of the Legal Conference in each year shall be Members of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen.

(ii.) No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected annually by the Conference or by the May Meeting of the District Committee, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election by the Conference or nomination in the District Committee, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Committee. Any Layman nominated in a District Committee must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District.

(a) One-eighth of the Lay Representatives shall be elected annually by the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen; but in the case of the first Conference to be held after the adoption of this Scheme, by the preceding Conference. This number shall in all cases include the Lay Treasurers of the following General Connexional Funds—namely, the Foreign Missions Fund, the Schools' Fund, the Chapel Fund, the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, the Children's Fund, the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, the Auxiliary Fund; the Theological Institution Fund, the Education Fund, and the Fund for the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain, for the time being. One-third of the remaining number elected in the first instance by the Conference shall retire at the end of the first year; one-third at the end of the second year; and one-third at the end of the third year. This arrangement for retirement in rotation shall be continued from year to year, and the Lay Representatives so retiring shall not be immediately eligible for re-election by the Conference.

(b) For the present, the election of the remaining Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Meetings of the District Committees; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. The Circuit Stewards of each Circuit shall be called upon at the March Quarterly Meeting to declare their ability and willingness to attend the ensuing Annual Meeting of the District Committee in May, or the contrary. If they, or either of them, shall declare inability or unwillingness to attend the said District Committee, the Quarterly Meeting shall have the right of electing by and from its own members, and by open vote, a Representative or Representatives to supply the vacancy or vacancies so created.

(c) The number of Laymen to be elected in each District shall be determined by each preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers and Laymen; but, in the case of the first Conference to be held after the adoption of this Scheme, by the preceding Conference.

II. The business to be transacted by the Conference when consisting of Ministers only shall be completed before that which is to be transacted by Ministers and Laymen conjointly is entered upon.

III. The deliberations of the Conference, when consisting of Ministers and Laymen, shall be confined to the duly-appointed Members of that Conference; but any Minister permitted by the District Committee to attend the Conference when composed of Ministers only, may be present during the Sessions of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen; and the Lay Members of Connexional Committees may be present during the proceedings of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen. Seats for the purpose shall be reserved for Ministers and Laymen.

The admission of any other persons shall be determined and arranged according to circumstances, at the discretion of the Conference.

IV. The following subjects shall remain within the exclusive province of the Conference when consisting of Ministers only, viz:—

(i.) The formal constitution of the Conference: Filling up of vacancies in the Legal Conference: Election of the President and Secretary: And the appointment of other Officers of the Conference.

(ii.) Ministerial Lists: Admission and Continuance of Preachers on Trial: Arrangements for the Examination of Candidates and of Preachers on Trial: Admission into Full Connexion, and Ordination.
(iii.) All Questions affecting Ministerial Character and Ability, and of Discipline arising thereupon, or in any wise relating thereto.
(iv.) All Final Appeals in matters of Discipline relating either to Ministers or Members.
(v.) Ministers becoming Supernumeraries; Supernumeraries returning to the Work.
(vi.) Obituaries.
(vii.) Stations: and all Appointments of Ministers.
(viii.) Pastoral consideration of the Number and State of the Societies, and Pastoral Address.
(ix.) Pastoral Reports: Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove School, Clapton and Southport Schools, Sheffield and Taunton Colleges, the Leys School, Cambridge, and any similar Institution.
(x.) Supervision of Connexional Literature.
(xi.) Reception of Addresses, and Preparation and Adoption of Replies.
(xii.) Official Appointments, Deputations, and Delegations.
(xiii.) Conduct of Public Worship, in accordance with the rules and usages of the Connexion.
(xiv.) Time and Place of holding the next Conference, and the Order of its Business.
(xv.) And all Ministerial and Pastoral subjects of like nature with any of those specified in this Resolution, or affecting the Ministerial or Pastoral Supervision of the Connexion.

N.B.—It is understood that the Management of the Book-Room remains as at present.

V. The following subjects shall come within the province of the Conference when consisting of Ministers and Lay Representatives, viz:—The business now classed in the printed Minutes of the Conference, under the several heads of—

(i.) Committees of Privileges and Exigency.
(ii.) Missions (Foreign).
(iii.) Schools: Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove, Clapton, Southport.

(iv.) Chapel Affairs: (a) General Fund; (b) South Wales District Chapel-Fund; (c) North Wales District Chapel-Fund; (d) The Relief and Extension Fund for Methodism in Scotland; and (e) The Metropolitan Chapel-Building Fund.

(v.) The Children's Fund.

(vi.) The Home-Mission and Contingent Fund: (a) General Committee; (b) Army and Navy Committee; (c) Thames Mission; (d) Metropolitan Methodist Lay Mission; (e) Manchester and Salford, and any similar Mission.

(vii.) The Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund.

(viii.) The Wesleyan Theological Institution.

(x.) Higher Education.

(xi.) Religious Observance of the Lord's Day.

(xii.) Extension of Methodism in Great Britain.

(xiii.) Temperance.

And also all questions relating to—(xiv.) District Sustentation Funds.

(xv.) Proposed alterations and Divisions of Circuits or Districts against which there is any Appeal.

N.B.—The Conference when consisting of Ministers only shall have power to consider and decide all questions as to alterations and divisions of Circuits or Districts on which the Quarterly Meetings and District Committees shall be agreed, and against which there is no Appeal; and also all propositions for the calling out of additional Ministers which shall have received the sanction of the Home-Mission Committee.

(xvi.) And all financial and general subjects of like nature, with any of those specified in this Resolution, or affecting the financial or general affairs of the Connexion.

But all matters connected with, or arising out of, the consideration or decision of the subjects specified in this Resolution, which in the foregoing Resolution are stated to be within the province of the Conference when consisting of Ministers only, shall be considered and decided accordingly.

VI. The consideration and determination of all questions raised by any Resolutions of District Committees, or by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings, or otherwise, shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide.

VII. No new law on any subject within the province of the Conference when composed of Ministers only, proposed during any Conference, shall come into force until it shall have been submitted to the District Committees, when Ministers only are present, and until their reports, if any, shall have been considered, and such law shall have been confirmed by the next Conference when so composed; and no new law on any subject within the province of the Conference when composed both of Ministers and Lay Representatives, proposed during any Conference, shall come into force until it shall have been submitted to the District Committees, when Laymen are present, and until their reports, if any, shall have been considered, and such law shall have been confirmed by the next Conference when so composed.

N.B.—Nothing in this Resolution shall be so construed as to interfere with the rights of the Circuit Quarterly Meetings as set forth in the Minutes of Conference, 1797, vol. i. New Edition, p. 393, and 1852, vol. xii., p. 117.

ORDER AND FORM OF BUSINESS.

ELECTION OF LAY REPRESENTATIVES BY THE CONFERENCE.

1. The voting list of persons nominated shall contain only the names of persons whose nomination is supported by six members of the Conference.

2. A Committee of six scrutineers shall be appointed.

3. For the purposes of the nomination a paper shall be prepared and distributed which will provide for the following entries to be made in it without declaring aloud in the Conference the names of the persons nominated:—

(i.) The name of the person nominated.

(ii.) The name of the person nominating.

(iii.) The names of six persons who support the nomination.

[N.B.—The names of these supporters are to be obtained by the persons nominating.]

4. These nomination-papers shall be collected by the scrutineers; and from papers which have been duly filled up, they shall prepare a voting-sheet to be printed after the manuscript has been read in the Conference.

5. The manuscript shall supply the names of both the persons nominated and persons nominating them, but not the names of the persons supporting the several nominations.

6. The printed voting-papers shall contain only the names of the persons nominated.

7. The scrutineers shall reject every voting-paper upon which more than six names are marked for election.

8. The six persons who have received the highest number of votes shall be declared to have been elected.

N.B.—The Resolutions of the Conference of 1880 are modified as above, in accordance with the decision of the Conference of 1883.

APPENDIX VIII.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE TO THE CONFERENCE OF 1884.

The total number of Bands of Hope reported this year is 2,821, an increase of 177. The number of members is 291,989, an increase of 20,289. As the increase in our Sunday-schools is 10,508, the Bands of Hope are gradually gaining upon the Sunday-schools. At the same time, as we have now 852,459 Sunday-scholars, much must still be done before we attain the high but practicable and most desirable ideal of enrolling every Sunday-scholar in a Band of Hope. When the Band of Hope returns are analysed, it appears that 1,738 of them, with 182,367 members, are organized according to Conference Rules, while 1,072, with 105,595 members, have not yet availed themselves of the admirable and carefully considered organizations sanctioned by the Conference. The May District Meetings, with the full information now laid before them, would do well to encourage all irregular Bands to adopt the Conference Rules, and so secure status, authority, and influence, which they cannot otherwise possess.

The great majority of the Bands of Hope, 2,639, with 273,677 members, are connected with Sunday-schools. This intimate union furnishes the Band of Hope with a perpetual stream of recruits, and tends to leaven the whole school with Temperance principles.

The total number of Wesleyan-Methodist Temperance Societies is only 387, with 26,713 enrolled members. This is an increase of sixteen Societies, and an apparent decrease of 1,701 members. The decrease is only apparent, as there was a mistake in the schedule of one of the large Districts last year. This total, however, is very small, and we fear it will greatly mislead outsiders, and even many of our own people. The fact is that thousands of our most zealous Temperance workers are connected with Blue Ribbon and other undenominational organizations. Some of these are almost entirely worked by our people, and are really Methodist organizations, but cannot be returned in our Schedules. Moreover, we return only 'enrolled members,' whereas in many cases the fruits of Methodist Temperance work among adults are not thus formally enrolled. Moreover, a large number of men and women are returned as members of Bands of Hope. Our work among adults is confronted by two difficulties. In towns many of our most zealous people find it much easier to carry on combined Temperance work on some undenominational basis, and it is difficult to secure either workers or time to organize distinctly Methodist Societies. In villages, on the other hand, there is not sufficient strength to maintain both a Band of Hope and a Temperance Society; and one District has wisely suggested that in the case of villages and small towns, the best course is simply to organize an adult section of the Band of Hope. In some cases this admirable plan might be adopted in large towns also. It is very undesirable that our own Church should do no positive Temperance work of her own among men and women. Your Committee have long been of opinion that two desiderata must still be supplied before a great impetus can be given to the work of Methodist Temperance Societies, and these are a Connexional organ in the Press, and some kind of organizing agency. For several years your Committee have been in correspondence with the proprietors of the Methodist Temperance Magazine, in order to secure that useful publication for the Connexion. They are happy to say that there is now a prospect of achieving that desirable result. With respect to the organizing agency, one gentleman has spontaneously offered a considerable sum of money towards the support of a Connexional Temperance Missionary, should the Conference appoint one. In the existing state of opinion, your Committee is not prepared to offer any definite suggestion. But whatever may be done hereafter, it is very important that we should place our main dependence upon District action. The new District Temperance Sub-Committees have already justified their existence, and in years to come will increasingly exhibit the wisdom of the Conference, when it supplied that missing link in our Temperance organization.

After the unprecedented effort of last year, it was unnecessary to repeat the Congregational petitions for Sunday Closing. But a new and important step was taken by the promotion of petitions from the March Quarterly Meetings. As England alone in the United Kingdom is cursed with a Sunday Liquor Trade, only the English Quarterly Meetings were asked to petition. A ready response was given. 248 petitions signed by 7,776 ministers and Circuit officials were presented to Parliament. Several Quarterly Meetings were held too late to participate in the movement, or the response would have been greater still. Methodism is practically unanimous in demanding this rightful boon, which has been so long withheld by Parliament from the people of England. We should add on the subject of Petitioning, that a large number of petitions have been sent from our Sunday-schools, but in consequence of their indefinite headings, the exact number cannot be determined from the Parliamentary returns.

APPENDIX IX.

ABSTRACT OF REPORT OF COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO WATCH THE INTERESTS OF METHODISM IN SOUTH WALES.

1. THE SOUTH WALES AND MONMOUTHSHIRE WESLEYAN-METHODIST EXTENSION FUND.

The amounts locally promised towards this Fund amount to £3,000. The following facts will show the need of such a Fund as is being now formed:—Twenty-one valleys, within easy distance of Cardiff and Swansea, have been opened up for Colliery purposes; the population thus represented, including that of the towns within the areas, is more than one million. Most of these valleys are in an early stage of working, and are likely to be very largely developed within the next few years.

Moreover, in a large number of small towns and villages beyond this manufacturing area, with an increasing ratio of English-speaking persons, arising largely from the lingual transition through which South Wales is now passing, there is a lamentable need for a great extension of Methodist-services, either English or Bi-lingual.

Within the area of this Fund there are, at least, 600,000 persons yet to be reached by Christian agencies. Amongst the Churches in South Wales, Wesleyan-Methodism stands, in regard to membership, fourth in order; but it has increased during the last twenty years, at a rate exceeded only by one Christian Church. It is felt, therefore, that great responsibilities are laid upon the Methodist people to do their legitimate part in meeting the pressing needs of the Southern part of the Principality.

2. Special Reports have been made by the Committee on the Brecon (English and Welsh) and Carmarthen (English and Welsh) Circuits.

3. The proceedings of this Committee have been duly reported to the Bristol, Swansea and South Wales District Committees.

APPENDIX X.

WEST INDIAN CONFERENCE.

Financial Arrangements Adopted by the Conferebce in its Representative Session.

Considering the financial dependence of the work in some parts of the West Indies on the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society, and the consequent rights and responsibilities of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society, the Grants from the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society shall be made to the Annual Conferences as follows:—

I. Grants to the West Indian Districts.

1. That portion of the Funds raised in the West Indian Districts for the carrying on of the work in the West Indies, which has hitherto been accounted for as Missionary contributions to the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society, shall be disbursed under the management of the District Committees, subject to the control of the Annual Conferences. A West Indian Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society shall be organized, and a Fund established, for the carrying out of aggressive Missionary work.

2. For the next seven years Grants shall be paid annually by the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society as follows:—To the Jamaica Districts, £500 for school-purposes; to the Hayti District, a sum not exceeding £500 for general purposes; to the British Guiana District, a sum not exceeding £400 for general purposes; to the Antigua District, £400 for general purposes; to the St. Kitt's District, £300 for general purposes.

3. For the next seven years a sum not exceeding £40 shall also be paid annually to the York Castle Institution, Jamaica, and a like sum of £40 to the Educational Institution to be founded in connection with the Eastern Annual Conference, on account of each Candidate for the Ministry resident therein for training. The ordinary Grant to the York Castle Institution will cease with the payment to be made in 1885.

4. An Educational Institution of the same nature as that at York Castle, Jamaica, shall be established as soon as possible within the limits of the Eastern Annual Conference, and a sum of £1,000 shall be granted by the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society to assist in carrying out this object. A further sum, not exceeding £250 per annum, shall be paid towards the maintenance of this Institution for a term of seven years.

5. The debt now owing to the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society by the British Guiana District, amounting to £2,664, shall be remitted.

6. A Grant shall be made to the British Guiana District for the extinction of the following items of debt upon Mission-property in that District: £1,611 13s. 4d. now borrowed at 10 per cent. interest; £243 borrowed at 8 per cent., and £222 17s. 10d. borrowed at 8 per cent. interest; total, £2,077 11s. 2d.

7. Whereas all Ministers in the West Indies, whose names are on the Minutes of the Yearly Conference in 1884, have a claim upon the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society for certain allowances to be paid to them when they shall become Supernumeraries, and at their death to be paid to their Widows, all such claims shall remain in force and unaltered. But no Minister in the West Indian Connexion, who shall enter the Ministry after 1884, shall have any claim for such allowances upon the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society.

8. A payment of £500 shall be made by the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society to both the Eastern and Western Conferences to form a nucleus for a Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund, which Grant shall be paid whenever a satisfactory scheme for the formation of such Funds shall have been submitted to the Committee of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society.

II. Outfit and Passage of Ministers and Preachers on Trial who may be sent out from England at the request of the West Indian Annual Conferences.

1. The cost of outfit and passage of Ministers and Preachers on Trial who may be sent from England to the Hayti District shall be paid by the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society for the next seven years: provided that, if the General Conference or the Western Annual Conference remove any Minister from the Hayti District, the place made vacant shall be supplied without any charge for outfit and passage upon the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society.

2. In the case of Ministers and Preachers on Trial who may be sent out from England to other Districts in the West Indian Connexion, one-half of the cost of outfit and passage shall, during the next seven years, be paid by the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society, and one-half by the Annual Conference to which they may be appointed.

III. Trust Property in the West Indies.

With a view to the settlement of the Trust Property in the West Indies upon a uniform deed, which may be adopted throughout the West Indian Connexion, drawn as far as local peculiarities of law will permit according to the provisions of the Chapel Model Deed, this Conference directs the West Indian General Conference to prepare such a deed as early as possible, and submit it for the approval of the Missionary Committee and the 'Yearly Conference.'

IV. The President of the General Conference.

Inasmuch as the time of the President of the General Conference will be very largely employed outside of the Circuit to which he may be appointed, a grant of £250 shall be paid annually by the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society, for the next seven years, towards his maintenance and official expenses.

AN

OF THE

WESLEYAN-METHODIST MINISTERS AND PREACHERS ON TRIAL

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN STATIONS UNDER THE BRITISH CONFERENCE

 The figures in the first column mark simply the year in which each Minister entered on his work; those which immediately follow the name of the Circuits, d note the number of the Circuit on the Stations, the Mission Stations being distinguished by a number in brackets; and the numbers which stand at the right of the third column denote the first, second, or third annual appointment of the Minister to the Circuit.

For List of Ministers and Preachers on Trial in the South African Wesleyan-Methodist Conference, see pages 466-471.
